Subject: Records request
Date: Tuesday, March 14, 2017 2:53:40 PM

This is to request, under the state's open records law (19.31-19.39), records of all communications received by your office regarding the proposal in the 2017-19 executive budget to cease publication of Wisconsin Natural Resources magazine, from February 10, 2017, to present. Also requested are records of any communications regarding this decision between your office and the state Department of Natural Resources from July 1, 2016, to present.

To save time and labor and reduce or eliminate cost, I am asking for records that exist in electronic form to be provided in electronic form. If significant amount of records exist only as printed letters or other documents, I would like to review these records in person and request copies as needed, again to save time, labor and cost.

Please be aware that the Open Records Law "shall be construed in every instance with the presumption of complete public access consistent with the conduct of governmental business. The denial of access generally is contrary to the public interest and only in exceptional cases can access be denied." If you deny my request, the law requires you to do so in writing and state what part of the law you believe entitles you to deny my request. Wis. Stat. § 19.35(4)(a).

The Open Records law states that you may charge for "the actual, necessary and direct cost" of locating records, if this exceeds $50, and for photocopies. Please advise me before processing this request if the total cost will exceed $100.

As you know, the law requires you to respond to this request "as soon as practicable and without delay."

Please let me know if I can clarify or refine this request.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Media Contact Summary for March 7, 2017

Natural Resources Magazine. Patrick Durkin, Outdoors writer. Records Coordinators handled. Pat asked for the current number of magazine subscriptions on the books. How many new and how many renewed. Records turned around same day.

Ice safety, fishing and lakes. Erika Nelson, Lynxx 24, Tomah. Matthew Modjeski and other Law Enforcement staff handled. With the help of others, Matthew worked to provide a concise list of advice, recommendations, etc... on treating ice from a safety and fishing standpoint.

CDAC meetings. Michael Klish, WFAF 940 Radio, Fort Atkinson. Pearl Worden handled. Meeting and council information was discussed.

Public hunting and pressure. Dave Zeug, Delta Waterfowl. Taylor Finger handled. He asked for some comments regarding how much public land Wisconsin has and how it is available to waterfowl hunters. Also, he asked if we had any information on the benefits of scouting for waterfowl (we did from our waterfowl hunter survey). Taylor followed up and answered all questions.

Nuisance bear issues, Grantsburg. Steve Briggs, Burnett County Sentinel. Steven Hoffman handled. Nuisance hunt for this area is planned again for this fall using basically the same format as last year. Steve said we would be monitoring complaints in the village this year again. He asked when people should be taking their bird feeders down? Steve's answer was "very soon if the weather continues as it is."

We are committed to service excellence.

Visit our survey at <http://dnr.wi.gov/customersurvey> to evaluate how I did.

Government shouldn't control the news media -- Jane Noffke

Here in Wisconsin, Gov. Scott Walker has proposed in his budget that the Wisconsin Natural Resources magazine be discontinued after 100 years of publication.

If this WSJ reader doesn't want the government to control the media, then wouldn't she support our effort to cancel a state run magazine?

Building off of the reforms former Gov. Tommy Thompson started in 1996, Walker has proposed a series of initiatives that reward work and help people move from government dependence to true independence.

March 2, 2017

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

With the recent rain and snow storms March has come in like a lion and will hopefully go out like a lamb. This update highlights the upcoming Aldo Leopold celebration, Wisconsin's history, news across the state, National School Breakfast Week and the weekly Senate Democratic radio address.

I hope you find this information helpful, and don't forget to get out and enjoy all of the fun upcoming events in western Wisconsin!

Sincerely,

Jennifer K. Shilling
State Senator | 32nd District

2017 National History Day

The 2017 National History Day Western Regional contest sponsored by the Wisconsin Historical Society will be held on Tuesday, March 28, on the University of Wisconsin – La Crosse campus.

National History Day in Wisconsin is an academic enrichment program for students in grades 6-12. In this project-based contest, students are taking their learning beyond the textbook to demonstrate their historical research skills through one of five categories: documentary, exhibit, paper, performance and website. Guided by an annual theme, students are encouraged to choose a topic that matches their personal interests. The 2017 theme is "Taking a Stand in History". Students enter their projects in local level contests, with the top entries advancing to regional, state/affiliate, and national levels.

Each year over 10,000 students around Wisconsin present their ideas to judges and along the way, students compete for honors, awards, and thousands of dollars in scholarships. This year-long academic adventure fosters students' enthusiasm for learning and their love for history.

Judges and volunteers are a key to the success of the National History Day in Wisconsin Program. Each regional site is currently seeking volunteers to help support the event. Volunteering at a National History Day in Wisconsin event is a rewarding experience. Volunteers help students learn history and actively support the competition by serving as judges who give individual feedback about the projects. Volunteer sign-up can be found online.

Winners at the regional level will move on to the state competition which will be taking place on Saturday, April 22, 2017 in Madison at the UW-Madison campus. For more information, click here.

Aldo Leopold Celebration

The Upper Mississippi River National Wildlife and Fish Refuge will honor the life and work of conservationist and naturalist Aldo Leopold on Saturday, March 4, at the visitor center in Brice Prairie through a variety of fun and free activities.

10:00am -12:00pm – Hey Kids! Tell your parents environmental educators from WisCorps will be leading activities and crafts in the visitor center, so stop on by!

10:00am -11:00am – Take a Walk Through the Prairie! Students from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse (UWL) environmental literature classes will be guiding a walk through the prairie and stopping along the way to share readings from "A Sand County Almanac" as well as their own writings about experiencing nature.

11:00am and 1:00pm – Get Inspired: There will be two public showings of "Green Fire," an inspirational film about Leopold's life and legacy. The first showing will start at 11:00 a.m. and the second showing will begin at 1:00 p.m. Snacks and refreshments will be provided by the Friends of the Refuge-Mississippi River Pools 7 & 8.

We hope to see you on Saturday to learn more about Aldo Leopold and why he has had such an impact on conservation work today.

For more information, contact the La Crosse National Fish and Wildlife District Office at (608) 779-2399 or click here.

Celebrate Wisconsin's History

This year marks the 100th Anniversary of the Wisconsin State Capitol! In honor of this historic event, I will be highlighting a piece of Wisconsin history in every update.

This week we highlight Old Abe, the War Eagle.

Old Abe the War Eagle was the mascot of the 8th Wisconsin Infantry. He was carried on a special perch throughout the entire war and became a symbol of Wisconsin's Civil War history.

After training at Camp Randall in Madison, Abe accompanied the regiment as it headed south. Old Abe witnessed 37 battles and skirmishes, including some of the bloodiest fighting at Vicksburg and Corinth, Mississippi. He became an inspirational symbol to the troops like the ceremonial flag carried by each regiment.

At the end of the war, Old Abe was presented to the State of Wisconsin.

For 15 years, he lived in the "Eagle Department" in the basement of the Capitol, attracting thousands of visitors. During this period, Old Abe also served as the star attraction at many fundraising events, earning thousands of dollars for charities. Old Abe's long life ended March 26, 1881, when he died from smoke inhalation during a fire in the Capitol.

His remains were stuffed and mounted, and for the next 20 years his body remained on display in the rotunda of the Capitol building.

After construction of the new State Historical Society in 1901, Old Abe was briefly housed at that facility before being moved back to the Capitol in 1903. His remains were destroyed a few months later when the Capitol building burned down on February 26, 1904.

Action in the District

Left Photo: I had the privilege of speaking to the juniors at Cashton High School during their US Government classes. We had a great discussion about the role of a Senator and the importance of state and local government. It is always inspiring to see the next generation engaging with issues that will affect their lives and the future of our state. Thank you to Mr. Mosely and Mr. Moreno for inviting me to speak to your classes.

Right Photo: I recently held listening sessions in Westby and Hillsboro and heard from several people about the issues that are important to them. Attendees shared their thoughts on school funding, government transparency, environmental protections and a long term transportation funding solution. Stay tuned for more listening sessions in March!

National School Breakfast Week!

National School Breakfast Week (NSBW) is March 6-10, 2017 and is a week long celebration of the school breakfast program. The 2017 NSBW theme, "Take the School Breakfast Challenge" encourages students, staff and school officials to increase their participation in school breakfast.

This week highlights how eating a nutritious breakfast helps students fuel up for success in the classroom and beyond. School nutrition programs play a critical role in ensuring all students receive a healthful breakfast.

Children who eat school breakfast are more likely to:

- Reach higher levels of achievement in reading and math
- Have better concentration
- Be more alert
- Retain more of what they learn
- Participate in class
- Maintain a healthy weight
- Drink more milk and eat more fruit daily

Wisconsin Public Radio: State Democrats planning legislation to alleviate high cost of child care

Wisconsin Democrats hope to introduce legislation to make quality child care more affordable for working families by offering them an annual income tax credit. Senate Minority Leader Jennifer Shilling, D-La Crosse, said the bill will likely mirror the federal law that offers a tax break for up to 35 percent of qualifying care expenses. That would include up to around $3,000 for one child and up to roughly $6,000 for two or more children. - Read Full Article

Weekly Democratic Radio Address: "Walker's Rough Roads Getting Worse"

Recently, Senator Mark Miller (D-Monona) offered the weekly Democratic radio address to discuss Wisconsin's worsening road conditions.

"Wisconsin roads are currently ranked 4th worst in the nation, causing increased expenses for drivers. Unsafe roads cost drivers in unexpected car repairs, delayed commute times and cause traffic accidents. Legislative Republicans need to start working towards actual solutions and stop kicking the can down the road. Wisconsin cannot afford another failed budget full of tax breaks for the wealthy while our roads fall into disrepair. We all deserve better."

WCC Talking Points

DNR's Mission: To protect and enhance our natural resources: our air, land and water; our wildlife, fish and forests and the ecosystems that sustain all life. To provide a healthy, sustainable environment and a full range of outdoor opportunities. To ensure the right of all people to use and enjoy these resources in their work and leisure. To work with people to understand each other's views and to carry out the public will.

And in this partnership consider the future and generations to follow.

Magazine

- The magazine has had a great run since it was first published as the Wisconsin Conservationist nearly a hundred years ago.
- The printing, mailing and editing of the magazine is supported by subscriptions and still has a loyal following. However the staff time put into writing and developing content most often was not.
 - Approximately 88,000 subscribers- 40,000 thru Patron License. 48,000 non-patron subscribers.
- After completing our core work analysis during the alignment process, it became clear that we at the Wisconsin DNR are not magazine publishers.
- Our time and resources can be better utilized by focusing on communication tools that are more immediate in this digital age and have the potential of spreading the word of DNR's mission and work to a larger audience.
 - Continue to grow our social media reach that currently includes 82,160 Facebook followers and 17,665 Twitter followers.
 - Increase our reach through videos. As of 2016, our YouTube channel has a total 913,717 views. That's a 19% increase over 2015. The number of viewers who "like" the channel is up 27% and the number of actual subscribers is up 99% over 2015.
 - We electronically distribute public information on numerous DNR topics to 903,000 GovDelivery subscribers.
- Even the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel recently announced substantial changes in its print edition because technology is changing the way people consume news and information-through smartphones, tablets and the internet.
- It takes a good deal of behind-the-scenes work to publish and distribute the six Natural Resources magazine every year. In order to fill the magazine pages, staff members often researched and wrote stories. They can now focus their time on their core work in their own programs and divisions.
- Free lancers offered stories that would fill the story supply gap. While these were good stories about the outdoors, the authors were not involved in DNR work and had no active knowledge of our programs and services to help inform readers of what we do to carry out our mission.

- The budget process is far from over. The legislature still has its say before a final budget bill reaches the Governor's desk, usually sometime in June. If the recommendation stays intact, the final edition would be February 2018.

MADISON – Gov. Scott Walker drew on his experience battling protesters six years ago to hearten conservatives Thursday as they face fierce criticism over President Donald Trump and his policies.

Walker's proposed welfare reforms are an exciting example for the rest of the country

Washington Examiner

In 2011, Gov. Scott Walker, R-Wis., delivered his first inaugural address. He laid out an agenda focused on returning to "frugality in government" and building an economic climate that would create new private-sector jobs. Walker assured everyone that, despite the tough challenges facing the Badger State, Wisconsin was up to the task and would serve as a model for the rest of the nation to follow.

Representative Lisa Subeck's E-Newsletter

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

Today is Election Day. Polls are open until 8:00 tonight, so you still have time make your voice heard at the ballot box. When you cast your vote today, you will have a say in which candidates move forward for consideration in the April general election. There is a great deal at stake – especially for the continued leadership of our public schools.

In the Capitol, work on the budget has taken center stage. I am going through the 989 page budget document with my staff and discussing specific items with community members. Already, I am hearing from individuals and groups who are raising specific concerns and I very much appreciate the feedback being provided.

This week's newsletter contains an outline of the state budget timeline, information related to some tax policy changes in the budget, reflections on climate change denial by the Governor, and a fun fact in honor of Black History Month.

If you have any questions or need assistance with any matter, please feel free to contact my office. Sincerely,

Lisa Subeck
State Representative
78th Assembly District

Budget Update: Potential Timeline

Earlier this month, Governor Walker presented his proposed 2017-2019 biennial budget bill to the people of Wisconsin. When he made his remarks, the Governor provided legislators and the public with a document titled, "Budget in Brief" which provides his narrative on budget proposals. Much of the reporting on the budget that you have seen or heard is based upon this document.

Presently the budget bill is in the Joint Finance Committee (JFC). Over the next month, the nonpartisan Legislative Fiscal Bureau will analyze the legal language of the 989 page budget bill, which has been assigned the number Assembly Bill 64 (AB 64). When the analysis is complete, state government agency staff will appear before JFC to explain portions of the budget related to their departments and to answer questions. When that process is complete, JFC will hold a few public hearings on the bill. The number of hearings and locations for these hearings has not yet been determined.

Once the public hearing process is completed, the Legislative Fiscal Bureau staff will prepare papers on each budget topic. The papers explain the issue in detail, restate the position of the Governor and then outline options for the members of JFC to consider. Members of JFC are also free to introduce their own budget motions. By June, JFC should have a substitute version of the budget that will be sent to the Assembly and Senate to be acted on by each house.

The goal is to have a new budget passed and in the Governor's hands so it can be signed and in place for the next fiscal year which begins on July 1st. Unlike the federal government budget process, if a new state budget is not in place by July 1st, things do not come to a standstill. State government programs and agencies continue to operate under the current budget. However, extended delays in the passage of a state budget can have detrimental impact on the budget process of schools and local governments.

Throughout this process I will be working with other legislators to support provisions in the budget that move our state forward. I will also work to see the most egregious provisions removed.

We have all heard the old adage that if something looks too good to be true, it probably is. That adage holds true when it comes to Republican tax gimmicks in the state budget. The Governor and Republicans in the legislature insist that family supporting jobs are created by giving tax breaks to Wisconsin's wealthiest individuals. Unfortunately, this too-good-to-be-true fallacy is costing us all.

Take, for example, the Manufacturing and Agriculture Tax Credit, passed in a previous budget by the Republican majority. Sounds good, right?

When the Wisconsin economy did well, we were among the leaders in family supporting manufacturing jobs. The problem with this particular tax break is that there is absolutely no job creation requirement needed to actually claim the credit. Worse yet, 11 people making over $30 million claimed a full $22 million in giveaways under this credit, and not a single new job needed to be documented.

Even something that sounds good, like increasing the School Levy Tax Credit by $87 million in the second year of the budget is problematic. There is no income ceiling to the credit and, rather than limiting the credit to taxpayers with their primary residence in Wisconsin, the credit can be claimed on commercial and vacation properties that aren't even owned by Wisconsin residents. These giveaways to wealthy out-of-state residents are particularly alarming given that the second year of the Governor's budget is projected to end with a $738 million structural deficit.

Feeling Climate Change

While the Walker Administration has taken steps to scrub the Department of Natural Resources website of references to climate change and is seeking to eliminate the subscriber supported publication of the Wisconsin Natural Resources Magazine – fortunately he does not control the news media.

Since Saturday, weather forecasters have reported on high temperature records being broken – every day.

Records are expected to fall this entire week. Having record high temperatures recorded for two or three days in a row in a single given year has occurred in the past. Not only are we seeing year-after-year in which the average high temperature for the year is the highest on record, but if the forecasts hold true for this week, we will see an inordinate number of record setting days in a row.

We have to recognize that climate change is real and scientifically proven and take steps to reduce our impact on the environment. Governor Walker's insistence on sticking his head in the sand and denying the reality of climate change will have disastrous consequences for the people, wild life and future of Wisconsin.

Fun Wisconsin Fact

In honor of Black History Month, all of February's fun facts will be about African American contributions to Wisconsin's history.

Louis Bennett Butler, Jr. was the first – and currently the only – African American Justice on the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Butler was appointed to the Supreme Court by Governor Jim Doyle in August 2004 and served until his term expired on July 31, 2008.

Butler served as an assistant state public defender from 1979 to 1992, and was then appointed to the Municipal Court in Milwaukee. He served as a municipal judge until 2002, when he was elected to the Milwaukee County Circuit Court. Butler also served as an adjunct professor at Marquette University Law School.

President Barack Obama nominated Butler to serve as United States District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin, but was never confirmed.

Dear Mr. Evenson,

I am forwarding an email I sent to Kathryn Kahler last week after hearing about the possibility of shuttering Wisconsin Natural Resources. We are definitely interesting in taking over the magazine's operations if that is an option the state would consider.

Dear Kathryn,

We have submitted a bid to publish your magazine in the past, and I recently learned that the state may discontinue it. Could we throw our hat in to possible acquire the magazine and continue its mission?

We have offices in Verona and Lake Geneva, publishing a number of regional guides and magazines. In Madison, we publish BRAVA magazine and Lakeshore Living Madison. We are contracted to produce the Greater Madison CVB's Visitor Guide and Map, the Madison Area Builders Association's Parade of Home Plan Book and Membership Directory, and the Tavern League of Wisconsin's On Premise magazine (6x/year).

Thank you,

Media Contact Summary for Feb. 17, 2017

General sturgeon spearing interviews. Ryan Koenigs handled. Reporters had questions on ice, but Ryan stuck to the basics that some fishing clubs are no longer maintaining marked roadways and auto bridges and weather has caused a reduction in spearing effort.

•Bob Brunell, WOSH Radio

•Scott Ehricke, Outdoor Connection radio show, WOSH-AM

Wood duck boxes and Nest Box Seminar. Jeff Bahls and Ryan Brady are handling. Paul came out to Horicon and went out with Jeff to monitor the boxes; he'll be writing a piece on that and the upcoming Nest Box Seminar. Early next week (the 22) Jeff will also appear on the Larry Meiller Show with Ryan Brady to discuss similar topics.

•Paul Smith, Milwaukee Journal Sentinel

•Larry Meiller Show, Wisconsin Public Radio (Upcoming)

DNR magazine budget proposal. Tim Eisele, Wisconsin Outdoor News. Jim Dick handled.

Tim was asking for basic info on the magazine including number of subscriptions, is it fully funded by subs, and is there ad revenue (no).

Ice safety. Mike Anderson, ABC 12/WISN, Milwaukee. Gervis Myles handled. Warden Myles did an on – camera interview to discuss ice safety.

Sturgeon investigation. Dean Bortz, Outdoor News/freelance. Benjamin Treml handled. Ben provided the bond amount for a recent sturgeon investigation.

AGENCY REPORT

Agency Name: DNR	Evaluation for week ending: 02/17/17
Author of Report: Ed Eberle Title: Assistant Deputy Secretary Contact Information: 608-212-5917	Department: DNR
HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE WEEK
<ul style="list-style-type: none">DNR presented certificate of appreciation and photo collage to J.F. Brennan Co. (La Crosse, WI) for hosting the 2016 multi-agency tactical maritime three day training. It is an outstanding partnership between government (LE) and private business. Other partners included La Crosse Sheriff, Eau Claire Sheriff, Superior Police, US Coast Guard, and DCI. DNR will maintain efforts to continue positive working relationship with J.F. Brennan Company into the future.
EFFORTS TAKEN BY THE AGENCY TO INCREASE JOBS
<ul style="list-style-type: none">We initiated a meeting with developer Klint Klaas's (twin cities), consultants, City of Hudson and DNR stormwater staff on the proposed St. Croix Meadows site. This site is 130 acres and was formerly a dog track facility. The dog track operated in the 1990's for only a couple of years, and has sat dormant since. A multi-purpose development to include a sports complex for a semi-pro baseball team, hotel, commercial, business park and residential is being proposed. Total estimated build out value is $120-150 million. DNR's role appears to be only stormwater at this point, and our meeting today was to help lay out the regulatory framework and permitting expectations. We also shared that Green Tier folks would be engaged to see if there is some advantage within the brownfields program in DNR.Continue to collaborate and advance on three significant economic development and job creation projects.

OTHER

Weekly Media highlights for February 10 – February 16, 2017

Natural Resources Magazine-more media interest than expected regarding the budget recommendation on the magazine. Media tried playing it that the magazine is being shut-down to avoid publishing “controversial stories.” That accusation has no merit. The decision was prompted by core analysis work during the alignment process in which publishing a magazine did not seem to be a priority in carrying out the agency’s mission of protecting and enhancing our natural resources. Stories in Madison and Milwaukee papers that were picked up across the state by other papers in their respective ownership chains. A couple of Outdoors writers are also working on stories.

Sturgeon Spearing Season-Continued interest in the ongoing season on Lake Winnebago from regional media especially as warmer temperatures arrive that may affect ice conditions on the lake.

Bobcat, Columbia County-some regional media excitement over a bobcat captured on citizen video near Rio. Bobcats were found primarily in northern forests, but it is now common for the department to receive reports from southern portions of the state.

Candlelight ski and hike at Governor Thompson State Park and candlelight snowshoe at Rib Mountain State Park

Saturday, February 18, 2017

Candlelight events are scheduled for this Saturday at Governor Thompson and Rib Mountain state parks. Both properties are reporting they have plenty of snow and activities will go on as scheduled.

Governor Thomson Candlelight Ski and Hike

Join us at Gov. Thompson State Park for a fun-filled evening of candlelit skiing and hiking. Warming fires and hot chocolate provided! Meet at the Woods Lake Picnic Area. The park and trails will be lit by candle luminaries and accented with ice sculptures. Skiers can take an easy 1-mile loop candlelit trail groomed for both classic (diagonal striding) and skate skiing as it weaves through the woods. Non-skiers are welcome to hike another 1-mile candlelit trail with scenic views over Woods Lake. Hikers, snowshoers and pets are not allowed on the ski trail, but are welcome on the hiking trail. Warming fires and hot chocolate will be available for everyone in the Woods Lake Shelter. Vehicle admission (park sticker) is required and can be purchased at the park office. Trails start at the Woods Lake Picnic Area off of Paust Lane, 1.5 miles west of Parkway Road off Ranch Road. 6-9 p.m.

Rib Mountain State Park Candlelight Snowshoe/Hike

The Friends of Rib Mountain State Park invite everyone to explore Rib Mountain State Park trails on snowshoes. Meet at the newly constructed Friends Shelter located just past the park entrance. Plan to bring snowshoes; limited pairs will be available to borrow. Also bring flashlights or headlamps. Enjoy hot chocolate and snacks afterwards. Parking is limited and carpooling is recommended. This event is free and donations are welcome to help cover costs. An annual or daily state park vehicle admission sticker is required. For weather conditions and event updates, visit the Friends of Rib Mountain State Park website [\[exit DNR\]](#). 5:30-7:30 p.m.

For a complete listing of candlelight events search the Department of Natural Resources website for keyword "candlelight." and for all events search "get outdoors." Search "find a park" for locations.

Subject: Special Invitation for Governor Walker to Attend Dialog 2017
Date: Thursday, February 16, 2017 4:06:40 PM

Dear Rich -

I am writing to invite Governor Walker to Dialog 2017. Please see invitation below and let me know if you have any questions.

Most respectfully,

Andrew

Dear Governor Walker -

Please join us at Dialog 2017.

Dialog is a non-partisan, not-for-attribution gathering that exists to observe and practice intelligent, good-faith, and respectful discourse on important policy issues affecting the global community.

What makes the Dialog experience unique:

- People: Hyper-diverse (age, ethnicity, gender, ideology, sector, geography)
- Format: Entirely participatory, but highly structured: No speakers. No panels. You will participate in four 90-minute breakout sessions and four seated meals. All conversations are moderated by a fellow participant.
- Content: Designed around each participant's unique interests, filtered through an action-oriented lens.
- Ethos: Highly inclusive and egalitarian. Informal, with no pressure to reach pre-conceived outcomes.

While Dialog 2017 is full, we would love to make room for you to join. Thanks for considering.

Best,

Andrew

Please see below. This is mostly the HR shared services portion of the budget as well as some contractor conversions. I am happy to respond if you'd like.

Thanks.

Hi Megan,

Do you know anything about the budget adding 500 positions to the DOA? Seems a little unrealistic but I thought I'd check with you to make sure.

Thanks,

Andrew

Hi, I have a few comments/questions about the new proposed budget:

Why is the Wisconsin Natural Resources Magazine being eliminated? We have been getting it for a number of years and really enjoying reading about our great natural resources.

Why is DNR losing 43 positions and Circus World is gaining 10 new positions?

If the governor claims that the stray voltage problems are mostly solved, why not keep the program in effect until they are totally taken care of?

The most ridiculous idea is adding 47% (500 positions) to the DOA workforce when all but one of these are for "Supervisory and Management" positions. Really? Does the DOA work so poorly that that many more supervisors are needed? Maybe look to eliminate those who are working inadequately.

Why eliminate the Educational Approval Board?

Thank you,
Mary Jackl

Governor Walker,

I have been a supporter of yours since the day you took office and continue to be to this day. I am disappointed today to learn that the Wisconsin Natural Resources Magazine will no longer be published.

It costs tax payers nothing and, when allowed to, the publishers do a fantastic job of highlighting the states natural resource issues. It is starting to become hard to continue supporting someone who continuously tries hiding issues that are a real threat to our natural resources because you see dollar signs in place of them.

Today, I have to rethink my support for you and what your agenda may now consist of.

Lance,

Governor Walker's biennial budget proposal calls for the sunset of the publication of the Wisconsin Natural Resources Magazine, effective with the February 2018 issue. The decision to cease publication of the magazine was based on the Department's core-work analysis conducted during the department-wide alignment process, which is now being implemented. The magazine was created in a different communication era; the emergence of the Internet, email, and social media have dramatically changed DNR's ability to convey important department information directly. While the magazine is self-sustaining through subscriptions, it does not meet the definition of core work necessary to fulfill the DNR's mission of protecting and enhancing Wisconsin's natural resources. If the budget recommendation remains intact during the budget process, it would also mean DNR employees who often took time to research and write the stories needed to fill the pages, could utilize the time invested in those stories more directly on their own core-work duties. Subscriptions are automatically included with the purchase of a Conservation Patron license. If the proposal is maintained, the Conservation Patron license fee would be reduced by an amount equal to the cost of the subscription.

I hope this is helpful. Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Sincerely,

We are committed to service excellence.

Representative Lisa Subeck's E-Newsletter

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

I hope you had a happy Valentine's Day! In addition to Valentine's Day, we continue to recognize Black History Month and American Heart Month throughout the month of February. The Legislature's black caucus has been hosting numerous events at the Capitol this month to highlight important people and events, and last week, Legislators joined the American Heart Association's "Wear Red Day" festivities to raise awareness of heart disease.

In this week's newsletter, you will find highlights and lowlights from the Governor's budget proposal, news of more attacks on women's health access, information from the Department of Agriculture, Trade, and Consumer Protection about the biggest complaints they get from consumers.

If you have any questions or need assistance with any matter, please feel free to contact my office.

Sincerely,

Lisa Subeck
State Representative
78th Assembly District

Budget Highlights and Lowlights

Governor Walker and Republicans have passed three failed budgets over the past six years. Unfortunately, the budget Governor Walker has proposed for the next biennium follows the same recipe for failure.

Far from being a blueprint for a bright future, the budget proposed by the Governor will have a structural deficit of over $738 million at the end of the second year of the biennium. Here's what that means: He is increasing spending over the course of the biennium to gain favor with a few groups that have every reason to oppose his election in 2018. At the same time, he is handing out even more tax breaks to his supporters. The result is that after the 2018 election is said and done, the state will find itself in the position of spending about $738 million more than we can reasonably expect to come in from various taxes.

Other lowlights of the budget include:

- The budget continues to chip away at local control over Wisconsin's public schools. Under the budget proposed by Walker, districts wishing to see an increase in per pupil aid are forced to cede control of the school/employee relationship to the state. The Madison school district has worked well with employees to keep health care cost in check and ensure the employee contributions varied based upon employee pay. Unfortunately, Governor Walker is still in the Act 10 mindset and determined to erode local control and the ability of public schools to provide an excellent education.
- After being bashed in the past three state budgets, UW Madison and UW System leaders are relieved not to face additional cuts. However, this budget will do long term irreparable harm to the UW System. The Governor's budget further dictates how professors teach and how they carry their workloads, jeopardizing critical research funding. He also proposes making student activity fee payments optional which will reduce funding available for sexual assault prevention efforts and reduce the ability of students to have a say in policy matters. It will also, very likely, increase fees paid by students who choose to not opt out of funding necessary programs.
- The Governor's budget borrows more for transportation, without addressing the long term funding crisis. This means the average family will pay more to repair damage to vehicles and more for gasoline consumed while stuck in traffic on roads that are inadequate.
- In addition to scrubbing the Department of Natural Resources website of references to climate change, the Governor is undertaking another effort to deny the public scientifically accurate information about environmental issues. The budget eliminates publication of the Wisconsin Natural Resources magazine. Even though the magazine is entirely self-supporting – paid for by 75,000 subscribers.

- The Governor wishes to eliminate the Labor and Industry Review Commission. The three members provide a forum to resolve disputes involving unemployment insurance, workers compensation and equal rights. Without the Commission in place it is likely employers and employees both will find it necessary to spend money to take disputes to circuit courts.

Watch for further information and budget updates in future newsletters.

Good Government Under Attack in Budget

As we review the proposed budget over the next few weeks, I will continue to highlight items that may be of particular interest to you. This week's article focuses on two destructive measures in the budget that further the decay of good government in Wisconsin.

Governor Walker is proposing to dismantle the independence of the Judicial Commission. The Commission was created in 1978 to investigate misconduct or disabilities of any judge or court commissioner in Wisconsin. The Commission, independent of the courts, would investigate and then bring cases to a 3 judge panel whose recommendation would ultimately be reviewed by the Wisconsin State Supreme Court to determine if the judge should be reprimanded, censured, suspended, or removed. The Governor's proposed budget removes the commission's independence by folding it into the Wisconsin Supreme Court's authority.

Governor Walker is also proposing a 30 percent cut to the Elections Commission. This will result in the elimination of six staff positions. While the newly formed Commission is attempting to settle in and assist election officials with voter ID and the new electronic registration they will have catastrophic impact. Now is not the time to be eliminating resources for the agency in charge of ensuring fair and free elections.

These attacks on Wisconsin's tradition of good government are appalling but not surprising. Over the last six years, Governor Walker and legislative republicans have continuously attacked Wisconsin's good government. The proposed changes to the Judicial Commission and the cut to the Elections Commission further their assault.

Republican Attacks on Women's Health Care Access

Republicans are once again proposing to take away women's access to reproductive healthcare. Representative Andre Jacque (R- DePere) and Senator David Craig (R- Big Bend) have introduced legislation that would prohibit the group insurance board from contracting for or providing abortion services, eliminating this existing women's health care coverage for public employees. The proposal is yet another example of government – and in this case, one's employer – interfering with health care decisions that should be made by a woman and her doctor.

Visiting the Capitol

Whether you are planning a visit to the state Capitol as part of a large group, small gathering, or just by yourself, our office can assist you in scheduling a free guided tour of the Capitol building during normal business hours.

Free tours are offered daily, year round. Tours depart from the ground floor Information Desk Monday through Saturday at 9:00, 10:00, 11:00 am and 1:00, 2:00, 3:00 pm; and Sundays at 1:00, 2:00, 3:00 pm. A 4:00 pm tour is offered Memorial Day through Labor Day. The sixth floor museum and observation deck are also open during the summer months.

Primary Election Day is February 21

The Spring Primary Election will be held next Tuesday, February 21. Voters will go to the polls on this day to vote in local elections like City Council and School Board, as well as the statewide office of Superintendent of Schools. Offices with more than 2 candidates running will have a Primary that day, and the top 2 vote getters advance to the general election in April. What local offices appear on your ballot on February 21 depend on exactly where you live, and you may

My office has received the new 2017-2018 official state highway maps. If you would like one, please feel free to stop by my office, call, or email your request. If you can't get to our office to pick yours up, we are happy to mail maps to you.

Fun Wisconsin Fact

In honor of Black History Month, all of February's fun facts will be about African American contributions to Wisconsin's history.

Vel Phillips has been a pioneer for African Americans and women in politics. She is best known for being the first woman elected as Wisconsin Secretary of State in 1978 and the first African-American woman in the nation elected to a statewide office. Vel was also the first African-American woman to graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison Law School in 1951. In 1971, she became the first African American judge in Wisconsin. She was also the first African American elected to the National Committee of either of the two major political parties. Vel is a passionate and active Democrat and has worked tirelessly for civil rights throughout her career.

In 2015, Wisconsin Public Television aired the documentary "Vel Phillips: Dream Big Dreams" which tells the story of civil rights leader Vel Phillips. Click here to watch the documentary.

Hi Tom.

I'm sorry, but that's a broad generalization that indicates a lack of homework, even deception. It reminds me of Sarah Palin saying, "I read all of them, any of them that have been in front of me ..." when asked to specify which newspapers she reads. Are you saying no one presented a comparison of magazine's editorial missions for the governor's office to review, or even a list of state-specific magazines that might have some overlap with WNR?

Also, were patron-license holders asking to opt out of the $8.95 subscription price to reduce the cost of their license?

Regarding the DNR's mission, it's good to know that it hasn't changed. Maybe I'm asking the wrong question. Is it no longer important for the DNR to inform the public of its efforts/programs to carry out that mission?

Tom, I hate to be a pest, but these are legitimate, obvious, common-sense questions that deserve an explanation.

Sincerely,
Pat D.

Ceasing to publish this magazine will reduce FTE's by 2 and save $136,200 in FY18 and $544,800 in FY19. The savings unrelated to the FTE's would be passed onto conservation patron license holders through a reduction in the fee by $8.95 per license. The savings to license purchasers equates to roughly $75,000 in FY18 and $300,000 in FY19. The lower amount in FY18 is due to the delayed elimination date of spring 2018.

Hi Tom.

I'm an outdoor writer based in Waupaca, with columns in the Wisconsin State Journal, USA Today's Wisconsin Network, and several other state newspapers.

I'm working on a piece regarding Gov. Walker's budget proposal to eliminate the DNR's Wisconsin Natural Resources magazine by Feb. 2018. I read that a rationale for its elimination is that other Wisconsin-based magazines cover the same topics as WNR.

I'm hoping you'd have time to discuss this by phone. If not, please email me the names of the private sector's magazines you're referring to.

Also, I'm hoping you can elaborate a bit and define the DNR's core mission and how it's changed the past six years.

I'm available all day today. If you'd like me to call at a specific time, please send me the best number to reach you. Otherwise, feel free to call my number below at your convenience.

Pat,

The rationale for eliminating the magazine is that it's not part of our core work in carrying out the DNR's mission, which, by the way, hasn't changed and will not change. What we are doing is changing the way we carry out that mission by focusing on the core work we need to do in order to accomplish the mission of protecting and enhancing our natural resources more efficiently and effectively.

After a thorough core work analysis and alignment study, which I believe you know about, we found that we are stewards of the state's resources-not magazine publishers.

The document you requested regarding our core mission, which as I mentioned hasn't changed, can be found on our website:

Natural Resources Magazine. Jim Dick handled. Two outlets asked for DNR comment after we were accused of trying to cease publication of the magazine to avoid publishing “controversial stories.” That accusation has no merit. The decision was prompted by core analysis work during the alignment process in which publishing a magazine did not seem to be a priority in carrying out the agency’s mission of protecting and enhancing our natural resources. We are stewards of the resources, not magazine publishers.

Snowmobile accident, Vilas County. Brian Jopeck, Lakeland Times. Timothy Ebert handled.

Information provided was the victim’s name, age, location, and that the victim struck a tree and was transported for medical treatment.

Vehicle through ice, Sawyer Harbor. Samantha Hernandez, Door County Advocate.

Christopher Kratcha handled. Warden Kratcha explained the partially submerged vehicle had been removed the morning of 02-13-2017, and the operator had 30 days to remove the vehicle per Statute, therefore there were no citations issued. Warden Kratcha explained nearly every year a vehicle breaks through in Sawyer Harbor due to the rock reefs, current, melting ice, and shore run-off. Warden Kratcha stated ice fishermen need to be cautious as the warm weather arrives, and reconsider driving vehicles on the ice due to ice deterioration near shore and off shore.

Vehicle through ice, Green Bay. CBS 5, Green Bay. Darren Kuhn handled. The interview consisted of standard ice safety message, precautions that can be taken when driving vehicles on the ice and general personal protection equipment available for travelling on the ice.

Patron’s License holder study. Steve Verburg, Wisconsin State Journal. Jordan Petchenik handled. Jordan provided a copy of the study to Steve.

WPDES permit holders and wastewater plants. Scott Gordon, Wisconsin Public Radio.

Jennifer Sereno handled. Wisconsin currently has 642 total municipal treatment plants.

Steve,

The rationale to cease publication of the Wisconsin Natural Resources Magazine had nothing to do with so-called controversial stories. The decision was based on our core-work analysis conducted during the department-wide alignment process which is now being implemented. While the magazine is self-sustaining through subscriptions, and is apparently popular among the subscribers, it doesn't meet the definition of core work necessary to the DNR's mission of protecting and enhancing our natural resources. If the budget recommendation remains intact during the budget process, it would also mean DNR employees who often took time to research and write the stories needed to fill the pages, could focus on their own core-work duties. Information included in the magazine can be found in other sources. We are stewards of the resources, not magazine publishers.

The Conservation Patron license fee would be reduced by the cost of the subscription. Some apparently claim there is an anti-science, anti-environmental education agenda to this decision. We would point to several stories in the last few issues alone that have to deal with some sort of science, environment or environmental education topics.

In addition to my previous questions:

Was the magazine identified in the alignment process as being outside DNR's core mission? Was education so identified?

Can you tell me if you have different numbers from these I found on the DNR website or obtained from former employees:

About 40,000 people buy conservation patrol licenses for $165, and $6 from each license goes to the magazine.

About 48,000 individual subscribers pay $8.97 annually for six issues.

Jim,

I'm working on deadline on an article about the Natural Resources magazine. Natasha Kassulke says after Sec. Stepp was appointed articles on critical issues related to climate change and endangered species were spiked and everything was more heavily vetted by DLT.

She says this is part of a growing anti-science agenda and a growing vacuum of environmental information and education on research and informing the public on these matters, including what they can do to be involved in environmental issues.

Was Secretary Stepp unhappy with, or did she hear complaints about, the 2013 Nelson Institute insert in the magazine?

Were there complaints from the reporter at the Lakeland newspaper? Is there less interest in educating the public? I note that the educators and naturalists were cut from the state parks budget and needed to be funded by friends groups.

Can you respond to Natasha Kassulke's statements?

Thanks,

Steve Verburg

Hi Tom,

I am writing a story about an item in the budget to kill the Wisconsin Natural Resources magazine. Former editors and other say the magazine was self-supporting. The budget item says it will 'save' $300,000 in fiscal 2018-19 and two FTE SEG positions. Those two positions are not currently filled.

If the magazine supports itself with subscription revenue, what is the rationale eliminating it?

I have also contacted the DNR. I am trying to finish the story by the end of the day.

Thanks, Tom.

Can you point to the publications whose efforts are duplicated by the DNR magazine?

The DNR has considered public education about what it does -- and the science behind what it does -- to be part of its mission and its ability to be effective by enlisting citizens to do what they can for the environment. That's no longer part of the core mission?

Is there a way it burdens the DNR to operate a self-supporting enterprise that is outside its core mission?

Steve --

"A former editor says cutting a self-supporting magazine only makes sense if it's part of an anti-science, anti-environment agenda."

That's a ridiculous claim. The DNR is realigning to become more efficient and effective. This magazine is not a part of the DNR's core mission. It is not the government's role to produce magazines that duplicate what is available in the private market.

Hi Tom,

I'm writing on deadline about the proposed cut of the DNR magazine. I'm told the magazine was identified as one of the most popular features of the conservation patron license and that it has 88,000 subscribers. A former editor says cutting a self-supporting magazine only makes sense if it's part of an anti-science, anti-environment agenda. She also talks about articles on climate science and endangered species being spiked since Gov. Walker was elected. (I've asked DNR about that.)

Can you respond?

Thanks,

Steve Verburg

Thank you, Tom, but to be clear, the state is not saving $300,000 or two full-time positions, right? Thanks again for the quick response, Lee

Hi Tom,

I am writing a story about an item in the budget to kill the Wisconsin Natural Resources magazine. Former editors and other say the magazine was self-supporting. The budget item says it will 'save' $300,000 in fiscal 2018-19 and two FTE SEG positions. Those two positions are not currently filled.

If the magazine supports itself with subscription revenue, what is the rationale eliminating it? I have also contacted the DNR. I am trying to finish the story by the end of the day.

Thanks,

Lee

We are starting to get a few emails from citizens (and at least one reporter-Journal Sentinel) asking about the Natural Resources Magazine and the reasoning behind the budget recommendation to stop publishing.

We drafted a template response (attached) aimed at the public inquiries but can be used as talking points with media. Thoughts?

Dear

Thank you for your email and your interest in the Wisconsin Natural Resources magazine.

The magazine has had a great run since it was first published as the Wisconsin Conservationist nearly a hundred years ago. The magazine had and still has a loyal following who have enjoyed reading stories that encourage them to participate in outdoor activities, appreciate a healthy outdoor environment and contribute to its welfare.

The Wisconsin DNR recently conducted a yearlong internal study of the work we do and prioritized those functions that support our core mission of protecting and enhancing our state's natural resources for all. We are in the process of implementing a plan department wide that will align both our financial and human resources with the core work necessary to carry out our mission more effectively and efficiently.

After completing that core work analysis, it became clear that we at the Wisconsin DNR are stewards of our resources not magazine publishers. It takes a good deal of behind-the-scenes work to publish and distribute the six Natural Resources magazine every year. We feel that time and effort can be more effectively utilized by focusing on communication tools that are more immediate in this digital age and have the potential of spreading the word of DNR's mission and work to a larger audience.

The budget process is not over. The legislature still has it's say before a final budget bill reaches the Governor's desk, usually sometime in June. If the recommendation stays intact, the final edition would be February 2018.

As we said, it's been a great run and we sincerely thank our subscribers and readership for their support over the years. We realize the magazine will be missed by many but just as other great magazines of their time, such as Life and Look, gracefully published their final edition, so will the Wisconsin Natural Resources magazine.

Thank you.
