RE: Notice of Resignation

Please accept my notice of resignation from my current position of Business Planning Director for the Oklahoma State Department of Health (OSDH) effective close of business October 30, 2017.

I have been privileged to work for you and with you in my many roles at OSDH. I take with me the knowledge and expertise in public health and state government that you have graciously bestowed upon me over the years. Your unwavering devotion to Oklahoma, your passion for public health and all citizens of Oklahoma has been unwavering. In my 36 year career, you are the most dedicated employee that I have had the extremely pleasure to work for and with and I wish you all the best.
