One nurse checked his reflex at the bottom of his feet and WILLIAMS' foot curled, but WILLIAMS would not get up or move. However, he did talk to them. However, they did get WILLIAMS onto a gurney and wheeled him to the shower. WILLIAMS did not help to get himself onto the gurney. He was placed into the shower, his clothes were removed, and the shower turned on. After WILLIAMS was cleaned up, he was given a drink of water, returned to his cell and put on the wall bed this time. FIKE thought WILLIAMS was on suicide watch due to his behavior.

FIKE went to the mental health nurse who thought WILLIAMS had a psychosomatic problem and therefore could not move. DO TAMMY HANLEY, went to WILLIAMS' door and tapped on it along with an intern. WILLIAMS was observed laying on the floor and did not respond. FIKE said there were enough people there and told HANLEY to open the door. TITLE OF REPORT: INTERVIEW OF HUGHES

KIMBERLY RAYE HUGHES, Nurse/LPN, W/F, DOB: [REDACTED], [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Tulsa, Oklahoma 74135, [REDACTED], was employed by a contract company to provide medical care at the Tulsa County Jail and provided the following information:

HUGHES said her normal job at the jail was to screen people as they were coming into the system as part of the booking procedure. HUGHES remembered back to October 21 or 22, 2011, when she and MONICA HOLLOWAY were requested by Corporal ARTHUR JACKSON due to a person in cell #10 who thought he had a broken his neck. HUGHES grabbed her blood pressure cuff and oxygen level clip before going to cell #10. JACKSON held the door open and the patient (ELLIOT EARL WILLIAMS) stated that he was paralyzed. WILLIAMS said he "rammed his head into the door." WILLIAMS did not know why he did it. HUGHES touched WILLIAMS' arm and WILLIAMS turned his head. WILLIAMS asked to be rolled over and HUGHES helped to turn him some while asking him where he was hurting. HUGHES touched the back of his neck and he asked to be turned onto his stomach. As he was turned onto his stomach HUGHES started to massage the back part of WILLIAMS' neck and asked if this was where he was hurting. WILLIAMS said it felt good and wanted her to "work it on down". HUGHES stopped and there was no further massage. WILLIAMS said he just wanted to go to sleep for a while.

HUGHES checked on WILLIAMS as often as she could during the night every thirty minutes or so. HUGHES would look into the cell and he slept the rest of the time she was there. HUGHES saw that WILLIAMS was breathing fine and thought he had just jolted himself (referring to ramming his head into the cell door). That was the only contact HUGHES had with WILLIAMS that night. HUGHES explained that in her report she indicated that WILLIAMS was "alert and oriented x's 3" to mean that he was alert to "who he was", "where he was" (jail), and "time frame" (morning).

On Tuesday, October 25, 2011, HUGHES came back to work and noticed as she was making her rounds that her first patient was WILLIAMS in medical. At first, she did not know it was the same guy because he was totally different. She opened the hole in the door to take his vitals and called to him to move over toward the door so she could do so. He was lying on a blanket which indicated he was on suicide watch and HUGHES remembered the previous nurse telling her that he did not move for her. She called to him and he told her he was paralyzed. HUGHES observed WILLIAMS lying on his back muttering to himself (unintelligible) and rolling his fingers (close to his chest area). There was no other response and HUGHES did not expect anything more. HUGHES saw a Styrofoam cup on his blanket and a meal box there. He was

She called out to HUGHES and he asked for water. HUGHES told him to move to the door but he responded that he was paralyzed and could not do it. HUGHES asked DO SMITH and DO RICH to open the cell door, but they said they could not open the door do to safety issues. TITLE OF REPORT: INTERVIEW OF MICHAEL JOHN LAHITA

MICHAEL JOHN LAHITA III, W/M DOB [REDACTED], [REDACTED]. Tulsa, Oklahoma [REDACTED], provided the following information:

LAHITA was a DO (detention officer) for Tulsa County Sheriff's Office jail and he was working at the jail from 1900 hrs. on October 21, 2011 to 0700 hrs. on October 22, 2011. ELLIOTT WILLIAMS was booked into the Tulsa County jail at approximately 0145 hrs. on October 22, 2011 and LAHITA was the DO who booked him in.

LAHITA never talked to WILLIAMS when he was booked in. The arresting officers do the necessary booking paperwork and give it to LAHITA and he finished the booking procedure. The prisoner being booked remains on the other side of the glass, outside the booking desk area.

LAHITA remembered WILLIAMS was wearing "Owasso Orange" coveralls at the time he was booked. He saw the Owasso officers place WILLIAMS in the holding cell south of the booking desk. The Owasso officers placed a brown paper bag containing WILLIAMS' clothing into the holding cell for him to change from the Orange coveralls to WILLIAMS' personal clothes. The Owasso officers went to the warrant area and then came back to the holding cell area. They asked LAHITA to open the cell and LAHITA opened the cell door. Tulsa Sheriff's Office Jail policy requires all prisoners to be handcuffed prior to their being walked through the "booking slider". LAHITA remembered that the "heavy set" officer, WELLS tried to handcuff WILLIAMS and got the left side handcuff on him. WILLIAMS became aggressive and WELLS put WILLIAMS in an "arm bar" hold and the two Owasso officers "took him to the ground". He believed WELLS fell on WILLIAMS' shoulder blade area. Both officers handcuffed WILLIAMS behind his back and picked him up. They took WILLIAMS from the waiting area, through the "booking slider" and sat him in a chair and WILLIAMS had his jail photo taken. LAHITA believed a DO officer then took WILLIAMS to cell #10 and LAHITA opened the cell door and WILLIAMS was placed in cell #10.

LAHITA later went into WILLIAMS' cell a couple of times and checked on him and WILLIAMS appeared to be breathing OK. LAHITA never saw WILLIAMS again.

END NOTE: On 11-16-2011 LAHITA viewed a video (with OSBI Agent CHUCK JEFFRIES) of the jail booking of WILLIAMS. LAHITA identified himself in the video as one of the DO'S who escorted WILLIAMS to cell #10 from the booking area. WILLIAMS had apparently become disruptive and several DO'S, including LAHITA escorted WILLIAMS to cell #10.

TITLE OF REPORT: INTERVIEW OF JACK DALE WELLS

JACK DALE WELLS, W/M, DOB: [REDACTED], SSN: [REDACTED], [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Owasso, Oklahoma 74055, Telephone: [REDACTED], provided the following information:

WELLS had been a patrol officer with the Owasso Police Department since August of 2002.

On October 21, 2011, in the late evening, WELLS and Officer WOLERY responded to a disturbance call at the Marriott Hotel in Owasso, Oklahoma. Upon WELLS arrival, ELLIOTT WILLIAMS, his brother and his father, EARL WILLIAMS were standing in the Hotel lobby. The three men came outside and spoke with WELLS. EARL'S wife was sitting in their pickup truck in the parking lot.

EARL stated ELLIOTT had problems in his marriage. His wife was a foreign national and had married him to stay in the United States. She had drained ELLIOTT'S bank account and had left him several times. ELLIOTT was having mental problems and had not been able to get any sleep at EARL'S house. EARL had rented a room for ELLIOTT at the Marriott.

The officers attempted to engage ELLIOTT in conversation, ELLIOTT rambles and was incoherent. ELLIOTT reaches down and picks up dirt off the ground. As he is placing the dirt on his tongue, he states "we all come from the dirt and we all go back to the dirt." WELLS contacted dispatch and asked for COPES to dispatch someone to the scene.

ELLIOTT, EARL, the brother, Officer WOLERY and Officer WELLS move away from the front of the Hotel to the edge of the parking lot and within several feet of Mrs. WILLIAMS seated in the pickup truck. ELLIOTT'S demeanor becomes more threatening. He stands up, after being told to sit down; he keeps his hands in his pockets and makes movements towards the officers. ELLIOTT walked over to his mother, pulls his sweat shirt down and exposes his tattoo on his breast. ELLIOTT was seated onto the curb with his father's assistance and then he lay on the sidewalk. EARL assists ELLIOTT to his feet and they all walk to the other side of the parking lot. ELLIOTT took a seat on the curb. EARL then told his other son to take his mother home.

EARL asked ELLIOTT questions about committing suicide. ELLIOTT admitted he had talked about it. ELLIOTT had stood up and WELLS asked him to sit back down. ELLIOTT refused and WELLS asked him to have a seat in the back of the patrol car. ELLIOTT pulled his sweater down and stated "It's going to be on CNN, man predicts his death." ELLIOTT pats his chest and states "boom, boom". WELLS becomes concerned about suicide by cop and asks ELLIOTT to sit back down. ELLIOTT states, "What do I have to do to get you to kill me". ELLIOTT started walking towards WELLS and WELLS raises his pepper spray and tells ELLIOTT to get back. ELLIOTT then said, "now that is what I am talking about and steps back and turns and faces WOLERY. ELLIOTT said to WOLERY, "what do I have to do to get you to shoot me?"

ELLIOTT started walking toward WOLERY and WELLS gave the command to get down and pepper sprays ELLIOTT in the face. WELLS grabbed ELLIOTT'S left arm and with his forearm in the middle of ELLIOTT'S back, forces ELLIOTT to the ground. WELLS radioed dispatch to send medics to the scene. ELLIOTT was assisted to his feet and placed in the back seat of WOLERY'S patrol unit.

Supervisor H.D. PITTS arrived and briefed on the incident. ELLIOTT was arrested on Obstruction. The medics arrived to treat ELLIOTT for pepper spray; he was then transported to the Owasso city jail. ELLIOTT was taken inside and seated on a bench while WELLS prepared the paper work. ELLIOTT does not give any relevant information and lies down on the bench. WELLS hears a thud and ELLIOTT has rolled off the bench and hit the floor. WELLS gave ELLIOTT commands to get up but ELLIOTT refused all commands. WELLS and PITT pick ELLIOTT up by the arms and drag him to cell #5. ELLIOTT'S socks and pants are taken off and orange jail pants are placed on him. They take his shirt off and leave the orange shirt in the jail cell with him. WELLS walked back to the desk to begin paperwork for transport.

Dispatch notifies WELLS that ELLIOTT has taken the mat off the bunk and ELLIOTT was lying on the floor under the bunk. WELLS and PITT walk back to cell #5. WELLS tells ELLIOTT to get back on top of the bunk. ELLIOTT has taken his pants off and put his shirt on. ELLIOTT is on the floor barking like a dog. ELLIOTT does not respond to any commands and he is left in the cell.

About one hour later, Officer TOWNSEND arrived to assist with transportation to DAVID L. MOSS. WELLS, PITT, TOWNSEND and Officer LEM MULTI walk to cell #5. MULTI handcuffs ELLIOTT without any incident. WELLS and TOWNSEND transport ELLIOTT to DAVID L. MOSS.

Upon arrival at DAVID L. MOSS, ELLIOTT "B-bops into the jail." ELLIOTT does not want to sit on a bench and WELLS places his hand on ELLIOTT'S shoulder and ELLIOTT takes the seat. ELLIOTT was placed in a holding cell and told to take the orange jail suit off and put his original clothes back on. ELLIOTT stands in the cell and refuses all commands.

ELLIOTT is taken out of the cell and told to turn around to be handcuffed. WELLS attempts to place the handcuff on ELLIOTT'S left wrist and ELLIOTT pulls away and states, "you do not know who you are fucking with." WELLS grabbed the left wrist and placed his other forearm across ELLIOTT'S back; they spin out of the cell into the booking area. TOWNSEND swept ELLIOTT'S feet out and they all go to the floor. WELLS landed on top of ELLIOTT'S shoulder and head. Two Tulsa Police Department Officers assist in getting ELLIOTT handcuffed. ELLIOTT is stood up and seated on a bench. ELLIOTT appeared to be fine with no injuries.

ELLIOTT stood up and TOWNSEND told him to sit down and then handcuffs him to the bench. ELLIOTT began talking about JESUS and officers badges going down tonight. ELLIOTT walked thru the sliding doors unassisted. He is patted down by Tulsa County Officers, walked thru a metal detector and into the booking area. WELLS was given back his handcuffs and WELLS and TOWNSEND leave.

ELLIOTT never acted like he was injured and never stated he was injured.

TITLE OF REPORT: INTERVIEW OF WHITE

EDDIE WAYNE WHITE II, B/M, DOB: [REDACTED], SSN: [REDACTED], [REDACTED] Tulsa, Oklahoma 74120, [REDACTED], had been employed as a Detention Officer (DO) at the Tulsa County Jail for six years and provided the following information:

WHITE'S job included patting down people coming into the jail system, getting mug shots, fingerprinting, and helping to control the booking area. On October 22, 2011, WHITE came to work at 7:00 am and was briefed by the prior floor officer that the person in cell #10 was complaining that he could not move. WHITE went to check on ELLIOT EARL WILLIAMS in cell #10 to see about getting him processed. WILLIAMS told WHITE that he could not move because there were chemicals inside of his body and that was what would not let him move. This went on for about five hours. Usually WHITE would be able to get people to cooperate. The sergeant and those in intake told WHITE that WILLIAMS was able to walk prior to coming into the jail. Several attempts were made to get WILLIAMS up without success. Sergeant CARLA HOUSLEY called a medical emergency to get him moved. Those present were Nurse EARNIE CHAPPEL, Captain TOMMY FIKE, Sergeant CARLA HOUSELY, Sergeant HENSHAW, and another nurse. The nurses assessed WILLIAMS and it was determined to move him to medical. WHITE heard WILLIAMS make the claim that something was in his butt (rectum). It was determined by one of the nurses that WILLIAMS had a bowel movement and that was what WILLIAMS was referring to in his butt.

WHITE next came into contact with WILLIAMS three days later when he needed to get the information (mug shot and fingerprints) to put on the booking sheet. WHITE had a wheelchair in order to move WILLIAMS to booking, if necessary. WILLIAMS was talking but still claimed he could not move. WHITE was trying to see if WILLIAMS could get into the wheelchair, but he could not. WILLIAMS moved his head and even looked at WHITE, but did not try to get up. WHITE offered WILLIAMS some clothes to put on and WILLIAMS extended his arms but did not take them. WHITE left with the wheelchair and went back to work.

A short time later, members of the Owasso police department arrived. The police asked ELLIOTT if he was having marital problems. ELLIOTT replied, "Not anymore". CLIFTON overheard one of the officers say they did not have a reason to arrest ELLIOTT.

TITLE OF REPORT: INTERVIEW OF EARL WILLIAMS JR.

EARL WILLIAMS JR., BM, DOB: [REDACTED], SSN: [REDACTED], [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], Owasso, Oklahoma, [REDACTED], provided the following information:

EARL was ELLIOTT WILLIAMS' father. KATHA WILLIAMS was EARL'S wife. CLIFTON WILLIAMS was ELLIOTT'S brother. Sometime around 1994, ELLIOTT enlisted in the United States Army. He was in a short time, before he received a medical discharge. ELLIOTT received the medical discharge because he was diagnosed with bipolar disorder. To EARL'S knowledge, ELLIOTT had no history of back or neck problems.

ELIAH PATRICIA WILLIAMS was ELLIOTT'S wife. HELEN was ELIAH'S daughter from a previous relationship. HELEN was born sometime around 2009. On January 16, 2010, ELLIOTT married ELIAH. After their marriage, ELIAH and ELLIOTT'S relationship was rocky. They often argued. EARL believed ELIAH left ELLIOTT around five different times since their marriage.

Sometime around the first of October 2011, ELIAH left ELLIOTT. ELLIOTT stayed at his house. ELLIOTT told EARL he did not know exactly where ELIAH went. After about three weeks of living at his house, ELLIOTT told EARL he wanted to stay at his house, because he could not sleep. Sometime around October 16, 2011, ELLIOTT moved in with EARL. While ELLIOTT lived with EARL, he continued to go over to his house. ELLIOTT mainly spent the night at EARL'S house, though ELLIOTT had a lot of trouble sleeping.

On the morning of October 21, 2011, EARL and KATHA were driving in Owasso. ELLIOTT was riding with them. ELLIOTT became somewhat argumentative with EARL. EARL then drove to Owasso police department to speak with an officer about ELLIOTT. EARL asked the officer if he would give ELLIOTT a ride home, because EARL needed to take KATHA to a medical appointment. The officer agreed to take ELLIOTT to EARL'S house. A short time later, someone from Owasso police department called EARL because ELLIOTT had locked his keys in his house earlier and was not able to enter the house. EARL and KATHA decided to come home to let ELLIOTT in the house. Owasso police department was very nice to them during this time.

INTERVIEW OF EARL WILLIAMS JR.
OSBI2011-249/14

Sometime on the afternoon of October 21, 2011, KATHA told EARL that ELLIOTT checked into the Marriott hotel in Owasso. That same afternoon, ELIAH called EARL. She told EARL she was at the Marriott with ELLIOTT. She believed ELLIOTT was dead, because she could not wake him up. EARL and KATHA drove to the Marriott off of North Owasso Expressway, where they met ELIAH. They went to ELLIOTT'S room, then knocked on the door. Eventually, ELLIOTT opened the door for them.

EARL believed ELLIOTT did not need medical attention. They spent some time with ELLIOTT, then EARL and KATHA dropped ELIAH off at her car. Later that afternoon, EARL drove back to the Marriott to pick up ELLIOTT. EARL, KATHA, and CLIFTON took ELLIOTT to church. Later that evening, EARL and KATHA dropped ELLIOTT off at the Marriott. CLIFTON followed them to the Marriott in his car.

When they arrived at the Marriott, EARL and ELLIOTT walked into the Marriott. EARL walked in front of ELLIOTT. As they walked in, ELLIOTT threw a fast food sack in the lobby, then ran back out the front doors of the Marriott, knocking one of the doors off the track.

EARL believed hotel staff called Owasso police. When Owasso police arrived, there were two officers that first responded. They talked to EARL and ELLIOTT. EARL told the officers that ELIAH had recently left ELLIOTT, and that he had not been sleeping. The officers asked ELLIOTT if he wanted to hurt himself. ELLIOTT said he did not want to hurt himself. ELLIOTT was not making a lot of sense while he spoke to the officers. The officers asked him to sit down while they spoke to him. The officers called COPEs to assist ELLIOTT. COPEs is a mental health service offered in the Tulsa area in need of mental evaluation. As they waited for COPEs to arrive, ELLIOTT became agitated about sitting down. He stood up, then refused to sit down. The larger officer asked ELLIOTT to sit down a couple of times, however ELLIOTT refused to sit back down. The big officer then raised his voice and told ELLIOTT to sit down. ELLIOTT then said, "I know what this is, a black male and two Owasso officers, homicide or suicide, take two bullets". ELLIOTT tapped on the left side of his chest when he said "take two bullets". The big officer then pepper sprayed ELLIOTT, then knocked ELLIOTT to the ground. This officer was yelling at ELLIOTT while he had his knees in ELLIOTT'S back. When the officers got ELLIOTT up, he noticed ELLIOTT drug his left foot while he was escorted to a patrol car.

INTERVIEW OF EARL WILLIAMS JR.

EARL asked the officers why ELLIOTT was being arrested. One of the officers told EARL ELLIOTT was being arrested for interfering with a police officer. EMS arrived to wash the pepper spray from ELLIOTT'S eyes. EARL spoke to ELLIOTT while ELLIOTT was in the back of the police car. ELLIOTT told EARL he loved him. ELLIOTT was then transported to the Owasso police department jail.

About forty five minutes later, EARL called Owasso police department to see how ELLIOTT was doing. At that time, he learned ELLIOTT had already been taken to the Tulsa County Jail.

The next day, EARL called the Tulsa County Jail to see when ELLIOTT could have visitors. The staff told him it was too early for ELLIOTT to be allowed to have visitors. When EARL called the Tulsa County Jail on October 23, 2011, he learned ELLIOTT had been transferred to the medical wing of the Tulsa County Jail.

On Monday, October 24, 2011, EARL spoke with JOHN (LNUK). JOHN worked in the mental health area of the jail. EARL asked JOHN how ELLIOTT was doing. JOHN told EARL that ELLIOTT said, "I want a drink of water". EARL stated when JOHN told him this, JOHN imitated ELLIOTT in a very weak voice. EARL was worried that ELLIOTT was weak or sick. JOHN told EARL not to worry, because they would take good care of him at the jail. JOHN also told EARL, "He's acting like he's paralyzed, but we know he's not.

On October 25 and 26, 2011, EARL spoke with Chaplin FANNIN. EARL asked FANNIN to visit ELLIOTT. FANNIN told EARL either he or someone else would visit ELLIOTT. EARL also attempted to visit ELLIOTT, however he was denied a visit, because of ELLIOTT'S condition.

On October 27, 2011, EARL contacted Chaplin BRASHAW, who agreed to visit ELLIOTT. BRASHAW later talked to EARL. He told EARL that ELLIOTT was not responding well to him, and perhaps he should come to visit him. A short time later, EARL spoke with JOHN from mental health at the jail. JOHN told EARL they were going to take ELLIOTT to a hospital now to be checked. JOHN did not call EARL back. Sometime later, EARL was driving to the Tulsa County Jail to visit ELLIOTT.

Chaplin FANNIN called EARL. He asked where EARL was. EARL said he was driving to the Tulsa County Jail. FANNIN asked if he could meet EARL in the lobby of the jail. EARL agreed to meet FANNIN there. When EARL arrived, he did not see FANNIN. He told the receptionist at the jail who he was. The receptionist told EARL he needed to speak with Captain FIKE. EARL spoke to Captain FIKE, who informed EARL that ELLIOTT had passed away. Sometime during this conversation, FIKE said ELLIOTT was not on suicide watch on Wednesday, October 26, 2011 when ELLIOTT apparently had feces on him.

ELLIOTT'S body was transported from the Tulsa County Jail by Serenity Funeral home in Tulsa, Oklahoma. An autopsy was performed. EARL then requested a second autopsy be performed by Dr. COLLY TRENT. Since ELLIOTT'S death, EARL believed members of Owasso police department may have followed him at times.

ENDNOTE:

OSBI Agent In Charge GARY PERKINSON interviewed EARL while in the presence of EARL'S attorneys, GARVIN ISAACS and COREY MINER. This interview was conducted in an interview room at the Tulsa County District Attorney's office.

WOLERY was a patrol officer for Owasso Police Department.

On October 21, 2011, WOLERY was dispatched to a disturbance call at the Marriott Hotel in Owasso, Oklahoma. WOLERY and Officer JACK WELLS arrived at the Marriott at about the same time. WOLERY was met at the front door of the Hotel by EARL WILLIAMS, father of ELLIOTT WILLIAMS. EARL WILLIAMS stated EARL'S wife had left him and ELLIOTT had not slept in four or five days. EARL had purchased a hotel room for his son. However, after staying at the hotel for a short time, ELLIOTT had caused a disturbance in the lobby by throwing his food and then running into the front glass doors as he was exiting the building.

WOLERY went into the Marriott to speak to the employee. She stated that ELLIOTT had thrown his backpack and she batted it to the floor. ELLIOTT then threw his drink and turned and ran into the glass doors knocking the doors off their runners. ELLIOTT stated "I am not kidding this time." The Hotel did not want to pursue any charges; they just ask that he leave.

WOLERY went outside and joined, WELLS, EARL, ELLIOTT and ELLIOTT'S brother. EARL stated he wanted ELLIOTT to go to the Tulsa County Behavior Health Center. However, EARL was not sure if ELLIOTT was suicidal and did not know if the Health Center would take ELLIOTT. ELLIOTT stated he had not taken any medication, although EARL said he had given him two sleeping pills.

EARL asked ELLIOTT if he wanted to go to jail and ELLIOTT responded "I don't care, just don't kill me." ELLIOTT then pulled his shirt down and exposed his left breast and rambled something.

The entire group moved away from the front of the Hotel and ELLIOTT sat on the curb. WOLERY radioed dispatch and requested COPES come to the scene and check on ELLIOTT'S mental stability. ELLIOTT stated he did not hear voices but would visit with a counselor. EARL asked ELLIOTT about his suicidal intentions and ELLIOTT denied any. ELLIOTT then stated his wife had come to the Hotel and they made love and he told her about his suicidal thoughts.

ELLIOTT stood up and Officer WELLS asked him to sit back on the curb. EARL also asked ELLIOTT to sit back on the curb, ELLIOTT refused and started mumbling. WELLS asked him again to sit back on the curb and ELLIOTT refused. ELLIOTT then exposed his left breast again, points at his breast and said at least four times "not playing today." WOLERY thought ELLIOTT was trying to get the officers to shoot him.

ELLIOTT would not sit on the curb, WOLERY asked ELLIOTT to sit in his patrol car. ELLIOTT responded "you can get me out of the cold another way." Officer WELLS asked how's that and ELLIOTT responded "take a shot." WELLS stated he did not want to do that. ELLIOTT pointed at his left breast and responded "take a shot, two of you all, boom, boom, I am not playing today." ELLIOTT then said "take a shot might be a suicide tonight." He then started "hooting".

About the same time WOLERY and WELLS told ELLIOTT to put his hands behind his back. ELLIOTT said "take a shot, serious now, take a shot, suicide, it's a suicide, it's a suicide." WOLERY asked ELLIOTT if there was anything they could do to get him to comply with their commands, ELLIOTT responded "it is a suicide pull out your guns, it is a suicide, two of you all two guns, suicide, I don't even care no more, boom, boom, get it over with. Might be on TV tonight, CNN news flash man took two shots to heart. Predicted his own death for such a time as this. ELIA is out of my life, she is out of my life, take a shot. What is wrong with you all are you scared? It's a suicide; do I need to provoke you? Is that what it is? Make you shoot."

ELLIOTT then took a "threatening" step forward and towards Officer WELLS. WELLS showed his pepper spray to ELLIOTT and ELLIOTT backed off. ELLIOTT then stated to WOLERY, "what about you pull that gun." ELLIOTT took a threatening step towards WOLERY and WELLS pepper sprays ELLIOTT. WELLS forces ELLIOTT to the ground and both officers handcuff him. The entire time EARL WILLIAMS is watching and supporting the officers.

ELLIOTT was placed in the back seat of WOLERY'S patrol car. WELLS calls dispatch and asked for medics to come to the scene to flush ELLIOTT'S eyes. Patrol supervisor H.D.

PITTS arrived. EARL WILLIAMS stated "You were very patient with ELLIOTT and he needed to go to jail. You do not need to apologize."

The medics arrived, flushed ELLIOTT'S eyes and ELLIOTT was transported to the Owasso City Jail. ELLIOTT walked up the steps to the Police Department and sat on a bench in the jail as WELLS did the paperwork. ELLIOTT then lay on the floor and begins "wailing". ELLIOTT was dressed in jail orange and carried into cell 5. ELLIOTT lies in the middle of the jail cell as WOLERY leaves. ELLIOTT never stated he was hurt or injured in any way.

Officers wore their Viewu cameras and downloaded it at the Police Department after the shift was over. Neither EARL WILLIAMS nor his other son ever displayed any dissatisfaction with the officers.
