Dear Public Records Request Officer:

Under the Nevada Open Records Act § 239 et seq., I write to request copies of all correspondence, including but not limited to emails, faxes, records of phone calls or texts within the Attorney General's Office related to Sheldon Adelson or the Las Vegas Sands Corporation from January 1, 2016 to June 30, 2016 and January 1, 2017 to present.

The preferred delivery method for this request is email, if the format allows. If fees for searching or copying these records exceed $25.00, please let me know. I understand that I am required to pay in full prior to the reproduction of this material.

Pursuant to Section 239.0107(1) of the Nevada Revised Statutes, the records I am requesting should be made available to me no later than five business days from the date you receive this request. If accessing and reproducing the records take longer than five business days, please contact me with information about when I might expect copies or the ability to inspect the requested records.

If you deny any or all of this request, please cite each specific exemption you feel justifies the refusal to release the information and notify me of the appeal procedures available to me under the law.¹

Thank you for considering my request and I look forward to hearing back from you within five business days regarding this request.

Sincerely,

William McCurdy II

Dear Public Records Request Officer:

Under the Nevada Open Records Act § 239 et seq., I write to request copies of the full individual schedules of Attorney General Adam Laxalt and Chief of Staff Nicholas Trutanich's meetings with Sheldon Adelson and/or Andy Abboud from January 5, 2015 to the present.

The preferred delivery method for this request is email, if the format allows. If fees for searching or copying these records exceed $25.00, please let me know. I understand that I am required to pay in full prior to the reproduction of this material.

Pursuant to Section 239.0107(1) of the Nevada Revised Statutes, the records I am requesting should be made available to me no later than five business days from the date you receive this request. If accessing and reproducing the records take longer than five business days, please contact me with information about when I might expect copies or the ability to inspect the requested records.

If you deny any or all of this request, please cite each specific exemption you feel justifies the refusal to release the information and notify me of the appeal procedures available to me under the law.¹

Thank you for considering my request and I look forward to hearing back from you within five business days regarding this request.
