Dear Governor Kemp:

This letter is notice that the Fulton County District Attorney has opened an investigation into attempts to influence the administration of the 2020 Georgia General Election. This investigation includes, but is not limited to, potential violations of Georgia law prohibiting the solicitation of election fraud, the making of false statements to state and local governmental bodies, conspiracy, racketeering, violation of oath of office and any involvement in violence or threats related to the election's administration.

It has come to our attention via media reports that contacts were made by subjects of the investigation with other agencies that could be investigating this matter, including the Secretary of State, the Attorney General and the United States Attorney's office for the Northern District of Georgia. As such, this office is the one agency with jurisdiction that is not a witness to the conduct that is the subject of the investigation. This agency has jurisdiction over this matter because this judicial circuit is where the Georgia government entities that were contacted are headquartered, including the Office of the Governor, the Secretary of State, the Attorney General and the General Assembly.

This letter is notification that all records potentially related to the administration of the 2020 General Election must be preserved, with particular care being given to set aside and preserve those that may be evidence of attempts to influence the actions of persons who were administering that election. Please remind your staff that it is a crime under Georgia law to destroy records created or received in the performance of government duty other than through operation of an approved retention schedule. Should any retention schedule in your office dictate that relevant records be destroyed before being provided to my office, please suspend that schedule regarding such records immediately.

Please be mindful that such records include email messages related to official duties that were sent or received by government employees on both governmental and nongovernmental email accounts. Please remind your employees to preserve any potentially relevant messages that were sent via any email account.

This matter is of high priority, and I am confident that as fellow law enforcement officers sworn to uphold the Constitutions of the United States and Georgia, our acquisition of information and evidence of potential crimes via interviews, documents, videos and electronic records will be cooperative. The next Fulton County grand jury is due to convene in March, and this office will begin requesting grand jury subpoenas as necessary at that time. At this stage, we have no reason to believe that any Georgia official is a target of this investigation.

As my esteemed colleague and fellow law enforcement officials, I know we all agree that our duty demands that this matter be investigated and, if necessary, prosecuted, in a manner that is free from any appearance of conflict of interest or political considerations. The Fulton County District Attorney's office will conduct itself in a manner that will build public confidence in our elections, our law enforcement system and our judicial process.

Should you have questions, please contact me at (404) 612-4639. Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,
