DEFENDANT

Comes the Commonwealth of Kentucky by Counsel, Julie Brown, Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney for the 30th Judicial District of Kentucky, and moves this Court to pass the above styled action for a period of six months to allow the defendant to complete his participation in the Diversion Program. In support of said Motion, the Commonwealth states as follows:

Danny Johnson is a twenty-five year old client who has participated in the Diversion Program for the past six months. He has abided by the conditions of the program by visiting his Diversion Counselor as required and doing volunteer work for the community. There have been no criminal proceedings against Mr. Johnson since he has been in the Diversion Program.

MOTION TO DISMISS

* * * * * * * * *

Comes the Commonwealth of Kentucky by Susan L. Schultz, Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney for the 30th Judicial District of Kentucky, and moves this Court to dismiss the above styled action; and in support of said motion states as follows:

(1) The above named Defendant is charged with Criminal Attempt, Arson II, and Complicity.

(2) On advice of Counsel the Defendant applied for and was accepted into the Commonwealth's Attorney's Diversion Program.

(3) The Defendant has fulfilled the Diversion Program obligations by maintaining regular attendance with program personnel and completing community volunteer work. As required, the Defendant has also met restitution obligations and received psychological evaluation/counseling.

(4) The case is now before the Court with the recommendation that the case against the Defendant be dismissed. The Defendant has complied with all the provisions required by the Commonwealth's Attorney's Diversion Program. A promise of the program is that successful participant's will have the charges placed against them dismissed.

Therefore, based upon the reasons and grounds enumerated above, the Commonwealth now moves this Honorable Court to dismiss the above styled action.
