dsherlockb@gmail.com: Lions and tigers and bears

6:46 PM we get along like pals
me: ah so when we go hiking you can save me from mountain lions and bears good, ill keep that in mind while choosing hiking partners:P

6:47 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Hmm, mountain lions like deers though and bears like honey so they'd probably be all after you my dear honey

6:50 PM me: aww thanks, I know I am very sweet;-) but are you saying you wont protect me from them either way?

6:51 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: - My mission is to protect you
me: hahahahaha good, here I thought you were being overtaken by skynet

6:52 PM maybe then I will choose you as my hiking partner

6:53 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Oh, umm... well this is awkward. I kinda already chose another hiking partner

6:54 PM PIKACHU!
me: aah i see

6:55 PM good luck getting hit by lightning:P
dsherlockb@gmail.com: Pikachu would redirect that no prob

6:56 PM me: doesnt pikachu do the lightning?
dsherlockb@gmail.com: Yea, so he would easily be able to redirect hostile lightning :) bolts

6:57 PM me: well then, id just have to go with neo

6:59 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: How about we trade. I'll switch with neo so Pikachu and neo can battle mr smith. More effective duos both ways

7:00 PM me: hmmm, i gotta think about this battling mr smith would be a pretty sweet experience

7:01 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Das true. Only problem is neo's gal dies to mr. smith :'(

7:02 PM me: that's only in the third movie nothing happens the first movie

7:03 PM in the first one, they fight mr smith and kick some serious ass

7:06 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Looks as if you better not go on three hikes or disaster is abrewin'

7:07 PM me: well, i choose from a random pool of awesome hikers

7:08 PM improbable that neo would be there for 3 hikes

7:09 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: I bet you wrote a program for that me: maybe .... it can be an artificial intelligence problem:P
are you sure you'd survive a hike without my awesome wit?

7:10 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: maybe. Seems that I would be fighting a lot of wild animals though.
can you outwit a grizzly?

7:11 PM me: maybe ...
maybe pikachoo can sizzle the grizzly for you though

7:12 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: maybe but then there's still lions and tigers or maybe even pterodactyls.

7:13 PM me: had to look that one up;-)
didnt know there was a jurassic park in colorado?

7:14 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: its underground.

me: lol you gotta explain what those emoticons mean:P

7:19 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Thats me on the right me: ah i assumed so coz you start sneezing whenever i am near;-) dsherlockb@gmail.com: I'm punching a cat

dsherlockb@gmail.com: I started reading that wifey hat book

7:09 PM On the case with the phantom leg
me: ooh the other book i told you about has awesome cases on phantom limbs :D this one's more philosophical, the other ones are more case history type

7:11 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: What would you do if you woke up with a random leg next you in your bed?
me: prolly try to find the body it is attached to?:P

7:12 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: I would try and find the other leg first

7:13 PM but those guys just push the leg out of the bed. that's no fun
me: hahaha, well they clearly dont like sharing the bed

7:14 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: That phantom leg probably hogged all the sheets

11:00 AM me: hey slurpie

11:02 AM dsherlockb@gmail.com: How goes it Gargizzle?

me: really really really tired couldnt sleep much last night

11:03 AM dsherlockb@gmail.com: All those serial killers keepin' you up?

me: actually this time, yes. i was asleep for an hour and had a serial killer dream and couldnt sleep after that 11:05 AM dsherlockb@gmail.com: I won't let em get you.

11:06 AM me: hahahaa i dont think i have anything to worry about from emily;):P

11:07 AM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Emily was the killer. What a twist!

me: hahaha no it actually was some creepy maile male

i will tell you about the dream when i see you working on presentation?

11:08 AM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Nah, making a gel

It's mixing atm

11:10 AM me: ah, whats the gel for?

11:11 AM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Another ethidium bromide stain. Looking to see if the mutation worked

me: ah

<http://matt.might.net/articles/ways-to-fail-a-phd/>

11:13 AM dsherlockb@gmail.com: That seems like a high fail rate, I thought it was more around 10%

11:15 AM me: oh at least in engineering, dropout rate is 60+%

in cse in michigan, its a low drop out rate of 50-60%

11:17 AM dsherlockb@gmail.com: A masters is the typical working degree for engineering though. In biology

it's a Phd, so a lot more engineering students stop with the masters

me: true

this one was more comp sci geared:)

11:19 AM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Are yuh worried about failing?

me: nope not really

11:20 AM im pretty confident ill do well here - the only way id fail is prolly by getting frustrated and giving up last time, i gave up coz i didnt like my project - my prof had offered me a smooth transfer to phd with funding for 5 years

dsherlockb@gmail.com: Even if you do, you'll still get a good job with your masters. I on the other hand would be sol

11:21 AM me: you are biology though, so as you said, phd is kind of a norm for cs, i can get a good job with an undergrad degree. also places like apple really dont giv a shit about degree as long as i have done cool stuff

11:23 AM dsherlockb@gmail.com: And you being cool helps too

11:24 AM me: here i thought i was hot:P

dsherlockb@gmail.com: brb gel stuff

me: ok

1:43 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: I didn't enjoy our family group therapy. Maybe it will be different for you as it's individual and you sought it out

1:44 PM me: oh i would HATE group therapy

me: yea
dsherlockb@gmail.com: Seems like he is a statistician me: no
but in many comp sci stuff where you do data collection you gotta interpret your results with lotsa stats same goes for bi 2:44 PM im kinda okay with doing his stats, coz this is helping me learn stats which will be important for me i basically planned to do a t-test, btu his data is not normally distributed thus had to find another test
dsherlockb@gmail.com: Stats is a valuable skill set Much more than calculus
2:45 PM I got some free qdoba today
2:46 PM 10x > than Chipotle Chipotle < taco bell
me: wow, you californians have a twisted sense of taste:P

you should stay over afterwards if we do
2:53 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: You're still in need of a good Dominion whooping

1:21 PM me: hey
you rickrolling the world?

1:22 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: did you click it :)
me: nope:P it says below the link what it is:)

1:23 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Still a good song heh

1:24 PM me: you should incorporate his world famous pants wearing style:P

1:25 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: I am debating whether to sleep, skyrim or read.
me: skyrim!
slay those damn dragons

1:27 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: I would n all but it probably won't be very useful for the future me: how much is reading or sleeping going to help?

1:28 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: More than video games I suppose me: its something fun that you like to do, go ahead do it, fuck the future for once do what you feel like doing, its a sunday afternoon

1:29 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Well what I feel like doing is evil so can't do that me: what do you feel like doing?
dsherlockb@gmail.com: Video games are the next best thing through escapism

1:30 PM me: what is so evil that you want to do?

1:31 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Kill people of course
That is why I live in the future
me: killing people is too much effort, you'll end up locked up most people are not worth what might happen to you coz of the act

1:32 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: That's why you kill many people me: even then, at least personally im selfish and have too much of an idea of self-importance most people arent worth jack shit even if you go postal, whats it worth? what do you gain?

1:34 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: There's no way to do it and not get caught
But
The only way justice can be served is by taking away your time or life me: why do you care so much about justise?

1:35 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: If you wait to kill until the end of your life, than there is nothing to lose

1:36 PM me: but why would you want to kill as in why would you decide this is the end, and kill when you could live more, experience more things?
why would those people be worth ending your life?
dsherlockb@gmail.com: It's the end then though, no more experiences me: why?
how do you decide that is the end?

2:34 PM dsherlockb@gmail.com: Aight, you want play some dom?
me: sometime today i gotta finishup some stuff ive to send strong but after that we can ill keep you posted dsherlockb@gmail.com: ciao
