Tread carefully

First and foremost I like you to know that this is not a joke, from your mail it seems you assumed this was some joke, it would have been a good one if it was but am dead serious and your negligence will cost you. Am sparing you because the person who wants you dead broke my trust and I wish to repay him by exposing him through this contract, you are only lucky that I was contacted for this job at this time, let it be clear that am not doing this for you.

Hope you celebrated your Xmas happily & joyfully, 2017 is some few days away but yet not everyone will make it, for me to spare your life you have to spare someone else's life by making some charitable donations. You have to act fast as you have limited time, if

I don't carry out the hit someone else will, you have to make a donation of $5,000 to charity foundation assisting the refugees at the Turkish Syrian board, make a Western Union or Money Gram payment to the payment information shown below:

RECEIVER NAME: ROBERT BRANT
ADDRESS: ISTANBUL, TURKEY.

After making the payment send the payment info such as:

SENDER NAME:
MCTN/REFERENCE NO.:
AMOUNT:
ATTACH A COPY OF THE PAYMENT SLIP.

You are to make the payment and send the details asap, as soon as the payment is confirmed I would spare your life by revealing a video prove of the contract and details of whom initiated it to get them apprehended and to make sure you are safe. Failure to comply with my instruction I will size contact with you.

You have two options, to comply with me and get to the bottom of this or to neglect my information and contact the police for security, they will do their job by saying they would take care of everything and make you feel safe but the fact is the police can't help you without the information am about to give you.

I expect your response with the payment information without delay.

All the Best.
