

Fighting back in Scarsdale

The 2014 revaluation continues to roil the village of Scarsdale, especially in the village's mansion district, where many homes saw their assessed values rise by more than $1 million. Many homeowners also fought the increases, with some seeing reductions of more than $1 million in taxable value.

45 MURRAY HILL

After a reduction of $1 million, the taxable value still rose from $2.7 million to $3.1 million.

5 HEATHCOTE ROAD

After a reduction of $470,000, the taxable value still rose from $2 million to $3.7 million.

45 BIRCHALL ROAD

After a reduction of $1.4 million, the taxable value fell from $5.5 million to $4.3 million.
