Subject: Redistricting Commission Update-- Draft Maps Moved to July 14th and New LA Visualization and Discussion Today

Dear CA Dem CoS and District Directors:

A few quick updates on the schedule:

1) They changed the date for the second draft map vote to July 14th. The Commission will put review the drafts however in public on July 12th and 13th (so we should have a general idea what they will look like by July 12th).

2) Deadline for public comments on the first map is still June 28th.

3) The Commission is meeting today at 11am PT to review new visualizations the Commission has created for Congressional districts based on latino cvap/vap numbers in LA/OC/San Bernadino regions. You can view them here: Zipped Visualizations for Congressional Districts (zip, 10.2MB, June 24, 2011). They are going over these today-- so they may change. And will continue to change likely before the draft maps come out.
