

CORVEL RESPONSE

Hank Nava and Dwayne Freeto were brave Fort Worth police officers who died in the line of duty.

CorVel acknowledges its mistake in sending their families notification of the transition of workers' compensation claims handling to a new third party administrator with wishes for a speedy recovery.

This letter was sent to all City of Fort Worth workers' compensation claimants. And, while drafters of the letter believed this last sentence to be a warm closing statement to injured employees, they overlooked that the letter would be received by the families of deceased officers.

This oversight was not intentional, and CorVel regrets any hurt its communications caused these fine families. CorVel plans to reach out individually to the families of Officer Hank Nava and Officer Dwayne Freeto with its sincere apologies.
