Just a reminder that everything around the incident with O'Dea is an on-going investigation and you should not make any statements or clarifications other than it is an on-going investigation and he feels terrible about it.

Morning! Any interest in grabbing breakfast before we start the day? I imagine the media will be in a frenzy over last night, the budget, etc...

I've been enjoying a combination of hay fever and jet lag so have been up since 3 and able to head out whenever; if you're tied up, I will see you at the office when you get in. 5:56 AM

Good idea - sorry about the jet lag! Zells or Bijou at 8? 6:48 AM

I'm down at the office so let's do bijou at 8 6:49 AM

Ok 6:51 AM

Great speech. 10:01 AM

Think I should reward Amanda and support two more Rangers? Tempted to both to make nice and to take away an excuse for poor service 10:27 AM

Ok. But two things- she can't take the $ from the basketball program and 10:28 AM

I'd link it in your speech to having to use other people as outreach for homeless since we don't have enough cops. Keep driving that home. 10:29 AM

Take one or the other out of contingency 10:33 AM

Budget note to fill contingency out of fall BMP if we don't get them to pony up 10:34 AM

Any idea why? 6:12 PM

No...I will try to find out. 6:12 PM

You left your book here. Diana will bring it in tomorrow morning- I've got a ugb task force mtg at metro at 9. 6:51 PM

Novick is still bugging me 9:45 AM

Working on it. Don't call him 9:46 AM

Oh my - autocorrect tried to make Novick into Novice 9:47 AM

Our friend Blaine at GSA called this am- I'm tied up most of the day so won't likely call til Monday. Jolin really wants to talk with you this afternoon. And ha- prescient! 9:47 AM

Just have Jolin call me 9:48 AM

K. 9:49 AM

Just had a partial conv with Jolin - he wants to lobby me; I want him to STAND AND DELIVER 10:02 AM

Well, GSA may make this moot anyway. 10:04 AM

And I agree. We can open obryant pretty damned quickly if we got TPI to say yes and run it but they have said no. 10:04 AM

We should tell GSA today that we are not maneuvering to keep it open longer - we should find other options if AT ALL possible 10:09 AM

Talked to blane. Not happy. We are getting an email letter saying we are out of compliance (not even because of homeless but because we still aren't using it as intended), and they are coming down for an inspection. He said if we want to use it for other purposes than emergency we can, but we have to let them know so they can tear up the deed and redo another one for a different use, including a homeless shelter. But the neighborhood would go nuts. Jolin is asking if we can use city hall and county building and I'm open to that. 10:35 AM

Oh I forgot to ask - what about Novice? 11:40 AM

Chris said he'd tell him to walk on the vote 11:41 AM

What do you think about opening city hall at night- first floor? 11:46 AM

Looks panicky 11:47 AM

Not so sure- I think it would buy us a ton of goodwill with neighborhoods- putting money where our mouth is. 11:48 AM

Seattle did it. 11:48 AM

Would also force county to do it too. 11:48 AM

Not that it particularly matters but it's what Goodman and others have been asking that we do as well and is also referenced in the natl homelessness document you saw yesterday. 11:50 AM

If it's both maybe. Need to talk with other council offices 11:50 AM

Jolin needs to. And it would have to be both. 11:50 AM

It might help the rest of the council own the problem a bit 11:53 AM

Yep. Totally agree, and I actually think it makes you look even more humanitarian and shuts up a lot of critics. 11:53 AM

Ok

Me:

Me:
Absolutely disgusting and unconscionable. He deserves way more respect than this, and while he's too good a guy to do anything about it, I'm not.

Me:
I'm still trying to calm down over this. She needs to publicly apologize immediately. And she needs to call him directly and apologize. And she needs to apologize to my staff- many of whom have spent every day for the past year doing nothing hit caring for hundreds and hundreds of homeless people while you do nothing but posture and dither. The reason those 160 people are off the street to begin with is because of us, asshole.

Him:
You know what? You should check yourself.

Me:
Fuck you

Him:
Seriously? Grow up, Josh. You don't want to go this direction.

Me:
Don't tell me what to do or what direction I should go, Dave. You guys went off half-cocked without any info or even asking, took a horrible cheap shot at a guy covering for you all for getting us into this mess and I have all the emails that show that. But being grown up is handling business and dealing with your frustrations privately. I may need to grow up but you need to buy some fucking class.

10:32 PM

Him:
You may be mad and I'll allow you your time to be angry but you should really stop sending stuff like that. You're making yourself look bad.

Me:
See, that's the problem here. You assume we care so much about how we look, so I get why you would say that.

Truth is, Charlie hales has as small an ego as any elected official I've ever known, and doesn't particularly care that much about how he looks- he is trying to do his job.

And I'd think you realize at this point based on how many people I've pissed off over the past year that the work is what's important to me. I begged people before I left town two weeks ago NOT to ask this neighborhood for an extension. The Mayor's ego wasn't the reason- it was because credibility IS important and no neighborhood would trust any of us again if you all broke his promise right out of the gate. That was dumb, unnecessary and dangerous for the WORK.
