The USM and CDUSM spoke to Judge Donnelly regarding the order that she issued on Saturday and specifically what expectation she has for the USMS to enforce it. She stated that someone told her that it's a good idea to include the USMS language. She does not expect us to take any action.

USMS Statement:

"The U.S. Marshals Service will take steps to comply with all federal judicial orders while working with our Executive Branch partners who are implementing the President's executive orders. The U.S. Marshals Service has a unique mission as the enforcement arm of the federal courts, among other important missions such as fugitive investigations, protection of the federal judiciary, and providing safe, humane care of federal prisoners throughout the judicial process."
