Under penalty of perjury, I, the undersigned Complainant swear or affirm that I have reason to believe that the Accused committed a criminal offense, on or about

8/12/17

in the [ ] City [ ] County [ ] Town

DATE OFFENSE OCCURRED

I base my belief on the following facts: (Print ALL information clearly.)

This man came up and started yelling at me to stop recording. I showed him my press credentials (I'm a reporter) and he started screaming at me. Then he came up behind me, punched me in the face. I fell forward. He knocked the phone from my hand and threw me to the ground. I called for police to help. People were injured, but I still don't want him to get away with pushing me then leaving. He kept threatening me saying he would "beat my ass". Then he said his "bitch" would beat my ass. I was so scared. This man is dangerous.

The statements above are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.

In making this complaint, I have read and fully understand the following:

- By swearing to these facts, I agree to appear in court and testify if a warrant or summons is issued.
The charge in this warrant cannot be dismissed except by the court, even at my request.

v.

Smith, Jacob Leigh

DEFENDANT - NAME (LAST, FIRST, MIDDLE)

[ ] .....

BOND SECURED WITH CASH:

1. According to the provisions of § 58.1-535, if the person who posted the cash bond (which means the defendant or any other person who posted the cash bond for him or her), owes any debts to the court where the bond is posted and has not made provision to otherwise satisfy that debt, the cash bond or any balance remaining after payment of fines and costs, may be claimed by the court under the Virginia Setoff Debt Collection Act. Written notice will be given to the person who posted the cash bond that it will be taken to pay debts to the court and the person may contest that action in a hearing before a hearing officer.
2. If the defendant appears and obeys all of the conditions of the Recognizance and is convicted, according to the provisions of Virginia Code § 19.2-121, the court may not take the fines and costs out of the cash bond posted unless the defendant, if he or she posted the cash bond, or the person who posted the cash bond for the defendant, agrees to let the court do so.

I have posted the cash bond. I agree to let the court take the fines and costs out of the cash bond.

DEFENDANT

3. If the defendant fails to come to court on the date and time listed in this document, or on any other dates, times or places which any court or judge may set, the defendant gives up any right to notice of any proceeding to forfeit (collect on) the bond, and the court may forfeit the bond without notifying the defendant. The defendant also agrees that any notice of a proceeding to forfeit the bond does not renew a right to such notice. If the court does contact the defendant about a hearing to forfeit the bond, the court does not have to notify the defendant again if the bond is forfeited at the first hearing.
4. If the defendant posted a cash bond and does not come to court and is convicted, the court must take the fines and costs out of the cash bond posted. The court also must forfeit any of the cash bond left over without notifying the defendant. If the court grants a rehearing and finds that good cause has been shown, the court may remit any amount of the cash bond not applied to fines or costs and order a refund by the State Treasurer, or by the treasurer or director of finance of the locality if the bond was collected by a locality pursuant to § 19.2-136. This means that if the court decides that there is a good reason to do so, the defendant may get back that part of a cash bond not used to pay fines and costs.
5. If the defendant posted a cash bond and does not come to court and the court does not try the defendant in his or her absence, the court must forfeit the entire bond at once and without notice. If the defendant appears in court within 60 days after the court forfeits the bond, the court may order a refund of all or part of the cash bond by the State Treasurer, or by the treasurer or director of finance of the locality if the bond was collected by a locality pursuant to § 19.2-136.
6. Once the court has made a decision on all the cases covered by this bond, the person who posted the cash bond should contact the clerk's office concerning a refund. If the court convicted the defendant and if the person who posted the cash agreed to allow the court to subtract all fines and costs from the bond, there may not be a refund.
