

TPs for Trump Conversation

My role

1. I am not looking for a paid job; but the role would be established inside of the Trump for President campaign.
2. ROLE - Trump campaign National Convention Manager
3. Position me as coming into the Trump campaign as "your guy" with a specific expertise that few have
4. In this role , responsibilities typically include
  - a. Oversee the interests of the Trump Campaign in organizing the both the official program and the political organizations of the National Convention.
  - b. Organize the mechanisms to manage the interactions between the RNC and officials of the Republican Party and ensure that the National Convention is organized into a Trump controlled convention.
  - c. Organize the Delegate Co-ordination and Communication operations leading up to the Convention
  - d. Manage the interaction between the various convention committees, most importantly the Rules, Platform and Convention Program committees
  - e. Organize the media presentation at the convention – linking Positive messaging, Trump political image, and anti- Democrat messages, especially as they relate to the podium program, floor operations and off site events in Cleveland.
5. I have served in this role
  - a. 1996 – Convention Manager for Dole for President
  - b. 1988 – Convention Manager for Bush for President
  - c. 1984 - Convention Deputy Manager for RR Re-election (actually performed all of the roles of Convention Manager)
  - d. 1976 - Floor leader and Delegate Co-ordinator, Ford for President
6. in these roles, I have had to confront the Extreme Right, Tea Party, Rush Limbaughs etc to manage conventions for Bush the father, Dole, McCain.
7. Over the last 20 years, I have managed Presidential campaigns around the world but have not been active in any US Presidential campaign since 1996. I can channel my strategic skills, tactical abilities and knowledge of modern political campaign tools into the demands of this specific convention job but also will be available, if desired, to apply these skills in helping to shape a national campaign working for the team that Trump has organized.

Not a Part of the Political establishment

1. I have not been a part of the Washington establishment since I de-registered as a lobbyist in 1998.
2. I have had no client relationships dealing with Washington since around 2005.
3. I have avoided the political establishment in Washington since 2005.
4. I have not been partner with Roger Stone or Charlie Black since we sold Black, Manafort, Stone and Kelly in 1992.

5. At the same time, I am familiar with the players today and the way in which all matters work regarding the transition of the campaign of a Presumptive Presidential Nominee with official Washington.
6. I have not been active or passive in any of the current Presidential campaigns, and have been promoting Trump for President in my communications with media and business leaders I know,
7. My blood enemy in politics, going back to College in the 1960s, is Karl Rove.

Political activity

1. Background provides me with the experience, knowledge and skills to deal with the upcoming issues Trump will confront as the presumptive nominee in dealing with the convention and the transition of the RNC into a Trump for President structure. At the same time I will not bring Washington baggage.
2. Since I have not been active in the Washington political scene for over 10 years and really closer to 15 years, there will be no surprises about Trump capitulating to the Washington establishment by bringing me on board.

Trump Links – non political

1. I live in Trump Tower on 5th Ave – 43G
2. When Black Manafort and Stone worked for Trump, I managed the Mar a Largo FAA problem Trump had. Kathleen Casey was as my link to Trump.
