Hey, my phone is too messed up to use at this point. I was trying to say, of all the days to wear a skirt and bright yellow heels...they tell me about a plane crash that happened around 7pm and I thought no biggie, they probably won't call it in until the morning...they called us at 8:30. I went downstairs to my locker to get my uniform...there was no uniform, apparently the last time I had to wear it I never brought it back. Luckily Melanie had some pants in her drawer and miraculously they fit. I just wore the shirt I had on, but since I'm so incredibly buff, the seam ripped on the sleeve while I was at the scene.

Anyway, it was a "vintage" WWII plane. It had just refueled and took off, they suspect loss of power.

Went to Circle K on my way back...they asked where we've been...lol

Hey Mike,

I hope you had an awesome trip!

Where would be the best place for me to leave your fan? Do you want me to leave it for you at the front desk at 601 or do you want to let me know when you plan to pick up evidence and I can leave it with our admitting staff?

Let me know.
