Recorded Telephone Calls

DEAN SKELOS Cellphone

Call Date: January 29, 2015
Call Time: 1:39:51 PM
Session Number: 668
Participants: DEAN SKELOS
SENATOR JACK MARTINS

1 [Start: 03:05]

2 MARTINS: It just seems like everyone else is
3 stepping on everyone's toes (indiscernible)

4 D. SKELOS: You know, it just seems like
5 everything that, that's being done at the local level, none
6 of it, none of it seems to work in terms of the, the way
7 it's rolled out, the way you do it, that type of thing.

8 I still believe with the red light cameras, you
9 know, the speed cameras, if, if they had done it the right
10 way and notification and the warning signs and all that 11 stuff, there wouldn't have been a problem.

12 MARTINS: You're right. You're --

13 D. SKELOS: I mean, some, some people would have 14 been upset, but in New York City, there's no problem.

15 MARTINS: There wouldn't have been a problem, but 16 they're incapable. You saw, you saw -- did you see the 17 billboards? 100-foot billboards, LEDs --

18 D. SKELOS: Jesus Christ. I, I, I saw Robbie at,
19 at -- you know, Ed had a thing this morning. What the fuck
20 you guys doing, you know? And, you know, we're desperate.
21 I said but, you know, you guys should give us notification
22 of this stuff, not just all of a sudden here it is.

23 MARTINS: Can you imagine if DOT had issued
24 permits?

25 D. SKELOS: Well, they took it off the planning

1 board thing, so that's, that's good, but --

2 MARTINS: Yeah, but everything seems to be
3 falling apart, and whether you're talking about speed
4 cameras or now this casino, or you're talking about, you
5 know, the prospect of something else coming down the 6 pike --

7 D. SKELOS: I, I don't -- what do they do for 8 revenue to straighten this shit out?

9 MARTINS: They have nothing.

10 D. SKELOS: I don't -- I know. I don't know what 11 the hell do they do, you know, in terms of, you know, in 12 terms of either the -- even revenue or cutting spending.
13 Where do they cut? I mean, they tell me they're at the 14 bone.
