Raiding Officers Seize Gambling Equipment

By JOHN BRADSHAW

Truck driver played a key role in the raid last night on a gambling establishment located at 200 South Central Avenue. The raid was conducted by the officers of the Austin Police Department, who were assisted by the Travis County Sheriff's Department.

The officers entered the establishment, which is a large, single-story building, and made the arrest of the operator of the gambling establishment. The officers also seized a large amount of gambling equipment, including slot machines, poker tables, and other similar devices.

School Prayers Hearings Begin

In the last few weeks, the Austin Independent School District has been holding public hearings to consider whether to allow school prayers in its schools. The district has received thousands of letters from parents and students, as well as from the community at large, expressing their views on the issue.

In the hearing last night, several representatives of the community spoke in favor of allowing school prayers. However, many of the speakers expressed concern that allowing school prayers would violate the separation of church and state.

Innocent Plea Made by Speck

By SPECK aka (Robert) aka (Michael) aka (David)

Procedure to begin in the next few weeks, the Travis County District Attorney's Office has filed charges against Speck, a 22-year-old man, for a variety of offenses, including assault, burglary, and theft.

Speck is accused of burglarizing a home on the night of the raid and stealing a large amount of property, including jewelry and electronics.

Jury Provisions Of Rights Bill Hit

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The House of Representatives has passed a bill that would make changes to the jury provisions of the rights bill that was passed last year. The bill, which was sponsored by Representative John Doe (D-Austin), would allow juries to be larger and more diverse.

The bill was approved by a margin of 301 to 120, and it now goes to the Senate for consideration.