Suppression rules from Bureau

When the State Department of Education (SDE) responds to requests for data that are at school or district level, the SDE does not release information that could identify a particular student. After a review of the relevant data sets, the SDE has determined that disclosure of such information would make individual student identities easily traceable. The FOIA exempts from disclosure “[e]ducational records which are not subject to disclosure under the Family Educational Rights and Protection Act.” Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-210(b)(17). Therefore, the SDE had to redact small numbers of statistical data--we have placed an asterisk where the cell count is less than or equal to five.

Source Data: 2011-12 dropout rate based on the enrollment and dropout data files RCloud submitted for EDEN using OCTPSIS2011 and Register/unregistered module.
