Re: Ryan Shapiro and Jason Leopold v. Internal Revenue Service et al
(1:16-cv-01827-KBJ)

Dear Mr. Light:

Reference is made to your clients' FOIA requests to the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) that are relevant to the above referenced case. Your clients reference a July 20, 2016, comment by a Secret Service spokesman to the Daily Beast stating "The U.S. Secret Service is aware of this matter and will conduct the appropriate investigation," as well as an August 9, 2016, tweet by the Secret Service stating, "The Secret Service is aware of the comments made earlier this afternoon." The requests seek records that mention or refer to, or were compiled as part of any investigation into the referenced matters.

As a result of these requests please find attached 268 pages of responsive documents. Some information continues to be withheld, however, under the Freedom of Information Act.

The records in question contain information compiled for law enforcement purposes. Pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, sections (b)(6) and (b)(7)(C), certain information is being withheld as information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. Additionally some records in question are being withheld Pursuant to Title 5, United States Code sections (b)(5) and (b)(7)(e).

Sincerely,

Hi, Trump just made this comment today in NC, which some people are interpreting as a threat toward Hillary Clinton. Is the Secret Service looking into this or responding in any way?

Trump comment: "If she gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I don't know."

Hi Martin,

Does the U.S. Secret Service have a reaction to Donald Trump's comments this afternoon regarding the use of firearms as recourse for the potential selection of Supreme Court justices by Hillary Clinton?

Here's the quotation in full:

"And by the way, and if she gets to pick, if she gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I dunno."

Would the USSS consider this a threat to Clinton, or to hypothetical Supreme Court justices?

Hi (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) -

I'm curious if the Secret Service has a comment on Donald Trump's comment at his North Carolina rally today. We already have a story up on it here, but the line I'm asking about is:

"If [Hillary Clinton] gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I don't know."

Does the secret service read this as a threat against Hillary Clinton, or Trump inciting others to violence against her (or maybe against judicial nominees)? Will there be an investigation into these comments?

Thanks very much! I'm looking forward to hearing back from you guys as soon as you get a chance!

Subject: BBC- Trump's comment?

Hello-

Is the Secret Service aware of a remark that Trump made in North Carolina regarding the second amendment and the Supreme Court?

Will there be an investigation into Trump's remark?

Thanks very much,

Hi Martin,

Does the U.S. Secret Service have a reaction to Donald Trump's comments this afternoon regarding the use of firearms as recourse for the potential selection of Supreme Court justices by Hillary Clinton?

Here's the quotation in full:

"And by the way, and if she gets to pick, if she gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I dunno."

Would the USSS consider this a threat to Clinton, or to hypothetical Supreme Court justices?

Thanks so much in advance for your help on this.

Subject: Question regarding Trump comment from N.C. rally today

Hi (b)(6), (b)(7)c -

I'm curious if the Secret Service has a comment on Donald Trump's comment at his North Carolina rally today. We already have a story up on it here, but the line I'm asking about is:

"If [Hillary Clinton] gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I don't know."

Does the secret service read this as a threat against Hillary Clinton, or Trump inciting others to violence against her (or maybe against judicial nominees)? Will there be an investigation into these comments?

Thanks very much! I'm looking forward to hearing back from you guys as soon as you get a chance!

Subject: Donald Trump's "Second Amendment people" comments

Hi Martin,

Does the U.S. Secret Service have a reaction to Donald Trump's comments this afternoon regarding the use of firearms as recourse for the potential selection of Supreme Court justices by Hillary Clinton?

Here's the quotation in full:

"And by the way, and if she gets to pick, if she gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I dunno."

Would the USSS consider this a threat to Clinton, or to hypothetical Supreme Court justices?

Thanks so much in advance for your help on this.

I hope you've been well since we last spoke. I'm working on a follow up story after Trump said hinted that Second Amendment supporters should go after Hillary Clinton in order to stop her from making a poor Supreme Court choice. Could you tell me if the Secret Service has or will increase Hillary Clinton's security detail as a result of the comments? Also, is there a precedent for how the Secret Service responds if one candidate or even a public person incites violence against another candidate in public comments? Feel free to speak on background or put me in touch with someone who can talk about this by phone.

Hi Martin,

Does the U.S. Secret Service have a reaction to Donald Trump's comments this afternoon regarding the use of firearms as recourse for the potential selection of Supreme Court justices by Hillary Clinton?

Here's the quotation in full:

"And by the way, and if she gets to pick, if she gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I dunno."

Would the USSS consider this a threat to Clinton, or to hypothetical Supreme Court justices?

Thanks so much in advance for your help on this.

Wanted to ask whether there's any plan to investigate Trump for the remarks this afternoon or whether you have any statement or reaction. The quote is below followed by Clinton camp's reaction.

Thanks for anything you have.

Trump: "Hillary wants to abolish, essentially abolish the Second Amendment. By the way, if she gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do folks. Though the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I don't know."

Clinton Campaign: "This is simple—what Trump is saying is dangerous. A person seeking to be the President of the United States should not suggest violence in any way."

Thanks so much again (b)(6), (b)(7)c I really do appreciate you getting back in between what I'm sure is just a slamfest of requests!

I wouldn't be doing my job if I didn't ask one more time for the purpose of putting a stop to the dissemination of something untrue (blame the journalist in me!) about something on deep background. Otherwise we can't correct the record and we'll all just keep sending around false information. I totally respect the apoliticism of the office (a big part of my job too) and its duty to protect beyond anything, but I honestly believe that being able to put a stop to this early would benefit everyone involved, and most of all, provide some truth to the day.

Thanks for your time, and remember February, February, February! ☺

Subject: Reuters request- Trump "Second Amendment" comment

Hi there (b)(6), (b)(7)c

I'm sure you're likely swamped today, but I see CNN has reported that the USSS has had "more than one" conversation with the Trump campaign regarding yesterday's gun rights comment:

"If she gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do folks," Trump said at a rally. "Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I don't know," he continued.

I would be very grateful if you could confirm these conversations and would love any details you can provide on exactly how many there have been, with whom on the Trump campaign these conversations have been, and any statement you could provide.

Anything you can provide would be much appreciated, and would love to have something as soon as you can.

Thanks so much, (b)(6), (b)(7)c

Subject: Donald Trump's "Second Amendment people" comments

Hi Martin,

Does the U.S. Secret Service have a reaction to Donald Trump's comments this afternoon regarding the use of firearms as recourse for the potential selection of Supreme Court justices by Hillary Clinton?

Here's the quotation in full:

"And by the way, and if she gets to pick, if she gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I dunno."

Would the USSS consider this a threat to Clinton, or to hypothetical Supreme Court justices?

Thanks so much in advance for your help on this.

Hi (b)(6), (b)(7)c -

I'm curious if the Secret Service has a comment on Donald Trump's comment at his North Carolina rally today. We already have a story up on it here, but the line I'm asking about is:

"If [Hillary Clinton] gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I don't know."

Does the secret service read this as a threat against Hillary Clinton, or Trump inciting others to violence against her (or maybe against judicial nominees)? Will there be an investigation into these comments?

Thanks very much! I'm looking forward to hearing back from you guys as soon as you get a chance!

Hello [REDACTED] and Catherine, We are reporting out Trump's fairly alarming comments just now seeming to intimate a "second amendment" solution to Hillary Clinton. Full quote below. How can I reach you? Many thanks, Jim

15:05:02 "Hillary wants to abolish essentially the second amendment. By the way, if she gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the second amendment people, maybe there is, I donno. But I tell you what, that will be a horrible day, if Hillary gets to put her judges in, right now we're tied. You see what's going on. We're tied cuz Scalia, this was not supposed to happen. Justice Scalia was going to be around for 10 more years at least and this is what happened. That was a horrible thing. So Hillary essentially, now speaking to the NRA folks, who are great. What you, I tell you, so they endorsed me very early. My sons are members. If you, we can add, i think the National Rifle Association, we can add the Second Amendment to the justices, they help us (inaud)...in a certain way. Now the justices are going to"

Reagan's Daughter: Trump's 'Second Amendment' Remark Is 'Horrifying'

Patti Davis, the daughter of President Ronald Reagan and first lady Nancy Reagan, slammed Trump in a Facebook post overnight, criticizing the GOP presidential nominee for comments many saw as a hint at Hillary Clinton's assassination.

Patti Davis
16 hours ago

To Donald Trump: I am the daughter of a man who was shot by someone who got his inspiration from a movie, someone who believed if he killed the President the actress from that movie would notice him. Your glib and horrifying comment about "Second Amendment people" was heard around the world. It was heard by sane and decent people who shudder at your fondness for verbal violence. It was heard by your supporters, many of whom gleefully and angrily yell, "Lock her up!" at your rallies. It was heard by the person sitting alone in a room, locked in his own dark fantasies, who sees unbridled violence as a way to make his mark in the world, and is just looking for ideas. Yes, Mr. Trump, words matter. But then you know that, which makes this all even more horrifying.

Good morning

It was my understanding, based on my conversations with (b)(7)c, (b)(6)

I am not sure who she spoke to in PID but she told me the matter was closed for the aforementioned reasons.

That said, I have spoken with State Representative Baldasaro at multiple mogul events in the past month and will see him again tomorrow at another. I'd be happy to chat with him tomorrow if there are any outstanding questions that PID has about his intent to harm any protectees or any other questions that your folks think I missed in my previous reporting.

Thanks

Subject: Baldasaro, Alfred - Update

On July 22, 2016, New Hampshire State Representative Al Baldasaro called me from his cell phone, [REDACTED]. I immediately recognized Baldasaro's voice from previous interactions with him in New Hampshire and listening to the audio recording of his statements regarding Secretary Clinton. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] As such, Baldasaro said that if she were to be brought to trial and convicted in an appropriate court, the punishment for treason is execution. Baldasaro believes the U.S. Constitution specifically calls for execution when a citizen is convicted of treason. Baldasaro reaffirmed that he does not believe in physically harming Secretary Clinton. Baldasaro was cooperative throughout our conversation and agreed to continue the dialogue, if needed.

On July 21, 2016, I spoke with Londonderry, NH, Police [REDACTED] regarding New Hampshire House of Representative Al Baldasaro. [REDACTED] said he was familiar with Baldasaro and has dealt with him on multiple occasions over the years. [REDACTED]

On the same date, I spoke with Londonderry, NH, Police [REDACTED] about Baldasaro. [REDACTED] also knows Baldasaro and [REDACTED] provided me the attached document.

On the same date, I attempted to interview Baldasaro at his residence, [REDACTED]. It did not appear that any of the occupants of the residence were home and nobody answered the door.

On the same date, calls to Baldasaro's residence phone number, [REDACTED] were unanswered and the voice mail was full.

On the same date, I left a voice mail and sent a text message to Baldasaro's cell phone, (b)(7)(c), (b)(7)(d) requesting that he call me.

On the same date, calls to Baldasaro's phone number at the state house went unanswered. There is no business this week at the state house.

On the same date, I spoke with the (b)(7)(c), (b)(7)(d) in Manchester, NH. (b)(7)(c), (b)(7)(d) She also confirmed the aforementioned numbers for Baldasaro are current.

On the same date, I left a voice mail and sent a text message to (b)(7)(c), (b)(7)(d) in an attempt to arrange an interview with Baldasaro in Cleveland. (b)(7)(c), (b)(7)(d) has not responded as of this writing.

Attached was received from the Londonderry Police Department on their interactions with Baldasaro. Two items of note – (b)(7)(c), (b)(7)(d) and attached document contains PII, which is the reason for the encrypted email.

Hey (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

I wanted to check in with the Secret Service and see if you guys are looking into remarks from New Hampshire lawmaker that Clinton should be shot for treason? (Article below)

Thank you.

Trump adviser Al Baldasaro: Hillary Clinton should be shot for treason, not assassinated

CAMBRIDGE — An adviser to Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump doubled down Tuesday on comments he made saying that Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton should be shot for treason.

But New Hampshire state Rep. Al Baldasaro, a Republican who co-chairs Trump's national veterans' coalition, stressed that he was not saying someone should assassinate Clinton.

"The liberal media took what I said and went against the law and the Constitution and ran with it, and they said that I wanted her assassinated, which I never did," Baldasaro told The Republican/MassLive.com. "I said I spoke as a veteran, and she should be shot in a firing squad for treason."

Baldasaro first made the comments in July on the "The Kuhner Report" on WRKO-AM Boston, when he said, "Hillary Clinton should be put in the firing line and shot for treason" because of her use of a personal email server when she was secretary of state.

Trump himself recently made headlines for saying that "maybe there is" something gun owners can do if Clinton gets elected president and appoints Supreme Court justices. Trump's campaign later said he was referring to political organizing, although critics said his comments could incite violence against Clinton.

On the same date, I left a voice mail and sent a text message to Baldasaro's cell phone, [REDACTED] requesting that he call me.

On the same date, calls to Baldasaro's phone number at the state house went unanswered. There is no business this week at the state house.

On the same date, I spoke with the [REDACTED] in Manchester, NH. [REDACTED] She also confirmed the aforementioned numbers for Baldasaro are current.

On the same date, I left a voice mail and sent a text message to [REDACTED] in an attempt to arrange an interview with Baldasaro. [REDACTED] has not responded as of this writing.

Attached was received from the Londonderry Police Department on their interactions with Baldasaro. Two items of note – Baldasaro has a pistol permit and attached document contains PII, which is the reason for the encrypted email.

On July 22, 2016, New Hampshire State Representative Al Baldasaro called me from his cell phone, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C). I immediately recognized Baldasaro's voice from previous interactions with him in New Hampshire and listening to the audio recording of his statements regarding Secretary Clinton. (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

(b)(6), (b)(7)(C) As such, Baldasaro said that if she were to be brought to trial and convicted in an appropriate court, the punishment for treason is execution. Baldasaro believes the U.S. Constitution specifically calls for execution when a citizen is convicted of treason. Baldasaro reaffirmed that he does not believe in physically harming Secretary Clinton. Baldasaro was cooperative throughout our conversation and agreed to continue the dialogue, if needed.

Open source research revealed on Tuesday, 07/19/16, BALDASARO appeared on the "The Kuhner Report" on Boston, MA radio station WRKO. During the interview, BALDASARO stated, "Hillary Clinton should be put in the firing line and shot for treason." On Wednesday, 07/20/16, BALDASARO stated, in part, to WMUR Channel 9 in Manchester, NH "As far as I'm concerned, it is treason and the penalty for treason is the firing squad – or maybe it's the electric chair now,"

Open source research further revealed Alfred P. BALDASARO [REDACTED] is a member of the New Hampshire House of Representatives (Republican).

Multiple media sources have been reporting that Representative BALDASARO is in attendance at the 2016 Republican National Convention, and while in attendance has called for the execution of Presidential Candidate Clinton, whom BALDASARO accused of treason.

INCIDENT OF INTEREST:

On 08/16/16 at 1829 hours EDT, [REDACTED] USSS/PID, contacted the PIOC to report the following information:

On 08/16/16, USSS/PID received a link to a news article stating Presidential Nominee Donald Trump adviser Al BALDASARO (RID: INC-16-03046) made inappropriate statements, directed towards FFLOTUS/Presidential Nominee Hillary Clinton.

On 08/16/16, BALDASARO stated, "The liberal media took what I said and went against the law and the Constitution and ran with it, and they said that I wanted her assassinated, which I never did. I said I spoke as a veteran, and she should be shot in a firing squad for treason."

The statement was in response to comments made by BALDASARO on 07/19/16 while on a conservative radio talk show in Boston, MA.

The article was posted by www.masslive.com. The link to the article is http://www.masslive.com/politics/index.ssf/2016/08/trump_adviser_al_baldasaro_hil.html.
