

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

- WHEREAS: January 15, 2021 marks 50 years of exceptional service by Freddie Rhodes; and
- WHEREAS: Freddie is a beloved member of the Channel 4 family and the Jacksonville community who displays exceptional professionalism and a level of kindness that is unmatched and admired by all who are fortunate enough to know him; and
- WHEREAS: Freddie is an accomplished well known radio personality who occasionally graces the Channel 4 viewers with his skills giving viewers a true sense of the talented man he is; and
- WHEREAS: Freddie’s love for God is beyond compare and shines brightly in all that he does professionally and personally; and
- WHEREAS: Freddie is a true friend, co-worker, and mentor and has enriched the lives of so many over his 50 exceptional years at Channel 4.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim January 15, 2021 as in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to strive each day to display the compassion for others and the unparalleled work ethic that Freddie has shown each day for the last 50 years.

FREDDIE RHODES DAY

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 14th day of January in the year Two Thousand and Twenty One

MAYOR