

2/8/18 11:00 am

Mrs. Zamora and [redacted] are in a relationship.
- How do you know?

He doesn't do any work and gets straight A's.

They meet up outside of school.
- proof?

- No but a lot of kids talk about it.

[redacted]

2/8/18 11:15 am.

Sometimes teachers favor certain students.

It is going around the school that they have a relationship but I feel that Mrs. Zamora wouldn't do that.

Class craft is our behavior

She sends direct messages on Instagram.
- School Instagram account.

They shouldn't be spreading rumors like that about a teacher.

Went to a singing competition for said Mrs. Zamora and one are dating. My mom told her it's a rumor.

She needs to act a bit more professional with . Students think it's unfair. He gets warnings and is let off the hook. Other students get detentions right away.

2/8/18 11:20am

is sometimes all up in her business.

He bullies, so I think she tries to keep him away from other kids.

It is a way to keep the other kids safe from harmful words.

His friend said okay, you don't have to be so salty about it.

They target specific people during quiet time.

I've heard other kids in my class say that they think they are dating. I don't think that because I know Mrs. Zamora and I know she wouldn't do that.

Never heard them talk about communicating w/ each other or talking outside of school.

2/8/18 11:35am

Not an inappropriate relationship but he definitely gets special treatment.

She will communicate the expectations.
He refuses to follow them. She doesn't do anything.

He sits at her desk. Most of recess they spend talking to each other.

I've heard them talk about communicating through class craft.

History of communication. Green check mark
if they read.

Never been around each other outside of school.

Everyone talks about them having an inappropriate relationship outside of class and at recess.

It has nothing to do with her it's
The problem is that pushes the boundaries and Mrs. Zamora doesn't do anything about it.