PROCEEDINGS: 2016TR [REDACTED]
2017CT [REDACTED]

DATE: March 14, 2017

BEFORE: The Honorable Judge WILLIAM E. HANRAHAN

APPEARANCES: The State of Wisconsin appeared by Assistant District
Attorney WILLIAM L. BROWN; Madison, Wisconsin.
Defendant [REDACTED] appeared in person and with
Attorney CHARLES K. KENYON JR.; 5555 Odana Road, Suite 101;
Madison, Wisconsin 53719.

PATRICK A. WEISHAN, RPR

1 THE COURT: All right. So there was not any
2 physical evidence or videotapes or anything to corroborate the
3 testimony?

4 ATTORNEY KENYON: There was not. As a matter of
5 fact, we were going to use the videotape in our motion to
6 suppress. The reason for the stop was a faulty brake light, and
7 there was no faulty brake light shown on the video, and my
8 client took pictures and had it checked out.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 ATTORNEY BROWN: And I'll add to that that that's
11 correct, that there's not sufficient-- I mean, to the extent
12 there is any physical evidence here, it wouldn't be sufficient
13 for me to prove this case beyond a reasonable doubt.

14 THE COURT: All right. And, the evidence of the 15 inconsistency here between the officer's report and the physical
16 evidence of the videotape, I'm sure you're going to turn that 17 over to the powers that are potentially investigating.

18 ATTORNEY BROWN: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Yeah. Okay. Upon those
20 representations, I find that the State has acted honorably and
21 consistent with its obligations to dismiss this matter, and I do
22 grant that request.

23 ATTORNEY KENYON: Thank you.
