Form 990-EZ, Part III - Organization's Primary Exempt Purpose

CCJEF seeks to achieve an adequately and equitably funded Pre-K to 12 public education system that is based on the learning needs of students and the real costs of delivering high-quality education in every community.

CCJEF strives to strengthen the fiscal infrastructure of public schooling, in part, by lessening the reliance on Grand Lists and local property taxes, and substantially shifting the funding burden to the state in accordance with its constitutional obligation.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28 - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

CCJEF continued its extensive research on the unmet learning needs of Connecticut students, essential resource needs of the public schools if they are to be high-performing, and the condition of state and local funding of public school districts, magnet and other choice programs, and early childhood education. Such evidence added to the body of evidence supporting CCJEF's legal claims that the state is failing to adequately and equitably fund the schools, all to the harm and long-term detriment of tens of thousands of schoolchildren as well as the state's future workforce and economy. The information and research analyses were also disseminated via numerous public presentations at community and statewide forums and as print materials widely distributed across the state.
