

WHY I'M RUNNING

I decided to run for Congress because I don't want to raise a family in a country run by left-wing socialists. We need leaders who will stand up and fight AOC, The Squad and the radical left-wing mob.

My generation is looking for results socialism can't provide. Socialism only produces shared misery. As a constitutional conservative, I want to apply timeless American principles like freedom, liberty, equality and opportunity to today's challenges. In a time of peril, we need to rediscover and celebrate these first principles.

On every issue the left says they care about – health care, the environment and economic and racial justice – conservative ideas are far more likely to produce outcomes that make a positive difference in people's lives. The left's record, especially in our cities, is abysmal. It's no wonder they want to rewrite history.

I'm also running because our national debt and deficits are a threat to our national security, and my generation's future. In Washington, there is not just a budget deficit but a deficit of courage. For too long, members in both parties have refused to do the hard work necessary to put our country on a sustainable course.

The left wants to destroy, dismantle and defund. I'm running because I want to renew, restore and rebuild.
