BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 2329.84, 2329.85, 2329.86, 14 2981.01, 2981.03, 2981.04, 2981.05, 2981.06, 2981.09, 2981.11, 15 and 2981.14 be amended and section 2927.21 of the Revised Code 16 be enacted to read as follows: 17

Sec. 2329.84. If, by virtue of a writ of execution issued 18 from a court of record in this state, an officer levies it on 19 goods and chattels claimed by a person other than the defendant, 20 such officer ~~forthwith~~ shall give written notice to a judge of 21 the court of common pleas, municipal court, or county court, 22 ~~which whichever court has jurisdiction. The~~ notice shall contain 23 the names of the plaintiff, defendant, and claimant, and at the 24 same time furnish the judge a schedule of the property claimed. 25 ~~Immediately upon~~ As soon as is practicable after the receipt of 26 the notice and schedule, the judge shall ~~make an entry of them~~ 27 ~~on his docket, and issue a summons directed to the sheriff or~~ 28
~~any constable of the county commanding him to summon five~~ 29
~~disinterested men, having the qualifications of electors, to be~~ 30
~~named in the summons, to appear before him, at the time and~~ 31 ~~place therein mentioned, which shall not be more than three days~~ 32
~~after the date of the writ, to try and~~ schedule a hearing to 33 determine the claimant's right to the property in controversy. 34
The claimant shall give two days' notice, in writing, to the 35 plaintiff, or other party, for whose benefit the execution was 36 issued and levied, his agent, or attorney, if within the county, 37 of the time and place of trial. The claimant shall prove to the 38 satisfaction of the judge that such notice was given, or that it 39 could not be given by reason of the absence of the party, his 40 agent, or attorney. 41

Sec. 2329.85. ~~The jurors summoned under section 2329.84 of~~ 42
~~the Revised Code shall be sworn to try and determine the right~~ 43
~~of the claimant to the property in controversy, and give a true~~ 44 ~~verdict according to the evidence. If~~ at the hearing under 45 section 2329.84 of the Revised Code the jury judge of the court 46 of common pleas, municipal court, or county court finds that the 47 right to the goods and chattels, in whole or part, is in the 48 claimant, ~~they~~ the judge also shall find the value ~~thereof of~~ 49 the goods and chattels. The judge ~~of the county court~~ shall 50 render judgment on such finding for the claimant that ~~he~~ the 51 claimant recover ~~his~~ the claimant's costs against the plaintiff 52 in execution, or other party for whose benefit the writ of 53 execution is issued, and also have restitution of the goods and 54 chattels, or any part ~~thereof of them~~, according to the finding 55 of the ~~jury judge~~. If the jury judge finds that no right to any 56 part of the goods and chattels, is in the claimant, the judge 57 shall render judgment on such finding in favor of the plaintiff 58 in execution, or other party for whose benefit ~~it~~ the writ of 59 execution is issued, and against the claimant, for costs, and 60 award execution ~~thereon on the judgment~~. If the jury fails to 61 agree and is discharged, costs shall be taxed, to abide the 62 ~~final event of the proceedings, and another jury shall be~~ 63 ~~summoned as before~~. Unless a bond is executed, as provided in 64 section 2329.86 of the Revised Code, a judgment for the claimant 65 shall be a justification of the officer in returning "no goods" 66 to the writ by virtue of which the levy was made, as to ~~such the~~ 67 part of the goods and chattels ~~as that~~ were found to belong to 68 the claimant. The same fees shall be allowed and taxed by the 69 judge, for ~~himself self~~, officers, jurors, and witnesses, ~~as~~ 70 that are allowed by law for ~~like similar~~ services. 71

Sec. 2329.86. If the ~~jury summoned~~ judge at the hearing 72 under section 2329.84 of the Revised Code finds that the right 73 to the property, or a part of it, is in the claimant, and the 74 plaintiff in execution within three days after the ~~trial hearing~~ 75 tenders to the officer having the property in ~~his~~ the officer's 76 custody, a bond in double the amount of its value as assessed by 77 the ~~jury judge~~, with good and sufficient sureties, payable to 78 the claimant, to the effect that they will pay all damages 79 sustained by reason of the detention or sale of the property, 80 the officer shall deliver such bond to the claimant, sell the 81 property as if no ~~trial hearing~~ of the right ~~thereto~~ to the 82 property had taken place, and shall not be liable to the 83 claimant ~~therefor~~ for the property. 84 forfeited includes any felony and any misdemeanor. The 194 commission of an "offense" includes the commission of a 195 delinquent act. 196

(11) "Proceeds" means both of the following: 197

(a) In cases involving unlawful goods, services, or 198 activities, "proceeds" means any property derived directly or 199 indirectly from an offense. "Proceeds" may include, but is not 200 limited to, money or any other means of exchange. "Proceeds" is 201 not limited to the net gain or profit realized from the offense. 202
"Proceeds" does not include property, including money or other 203 means of exchange, if all of the following apply to that 204 property: 205

(i) It is held under clear title by a law enforcement 206

(iii) If it is used to purchase contraband under division 211
(B)(11)(a)(ii) of this section, the property continues to be 212 considered the property of the law enforcement agency if the 213 agency establishes a clear chain of custody of it. 214

(b) In cases involving lawful goods or services that are 215 sold or provided in an unlawful manner, "proceeds" means the 216 amount of money or other means of exchange acquired through the 217 illegal transactions resulting in the forfeiture, less the 218 direct costs lawfully incurred in providing the goods or 219 services. The lawful costs deduction does not include any part 220 of the overhead expenses of, or income taxes paid by, the entity 221 delinquent child has the burden to prove that any costs are 223 lawfully incurred. 224

(12) "Property" means "property" as defined in section 225

the extent that they do not conflict with this chapter. 241

Sec. 2981.03. (A) (1) The state or political subdivision 242 acquires provisional title to property subject to forfeiture 243 under this chapter upon a person's commission of an offense 244 giving rise to forfeiture, subject to third party claims and a 245 final adjudication under section 2981.04 or 2981.05 of the 246 Revised Code. Provisional title authorizes the state or 247 political subdivision to seize and hold the property, and to act 248 to protect the property, under this section before any 249 proceeding under this chapter. Title to the property vests with 250 the state or political subdivision when the trier of fact 251 renders a final forfeiture verdict or order under section 252 2981.04 or 2981.05 of the Revised Code, but that title is 253 subject to third party claims adjudicated under those sections. 254

(2) ~~A-Except as otherwise provided in division (A) (3) of~~ 255 this section, a law enforcement officer may seize property that 256 the officer has probable cause to believe is property subject to 257 forfeiture. If a law enforcement officer seizes property that is 258 titled or registered under law, the officer or the law 259 enforcement agency that employs the officer shall notify the 260 property owner of the seizure. The agency shall give notice to 261 the property owner at the owner's last known address as soon as 262 practical after the seizure and may give the notice by certified 263 mail or orally by any means, including telephone. If the officer 264 or agency is unable to provide the notice required by this 265 division despite reasonable, good faith efforts, those efforts 266 constitute fulfillment of the notice requirement. 267

(3) ~~In-If a civil forfeiture case under this chapter in-~~ 268
~~which the state or political subdivision seeks to seize real~~ 269 ~~property, the property owner may request~~ the prosecutor shall 270 file a motion in the appropriate court to request a hearing 271 ~~before the seizure, and in-~~ shall notify the property owner of 272 the motion. The court shall hold the hearing not sooner than 273 twenty-one days after the motion is filed. At the hearing, the 274 court shall grant the motion if the state or political 275 subdivision ~~shall show probable cause-~~ demonstrates by a 276 preponderance of the evidence that the real property is subject 277 to forfeiture. 278

(4) A person aggrieved by an alleged unlawful seizure of 279 property may seek relief from the seizure by filing a motion in 280 the appropriate court that shows the person's interest in the 281 property, states why the seizure was unlawful, and requests the 282 property's return. If the motion is filed before an indictment, 283 information, or a complaint seeking forfeiture of the property 284 is filed, the court shall ~~promptly~~ schedule a hearing on the 285 motion, and at not later than twenty-one days after it is filed. 286

The court may extend the time for the hearing on the motion by 287 consent of the parties or for good cause shown. At the hearing, 288 if the property seized is titled or registered under law, the 289 person-state or political subdivision shall demonstrate by a 290 preponderance of the evidence that the seizure was ~~unlawful-~~ 291 lawful and that the person is not entitled to the property. If 292 the property seized is not titled or registered under law, the 293 person shall demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that 294 the seizure was unlawful and that the person is entitled to the 295 property. If the motion is filed by a defendant after an 296 indictment, information, or a complaint seeking forfeiture of 297 the property has been filed, the court shall treat the motion as 298 a motion to suppress evidence. If the motion is filed by a third 299 party after an indictment, information, or complaint seeking 300 forfeiture of the property has been filed, the court shall treat 301 the motion as a petition of a person with an alleged interest in 302 the subject property, pursuant to divisions (E) and (F) of 303 section 2981.04 of the Revised Code. 304

(5) (a) In any action under section 2981.04 or 2981.05 of 305 the Revised Code, if a property owner or third party claims 306 lawful interest in the subject property alleged to be proceeds, 307 the state or political subdivision has provisional title and a 308 right to hold property if it proves both of the following by a 309 preponderance of the evidence: 310

(i) The interest in the property was acquired by the 311 alleged offender or delinquent child during the commission of 312 the offense or within a reasonable time after that period. 313

(ii) There is no likely source for the interest in the 314 property other than as proceeds derived from or acquired through 315 the commission of the offense. 316

(b) ~~The~~ In any action under section 2981.04 or 2981.05 of 317 the Revised Code, the alleged offender or delinquent child shall 318 have the burden to prove the amount of any direct costs lawfully 319 incurred. 320

(B) (1) Upon application by the prosecutor who prosecutes 321 or brings an action that allows forfeiture under this chapter, 322 the court in which the action is prosecuted or filed may issue 323 an order taking any reasonable action necessary to preserve the 324 reachability of the property including, but not limited to, a 325 restraining order or injunction, an order requiring execution of 326 a satisfactory bond or insurance policy, an order to inspect, 327 photograph, or inventory the property, an order placing a lien 328 or lis pendens against the property, or an order appointing a 329 receiver or trustee. The court may issue an order of this nature 330 at any of the following times: 331

(a) Upon the filing of a complaint, indictment, or 332 information alleging the property to be subject to forfeiture 333 under section 2981.02 of the Revised Code; 334

(b) Prior to the filing of a complaint, an indictment, or 335
under section 2981.02 of the Revised Code, if, after giving 337 notice to all persons known to have ~~a~~ an interest in the 338 property and giving those persons an opportunity to be heard, 339

the court determines that all of the following apply: 340

(i) There is a substantial probability the state or 341 political subdivision will prevail on the forfeiture issue. 342

(ii) There is a substantial probability that failure to 343 enter the order will result in the property being destroyed, 344 being removed from the court's jurisdiction, or otherwise being 345 made unavailable for forfeiture. 346

(iii) The need to preserve the availability of the 347 property outweighs the hardship on the person against whom the 348 order is to be entered. 349

(c) As a condition of releasing the property based on a 350 determination of substantial hardship under division (D) of this 351 section. 352

(2) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) (3) of 353 this section, the court shall make an order under division (B) 354
(1) (b) of this section effective for not more than ninety days, 355 but the court may extend the order if the prosecutor 356 demonstrates that the need to preserve the reachability of the 357 property still exists or for other good cause shown and shall 358 extend the order if an indictment, information, or a complaint 359 is filed alleging that the property is subject to forfeiture. 360

(3) A court may issue an order under division (B) (1) of 361 this section without giving notice or a hearing to a person 362 known to have a interest in the property if the prosecutor 363 demonstrates that the property is subject to forfeiture and that 364 giving notice and a hearing will jeopardize the availability of 365 the property for forfeiture. Notwithstanding the ninety-day 366 limit described in division (B) (2) of this section, the court 367 shall make an order under division (B) (3) of this section 368 effective for not more than ten days, but the court may extend 369 the order if the prosecutor again demonstrates that the property 370 is subject to forfeiture and that a hearing will jeopardize the 371 availability of the property or for other good cause shown or if 372 the person subject to the order consents to a longer period. If 373 a party requests a hearing on the order, the court shall hold 374 the hearing at the earliest possible time before the order 375 expires. 376

(4) At any hearing under division (B) of this section, the 377 court may receive and consider evidence and information that is 378 inadmissible under the Rules of Evidence. The court shall cause 379 the hearing to be recorded and shall cause a transcript to be 380 made. If property is to be seized as a result of the hearing, 381 the recording and transcript shall not be a public record for 382 purposes of section 149.43 of the Revised Code until the 383 property is seized. This section does not authorize making 384 available for inspection any confidential law enforcement 385 investigatory record or trial preparation record, as defined in 386
section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 387

(C) Except as otherwise provided in division (E) of this 388 section, any replevin, conversion, or other civil action brought 389 concerning property subject to a criminal or civil forfeiture 390 action under this chapter shall be stayed until the forfeiture 391 action is resolved. 392

(D) (1) A person with an interest in property that is 393 subject to forfeiture and that is seized under this chapter may 394 seek conditional release of the property by requesting 395 possession from the person with custody of the property. The 396 request shall demonstrate how the person meets the requirements 397 specified in divisions (D) (3) (a), (b), and (c) of this section. 398

(2) If the person with custody of the property does not 399 release the property within fifteen days after a person makes a 400 request under division (D)(1) of this section, or within seven 401 days after a person makes the request if the property was seized 402 as a mobile instrumentality or if the request is to copy 403 records, the person who made the request may file a petition for 404 conditional release with the court in which the complaint, 405 indictment, or information is filed or, if no complaint, 406 indictment, or information is filed, the court that issued the 407 seizure warrant for the property. The petition shall demonstrate 408 how the person meets the requirements specified in divisions (D) 409
(3) (a), (b), and (c) of this section and the steps the person 410 has taken to secure release of the property from the official. 411 Unless extended for good cause shown, the petition shall be 412 filed either within thirty days of the filing of a complaint, an 413 indictment, or information in the forfeiture action or, if no 414 complaint, indictment, or information is filed, within thirty 415 days of the ~~issuance of the seizure warrant~~ of the property. 416

If the court finds that the person meets the criteria 417 specified in divisions (D)(3) (a), (b), and (c) of this section, 418
the court shall order the property's conditional return to the 419 person pending completion of the forfeiture action. In issuing 420 this order, the court shall notify the person of the 421 prohibitions against interfering with or diminishing property in 422 section 2981.07 of the Revised Code and may make any order 423 necessary to ensure that the value of the property is 424 maintained. 425

If personal, business, or governmental records are seized, 426 including those contained in computer files, a person may 427 petition the court for a prompt opportunity to copy, at the 428 person's expense, any records that are not contraband. The court 429 may grant the petition if the person demonstrates how the person 430 meets the requirements specified in divisions (D) (3) (a) and (c) 431 of this section. The court shall order a competent person to 432 supervise the copying. 433

(3) Except when there is probable cause that the property 434 is contraband, property that must be held for a reasonable time 435 as evidence related to an offense, or property that is likely to 436 be used in additional offenses or except when the state or 437 political subdivision meets the burden imposed under division 438
(A) (5) of this section regarding alleged proceeds, a court may 439 conditionally release property subject to forfeiture to a person 440 who demonstrates all of the following: 441

(a) A possessory interest in the property; 442

(b) Sufficient ties to the community to provide assurance 443 that the property will be available at the time of trial; 444

(c) That failure to conditionally release the property 445 will cause a substantial hardship to the claimant. 446

(4) In determining whether a substantial hardship exists, 447 the court shall weigh the claimant's likely hardship from the 448 state's or political subdivision's continued possession of the 449 property against the risk that the property will be destroyed, 450 damaged, lost, concealed, or transferred if returned to the 451 claimant. The court shall consider in favor of release the 452 possibility that withholding the property would prevent a 453 legitimate business from functioning, prevent the claimant's or 454 an innocent person from maintaining employment, or leave the 455 claimant or an innocent person homeless. 456

(5) If the state or political subdivision shows that the 457 claimant's petition is frivolous, the court shall deny the 458 petition. Otherwise, the state or political subdivision may 459 respond to the petition by submitting evidence ex parte to avoid 460 disclosing any matter that may adversely affect an ongoing 461 criminal investigation or pending trial. 462

(6) The court shall decide on the petition not more than 463 ~~thirty-twenty-one~~ days after it is filed. If the property seized 464 is alleged to be a mobile instrumentality, the court shall 465 decide on the petition ~~as soon as practicable within the thirty-~~ 466 ~~day period~~ not more than ten days after it is filed. If 467 personal, business, or governmental records were seized and a 468 person files a petition to copy the records, the court shall 469 decide on the petition as soon as practicable, but not later 470 than thirty days after it is filed. In any case, the court may 471 extend the time for deciding on the petition by consent of the 472 parties or for good cause shown. 473

(E) Nothing in this section precludes a financial 474 institution that has or purports to have a security interest in 475 or lien on property described in section 2981.02 of the Revised 476 Code from filing an action in connection with the property, 477 prior to its disposition under this chapter, to obtain 478 possession of the property in order to foreclose or otherwise 479 enforce the security interest or lien. 480

If a financial institution commences a civil action or 481 takes any other appropriate legal action to sell the property 482 prior to its seizure or prior to its disposition under this 483 chapter, if the person who is responsible for conducting the 484 sale has actual knowledge of the commencement of a forfeiture 485 action under either section 2981.04 or 2981.05 of the Revised 486 Code, and if the property is sold, then the person shall dispose 487 of the proceeds of the sale in the following order: 488

(1) First, to the payment of the costs of the sale, 489 excluding any associated attorney's fees, and to the payment of 490 the costs incurred by law enforcement agencies and financial 491 institutions in connection with the seizure, storage, and 492 maintenance of, and provision of security for, the property; 493

(2) Second, in the order of priority of the security 494 interests and liens, to the payment of valid security interests 495 and liens pertaining to the property that, at the time at which 496 the state or political subdivision gains provisional title, are 497 held by known secured parties and lienholders; 498

jurisdiction in a case or proceeding under section 2981.04 or 500 ~~section~~ 2981.05 of the Revised Code for disposition under this 501 chapter. 502

(F) A prosecutor may file a forfeiture action under 503 section 2981.04 or 2981.05 of the Revised Code, or both. If 504 property is seized pursuant to this section ~~and a criminal~~ 505 ~~forfeiture has not begun under section 2981.04 of the Revised~~ 506 ~~Code~~, the prosecutor of the county in which the seizure occurred 507 shall commence a civil action to forfeit that property under 508 section 2981.05 of the Revised Code, if that section applies. 509

~~If the property seized includes property alleged to be a~~ 510
~~mobile instrumentality or includes personal, business, or~~ 511 ~~governmental records, the civil forfeiture action shall be~~ 512 ~~brought within thirty days of seizure. Otherwise, the action~~ 513
~~shall be brought within sixty days of seizure. In either case,~~ 514
~~the period within which the action shall be brought may be~~ 515 ~~extended by agreement of the parties or by the court for good~~ 516 ~~cause shown.~~ 517

A prosecutor may file an appropriate charging instrument 518 under section 2981.04 of the Revised Code to seek a criminal 519 forfeiture after a civil forfeiture action begins. Filing a 520 charging instrument for an offense that is also the basis of a 521 civil forfeiture action shall stay the civil forfeiture action. 522

~~A civil action to obtain civil forfeiture may be commenced 523 as described in section 2981.05 of the Revised Code regardless 524 of whether the offender or delinquent child has pleaded guilty 525 to, been convicted of, or been adjudicated a delinquent child 526 for the act that is the basis of the order. 527~~

(G) The prosecutor shall maintain an accurate record of 528 each item disposed of under section 2981.04 or 2981.05 of the 529 Revised Code. The record shall not identify or enable the 530 identification of the officer who seized the property. The 531 record is a public record open for inspection under section 532
149.43 of the Revised Code. 533

Sec. 2981.04. (A) (1) Property described in division (A) of 534 section 2981.02 of the Revised Code may be forfeited under this 535 section only if the defendant is convicted of, or enters 536 intervention in lieu of conviction for, an offense or the 537 juvenile is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act 538 that would be an offense if committed by an adult and the 539 complaint, indictment, or information charging the offense or 540 municipal violation, or the complaint charging the delinquent 541 act, contains a specification of the type described in section 542 2941.1417 of the Revised Code that sets forth all of the 543 following to the extent it is reasonably known at the time of 544 the filing: 545

(a) The nature and extent of the alleged offender's or 546 delinquent child's interest in the property; 547

(b) A description of the property; 548

(c) If the property is alleged to be an instrumentality, 549 the alleged use or intended use of the property in the 550 commission or facilitation of the offense. 551

(2) If any property is not reasonably foreseen to be 552 subject to forfeiture at the time of filing the indictment, 553 information, or complaint, the trier of fact still may return a 554 verdict of forfeiture concerning that property in the hearing 555 described in division (B) of this section if the prosecutor, 556 upon discovering the property to be subject to forfeiture, gave 557 prompt notice of this fact to the alleged offender or delinquent 558 child under Criminal Rule 7(E) or Juvenile Rule 10(B). 559

~~(3) For good cause shown, the court may consider issues of 560 the guilt of the alleged offender or the delinquency of the 561 alleged delinquent child separate from whether property 562 specified as subject to forfeiture should be forfeited. 563~~

(B) If a person pleads guilty to or is convicted of, or 564 enters intervention in lieu of conviction for, an offense or is 565 adjudicated a delinquent child for committing a delinquent act 566 and the complaint, indictment, or information charging the 567 offense or act contains a specification covering property 568 subject to forfeiture under section 2981.02 of the Revised Code, 569 the trier of fact shall determine whether the person's property 570 shall be forfeited. If the state or political subdivision proves 571 by ~~a preponderance of the~~ clear and convincing evidence that the 572 property is in whole or part subject to forfeiture under section 573 2981.02 of the Revised Code, after a proportionality review 574 under section 2981.09 of the Revised Code when relevant, the 575 trier of fact shall return a verdict of forfeiture that 576 specifically describes the extent of the property subject to 577 forfeiture. If the trier of fact is a jury, on the offender's or 578 delinquent child's motion, the court shall make the 579 determination of whether the property shall be forfeited. 580

(C) If the court enters a verdict of forfeiture under this 581 section, the court imposing sentence or disposition, in addition 582 to any other sentence authorized by section 2951.041 or Chapter 583 2929. of the Revised Code or any disposition authorized by 584
Chapter 2152. of the Revised Code, shall order that the offender 585 or delinquent child forfeit to the state or political 586 subdivision the offender's or delinquent child's interest in the 587 property. The property vests with the state or political 588 subdivision subject to the claims of third parties. The court 589 may issue any additional order to affect the forfeiture, 590 including, but not limited to, an order under section 2981.06 of 591 the Revised Code. 592

(D) After the entry of a forfeiture order under this 593 section, the prosecutor shall attempt to identify any person 594 with an interest in the property subject to forfeiture by 595 searching appropriate public records and making reasonably 596 diligent inquiries. The prosecutor shall give notice of the 597 forfeiture that remains subject to the claims of third parties 598 and proposed disposal of the forfeited property to any person 599 known to have an interest in the property. The prosecutor also 600 shall publish notice of the forfeiture that remains subject to 601 the claims of third parties and proposed disposal of the 602 forfeited property once each week for two consecutive weeks in a 603 newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the 604 property was seized. 605

(E) (1) Any person, other than the offender or delinquent 606 child whose conviction or plea of guilty or delinquency 607 adjudication is the basis of the forfeiture order, who asserts a 608 legal interest in the property that is the subject of the order 609 may petition the court that issued the order for a hearing under 610 division (E) (3) of this section to adjudicate the validity of 611 the person's alleged interest in the property. All of the 612 following apply to the petition: 613

(a) It shall be filed within thirty days after the final 614 publication of notice or the person's receipt of notice under 615 division (D) of this section. 616

(b) It shall be signed by the petitioner under the 617 penalties for falsification specified in section 2921.13 of the 618
Revised Code. 619

(c) It shall describe the nature and extent of the 620 petitioner's interest in the property, the time and 621 circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of that interest, 622 any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim, and the 623 relief sought. 624

(d) It shall state that one of the following conditions 625 applies to the petitioner: 626

(i) The petitioner has a legal interest in the property 627 that is subject to the forfeiture order that renders the order 628 completely or partially invalid because the legal interest in 629
the property was vested in the petitioner, rather than the 630 offender or delinquent child whose conviction or plea of guilty 631 or delinquency adjudication is the basis of the order, or was 632 superior to any interest of that offender or delinquent child, 633 at the time of the commission of the offense or delinquent act 634 that is the basis of the order. 635

(ii) The petitioner is a bona fide purchaser for value of 636

the interest in the property that is subject to the forfeiture 637 order and was, at the time of the purchase, reasonably without 638 cause to believe that it was subject to forfeiture. 639

(2) (a) In lieu of filing a petition as described in 640 division (E) (1) of this section, a person, other than the 641 offender or delinquent child whose conviction or plea of guilty 642 or delinquency adjudication is the basis of the forfeiture 643 order, may file an affidavit as described in this division to 644 establish the validity of the alleged right, title, or interest 645 in the property that is the subject of the forfeiture order if 646 the person is a secured party or other lienholder of record that 647 asserts a legal interest in the property, including, but not 648 limited to, a mortgage, security interest, or other type of 649 lien. The affidavit shall contain averments that the secured 650 party or other lienholder acquired its alleged right, title, or 651 interest in the property in the regular course of its business, 652 for a specified valuable consideration, without actual knowledge 653 of any facts pertaining to the offense that was the basis of the 654 forfeiture order, in good faith, and without the intent to 655 prevent or otherwise impede the state or political subdivision 656 from seizing or obtaining a forfeiture of the property. The 657 person shall file the affidavit within thirty days after the 658 earlier of the final publication of notice or the receipt of 659 notice under division (D) of this section. 660

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the 661 affidavit shall constitute prima-facie evidence of the validity 662 of the affiant's alleged interest in the property. 663

(c) Unless the prosecutor files a motion challenging the 664 affidavit within ten days after its filing and unless the 665 prosecutor establishes by ~~a preponderance of the~~ clear and 666 convincing evidence at the hearing held under division (E) (3) of 667 this section that the affiant does not possess the alleged 668 interest in the property or that the affiant had actual 669 knowledge of facts pertaining to the offense or delinquent act 670 that was the basis of the forfeiture order, the affidavit shall 671 constitute conclusive evidence of the validity of the affiant's 672 interest in the property. 673

(d) Any subsequent purchaser or other transferee of 674 property pursuant to forfeiture under this section shall take 675 the property subject to the continued validity of the interest 676 of the affiant. 677

(3) Upon receipt of a petition or affidavit filed under 678 division (E) (1) or (2) of this section, the court shall hold a 679 hearing to determine the validity of the petitioner's interest 680 in the property that is the subject of the forfeiture order or, 681 if the affidavit was challenged, to determine the validity of 682 the affiant's interest in the property. To the extent 683 practicable and consistent with the interests of justice, the 684 court shall hold the hearing within thirty days after the filing 685 of the petition or within thirty days after the prosecutor files 686 the motion challenging the affidavit. The court may consolidate 687 the hearing with a hearing on any other petition or affidavit 688 that is filed by a person other than the offender or delinquent 689 child whose conviction or plea of guilty or delinquency 690
adjudication is the basis of the forfeiture order and that 691 relates to the property that is the subject of the forfeiture 692 order. 693

At the hearing, the petitioner or affiant may testify, 694 present evidence and witnesses on the petitioner's or affiant's 695 behalf, and cross-examine witnesses for the state or political 696 subdivision. In regards to a petition, the state or political 697 subdivision may present evidence and witnesses in rebuttal and 698 in defense of its claim to the property and may cross-examine 699 witnesses for the petitioner. In regards to an affidavit, the 700 prosecutor may present evidence and witnesses and cross-examine 701 witnesses for the affiant. 702

In addition to the evidence and testimony presented at the 703 hearing, the court also shall consider the relevant portions of 704 the record in the criminal or delinquent child case that 705 resulted in the forfeiture order. 706

(F) (1) If the hearing involves a petition, the court shall 707 amend its forfeiture order if it determines at the hearing held 708 pursuant to division (E) (3) of this section that the petitioner 709 has established ~~either of the following~~ by a preponderance of 710
the evidence: 711

~~(a) The petitioner has a legal interest in the property 712 that is subject to the forfeiture order that renders the order 713
completely or partially invalid because the legal interest in 714
the property was vested in the petitioner, rather than the 715
offender or delinquent child whose conviction or plea of guilty 716
or delinquency adjudication is the basis of the order, or was 717 superior to any interest of that offender or delinquent child, 718
at the time of the commission of the offense or delinquent act 719
that is the basis of the order. 720~~

~~(b) The petitioner is a bona fide purchaser for value of 721
the interest in the property that is subject to the forfeiture 722
order and was, at the time of the purchase, reasonably without 723 cause to believe that it was subject that the applicable 724 condition alleged by the petitioner under division (E) (1) (d) of 725 this section applies to forfeiture the petitioner. 726~~

(2) The court also shall amend its forfeiture order to 727 reflect any interest of a secured party or other lienholder of 728 record in the property subject to forfeiture who prevails at a 729 hearing on the petition or affidavit filed pursuant to division 730
(E) (1) or (2) of this section. 731

(G) If the court disposes of all petitions or affidavits 732 timely filed under this section in favor of the state or 733 political subdivision, the state or political subdivision shall 734 have clear title to the property that is the subject of a 735 forfeiture order issued under this section, but only to the 736 extent that other parties' lawful interests in the property are 737 not infringed. To the extent that the state or political 738 subdivision has clear title to the property, the state or 739 political subdivision may warrant good title to any subsequent 740 purchaser or other transferee. 741

Sec. 2981.05. (A) ~~The prosecutor of the political~~ 742 ~~subdivision in which~~ After the seizure of property described in 743 division (A) of section 2981.02 of the Revised Code and not 744 sooner than three months after the property owner is deceased as 745 described in division (A) (1) (a) of this section, not sooner than 746 three months after the property owner has not claimed, or 747 asserted any interest in, the property as described in division 748
(A) (2) of this section, or not sooner than one year after 749 division (A) (1) (b) (i) or (ii) of this section applies, the 750 prosecutor of the political subdivision in which the property is 751 located may commence a civil forfeiture action under this 752 section by filing in the court of common pleas of the county in 753 which the property is located a complaint requesting an order 754 that forfeits the property to the state or a political 755 subdivision. A complaint for civil forfeiture may only be filed 756 under this division if the property was seized with probable 757 cause that it was involved in the commission of a felony or a 758 gambling offense or was directly or indirectly obtained through 759 the commission of a felony or a gambling offense and either of 760 the following applies: 761

(1) The property owner is unavailable to the court for one 762 of the following reasons: 763

(a) The property owner is deceased. 764

(b) An indictment for a felony or a charge for a gambling 765 offense has been filed against the property owner, a warrant was 766 issued for the arrest of the property owner, and either of the 767 following applies: 768

(i) The property owner is outside the state and unable to 769 be extradited or brought back to the state for prosecution for 770 the felony or gambling offense. 771

(ii) Reasonable efforts have been made by law enforcement 772 authorities to locate and arrest the property owner, but the 773 property owner has not been located. 774

(2) The property owner has not claimed the property 775 subject to forfeiture or asserted any interest in the property 776 at any time during or after its seizure, verbally or in writing, 777 and all claims brought under division (A) (4) of section 2981.03 778 of the Revised Code have been denied. 779

(B) (1) The filing of a complaint for civil forfeiture 780 under division (A) of this section shall be consistent with 781 division (F) of section 2981.03 of the Revised Code. The 782 complaint shall state all of the following: 783

(a) The facts that support the state's or political 784 subdivision's allegations in the complaint; 785

(b) The alleged felony or gambling offense that subjects 786 the property to forfeiture under division (A) of section 2981.02 787
of the Revised Code. 788

(2) If the property owner is unavailable to the court 789 because the property owner is deceased as provided in division 790 (A) (1) (a) of this section, the complaint shall include a 791 certified copy of the death certificate of the property owner. 792

(C) Simultaneously with or after the filing of a 793 complaint, indictment, or information charging an offense or a 794 complaint charging a delinquent act, the prosecutor may commence 795 a civil forfeiture action by filing in the court in which the 796 applicable complaint, indictment, or information is filed a 797 complaint requesting an order that forfeits to the state or 798 political subdivision any property that is involved in the 799 offense or delinquent act and is subject to forfeiture under 800 section 2981.02 of the Revised Code. The civil forfeiture action 801 filed under this division shall be stayed during the pendency of 802 the applicable criminal or delinquency proceedings. That civil 803 forfeiture action shall proceed after the defendant is convicted 804 of, or enters intervention in lieu of conviction for, the 805 offense involved or the juvenile is adjudicated a delinquent 806 child for the delinquent act involved. 807

(D) (1) Subject to division (D) (7) of this section, the 808 state may file a civil forfeiture action, in the form of a civil 809 action, against any person who is alleged to have received, 810 retained, possessed, or disposed of proceeds, in an amount 811 exceeding fifteen thousand dollars, knowing or having reasonable 812 cause to believe that the proceeds were allegedly derived from 813 the commission of an offense subject to forfeiture proceedings 814 in violation of section 2927.21 of the Revised Code. The 815 complaint shall be filed in the court of common pleas of the 816 county in which the proceeds were alleged to have been received, 817 retained, possessed, or disposed of by the person. The complaint 818 shall specify all of the following: 819

(a) That the person against whom the complaint is filed is 820 alleged to have received, retained, possessed, or disposed of 821 proceeds, in an amount exceeding fifteen thousand dollars, 822 were allegedly derived from the commission of an offense subject 824 to forfeiture proceedings in violation of section 2927.21 of the 825

Revised Code; 826

(b) That the state has the right to recover the proceeds 827 division (D)(1)(a) of this section. 830

(2) Subject to division (D)(7) of this section, a civil 831 action filed under division (D)(1) of this section shall be 832 stayed if a criminal complaint, indictment, or information is 833 filed against the person who is alleged to have received, 834 retained, possessed, or disposed of proceeds, in an amount 835
exceeding fifteen thousand dollars, knowing or having reasonable 836 cause to believe that the proceeds were derived from the 837 commission of an offense subject to forfeiture proceedings in 838 violation of section 2927.21 of the Revised Code. 839

(3) In a civil action filed under division (D)(1) of this 840 convincing evidence all of the following: 842

(a) That the person received, retained, possessed, or 843 disposed of the proceeds involved; 844 period ending in September of the prior year according to the 875 consumer price index or its successor index. 876

(E) For purposes of this section, there is a rebuttable 877 time of its seizure is considered to be the owner of the 879 property unless legal title to the property states otherwise. 880

~~(B)~~ (F) Prior to or upon the commencement of a civil 881 filed under this section in favor of the state or political 928 subdivision, the state or political subdivision shall have clear 929 title to the property that is the subject of a forfeiture order 930 under this section, but only to the extent that other parties' 931 lawful interests in the property are not infringed. To the 932 extent that the state or political subdivision has clear title 933 to the property, the state or political subdivision may warrant 934 child is not eligible to purchase the property at a sale under 1020

this chapter. 1021

(G) Any income accruing to or derived from forfeited 1022 protect the interest of the state, political subdivision, or 1025 third parties. 1026
