According to our information, Mrs. Helge was expelled from Turkey during the latter part of 1940 or the beginning of 1941 and sailed from Bombay on April 26, 1941, aboard the President Grant bound for the United States. (S)

ESPIONAGE (R)

With reference to your letter dated August 31, 1942, subject's name and aliases are being placed on the censorship watch list, as well as Mr. Serra Moura and Carmencita Gutirres.

The Bureau files reflect that on August 14, 1942, a cable was directed to Serra Moura, Avenida da Liberdade 16, Lisbon, Portugal, by Jojoeva Hilton. The cable read:

"GOT LETTERS EVERYTHING WONDERFUL NEVER HAPPIER ONLY MISS YOU TAKE CARE ADORE YOU KISSES LOVE".

This cable is apparently from the subject to Moura and it is believed that this cable bears Moura's correct address. (62-62736-3-2296)

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter of February 10, 1943, and particularly to the request contained therein that certain names set forth be placed on the Censorship Watch List and that back traffic, if any, on these names be secured.

Because of the Bureau's present policy, which is not to place names on the Watch List, this request is not being complied with. If, however, you believe that any or all of these names should be considered for Watch List coverage in the event the Bureau in the future resumes submitting names to Censorship, it is suggested that the names be resubmitted in accordance with the instructions set forth in Section E of Bureau Bulletin Number 16, Second Series of 1943, dated March 31, 1943. These instructions should also be followed in the event you wish to resubmit any of the names set forth for the purpose of securing back traffic.

DETAILS:

This investigation is predicated upon information received from Confidential Informant A on August 6, 12, 14 and 19, 1942. This information follows immediately hereafter.

SARI GABOR HILTON, a 23 or 24 year old Hungarian alien, married C. N. HILTON, 10730 Bellagio Road, Bel-Air, California, approximately three months prior to August 6, 1942. This marriage to Mr. HILTON, who is head of the Hilton Hotel system, occurred only a short time after she had entered the United States. SARI HILTON was formerly married to BURHAM BELGE, a Turkish prince, who in May 1939 was attached to the Turkish Foreign Office in England as minister of propaganda in the Foreign Press Section. London, England newspapers and articles of which Informant A had personal knowledge, indicated that on two occasions SARI HILTON had danced with ADOLPH HITLER. The date on which these dances are supposed to have taken place and identifying data as to the particular newspapers carrying the articles, could not be furnished by informant. SARI HILTON has acknowledged that her family is in Hungary and is in satisfactory condition, but further than this she has not indicated so far as informant's knowledge is concerned, the nature of her feelings toward the HITLER regime. SARI HILTON'S sister is EVA GABOR, a Hungarian film star who came to the United States within the past year or two. EVA GABOR'S married name is Mrs. EVA DRITTER and her present address is 9949 Durant, Beverly Hills, California. EVA GABOR had lived at 17 A South Canon Drive, Beverly Hills, California in June 1941.

SARI HILTON had a personal checking account with a $3000 balance at the Melrose Irving branch of the Bank of America, according to informant who professed knowledge of records of transactions indicating that SARI HILTON had had bank accounts at a bank in Budapest, Hungary and the Barclay Bank, Paris, France.

SARI HILTON uses diathermy equipment each morning at approximately 9:00 A.M. and at the same time makes various telephone calls, all of which are conducted in the Hungarian language. The use of the diathermy machine, which she rents from a man named GEISNER was deemed to be suspicious in view of the youthfulness of SARI HILTON and her apparent good health. Informant, however, had not observed any attempt to transmit short wave messages with the diathermic equipment which is a "Merit" machine. According to information received by informant, C. N. HILTON had requested SARI HILTON on several occasions to dispose of the diathermy equipment but she refused to do so.

Among the persons to whom SARI HILTON makes frequent telephone calls, the informant listed a Mr. SALZER, CR 6-9012 and a Mr. TALKAZON, HE 5541. DICK SULLIVAN, HE 5541 was also said to be a close friend of SARI HILTON vised that SARI HILTON spent the night of September 5, 1942, with an unknown naval officer, her husband apparently being away from Los Angeles at that time. Informant A further stated that subject's sister, EVA GABOR, had been dating Major CLIFF HENDERSON who the informant believed to be in the Ferry Command, within recent weeks.

By letter dated August 31, 1942, the names and addresses of SARI HILTON, Mr. SERRA MOURA and CARMENCITA GUTIRREZ were placed on the censorship watch list at Washington, D. C.

Also by letter dated August 31, 1942, a mail cover was placed upon the mail of subject.

On September 1, 1942, Confidential Informant D advised that SARI HILTON, 8463 Fountain Avenue, had opened an account at the Irving and Melrose branch, Bank of America, on January 13, 1942, with a deposit of $100. There were no large deposits in this account from January 13 to May 6, 1942. On May 6, 1942, a deposit of $600 was made consisting of $100 in cash and $500 check drawn on the Bank of America, California-Montgomery branch, San Francisco, California. On May 13, 1942, a check for $2450 drawn on the same bank was deposited. Both of these checks were drawn on the account of C. N. HILTON. The balance in this account as of June 10, 1942, was $1,014.65. On this date the account was transferred to the Westwood branch of the Bank of America.

On September 4, 1942, Confidential Informant E advised that the account of SARI HILTON at the Westwood branch, Bank of America, had a balance of $331.62. He advised that deposits to this account were checks from her husband's account in San Francisco. At that time no inquiry was made to determine the payees of checks drawn on the account of SARI HILTON and a lead for that purpose is being set out.

Special Agent ALLEN H. MERRILL reviewed file No. 11042/567 of the Immigration & Naturalization Service, Los Angeles on September 15, 1942. This file contained allegations of SARI HILTON in an interview with Inspector JOSEPH E. KEEGAN on June 25, 1942. The purpose of this interview was to determine whether SARI HILTON would be granted an extension of temporary stay in the United States. She had received one extension which expired on June 3, 1942. It was the recommendation of Inspector KEEGAN that the extension be denied because SARI HILTON had expressed an intention of becoming a naturalized citizen and that therefore she could no longer be classified as a bonafide non-immigrant. The transcript of the interview, together with the recommendation were forwarded to the District Director, Immigration & Naturalization Service, New York City and as of September 15, 1942, no decision had yet been reached.

According to the immigration file, SARI HILTON she was born on February 6, 1917 in Budapest, Hungary, and was of the Magyar race, and not Jewish. Her maiden name was SARI GABOR. Her father, GABOR, Rakoczi Road 6, Budapest, Hungary, is sixty-one years of age, owner of two retail jewelry stores. He was a Captain in the Hungarian Army during World War I. Her mother is GANKA HELLMANN, Kigyo, Utca 4/6 Budapest.

also owns several jewelry stores. Her mother and her father, who are both Hungarian, are divorced but might re-marry according to the belief of SARI HILTON.

SARI HILTON'S first husband was BURHJ BELGE who was born February 1, 1898 at Jaffa which at that time was Turkey and at the present time is Syria. She married BELGE at Budapest on May 17, 1935, and divorced him on grounds of incompatibility on December 10, 1941 at Ankara, Turkey. BELGE was always a citizen of Turkey and now resides in Ankara. According to SARI HILTON, his occupation is that of Minister of Foreign Affairs and Chief of Propaganda in Turkey. He is now re-married.

SARI HILTON married her present husband, CONRAD NICHOLSON HILTON on April 10, 1942, at Santa Fe, New Mexico. He is a United States citizen, having been born fifty-four years previously on December 24 at Socorro, New Mexico. His occupation is that of owner of the Hilton Hotels which number about fifteen including the Town House in Los Angeles.

SARI HILTON advised that she was a Hungarian citizen until the time of her first marriage when she became a citizen of Turkey. She possesses a certificate of nationality issued to SARA BELGE by the Consul General of Turkey in New York City. It is dated June 4, 1942.

SARI HILTON entered the United States at New York City on June 3, 1941 as a six months visitor to her sister, EVA DRIPPER, 107 Canon Drive, Beverly Hills, California. This address is apparently meant to be identical with a former address of Mrs. DRIPPER set out above, namely, 17A South Canyon Drive. Her trip from Budapest to New York consumed four months and followed this itinerary: Budapest to Bagdad via Turkey and Syria, Bagdad to Bombay by plane, Bombay to New York via Capetown and Trinidad on an American boat. SARI HILTON originally obtained her visa for this trip from the American Consulate at Constantinople, however, it expired while she was visiting her mother in Turkey, thereafter the American Consul at Budapest contacted the American Consul at Constantinople and had the visa renewed.

SARI HILTON has two sisters and no brothers, one sister is EVA GABOR who obtained a divorce from Dr. ERIC DRIPPER and now uses her maiden name. She was born in Budapest in 1919, has no children and lives alone at 11001 Ophir Drive, Westwood, California. She was admitted to the United States from England for permanent residence in 1939. She is Swedish by marriage but has petitioned for United States citizenship. She is a movie actress employed at Paramount Studios.

SARI HILTON'S other sister is MAGDA BICHOWSKY who was born in Budapest in 1915. She is a Polish citizen by virtue of marriage.

SARI HILTON claims to have no other relatives in the United States and to have a grandmother, aunts and uncles, and seven cousins all married and living in Hungary with their families.

SARI HILTON furnished the following residences as all of the addresses which she has had in the United States: 107 Canon Drive, Beverly Hills from July 1941 until about January 1942; 8463 Fountain Avenue, Hollywood, California from January 1942 until April 10, 1942; and 10730 Bellagio Road, Bel-Air, Los Angeles since April 10, 1942.

SARI HILTON advised, according to the immigration and naturalization file that she had resided in Budapest until she was thirteen years of age; that she then lived in Switzerland for two years where she attended school; that she thereafter lived in Vienna for seven months and finally in Turkey for five years. She claimed to have traveled all over Europe with her first husband but to have been in Germany only once, this occasion being in route to Paris aboard a train which did not stop. Concerning her employment she advised that she was on the stage in Vienna for four months when she was sixteen years of age and that she is now engaged in writing a travel book about Europe.

SARI HILTON listed the following assets as being held in her own name: (1) About $2000 in two accounts, a savings account and a commercial account, Bank of America, Westwood branch; (2) diamonds valued at $15,000; (3) fur coats valued at $10,000; (4) 1942 Chrysler automobile.

In the course of the interview by Inspector KEEGAN, SARI HILTON was asked whether or not she detested Germany. To this question she replied, "I could shoot every one of them. My whole book is against them and what I saw in Europe. I don't want to say too much. My parents are over there and you can't be too careful. It is all in my book." To the question of why she detested Germany, she replied, "Because they are not human beings". "They are wild animals. They are not normal." In answer to the question of whether or not she had ever had contact with German government officials she stated: "Never. I meet some of the diplomats. My ex-husband is the man who fights Germany the most. They hate him and hate me too because of him. He has a broadcast every Saturday night and ridicules the Germans." In response to a question as to who she wanted to see win the present war, she replied "America. What a question. They will, too. I hope there won't be any more live Germans."

Confidential National Defense Informant furnished the following listings for the telephone numbers set forth in the above list of numbers with which SARI HILTON communicates frequently.

The files of the Retail Merchants Credit Association contained a report dated November 21, 1938 reflecting that HELEN KING'S full name is HELEN WILHELM IN KING, attorney, business address, 357 South Hill Street, Los Angeles and residence address, 1175 South Hayworth Avenue, Los Angeles. Her former business address, where she was located for five years up until 1938, was the Quinby Building, 650 South Grant Avenue, Los Angeles. She claims an income of $250 to $300 a month and states that she has no property or dependents. She banks at the Bank of America, 7th and Spring Streets, Los Angeles. She is unmarried and is between 25 and 30 years of age (1938). The records of the California Bar Association reflect that this individual was born January 13, 1910 at Tacoma, Washington and that she was admitted to the California bar as WILHELM IN HELEN KING on December 8, 1933. Her record with the Bar Association is clear. The files of [redacted] contained information concerning a Mrs. HELEN W. KING as of March 1937. It will be noted that this person is apparently married and therefore is probably not identical with the Miss HELEN KING. Mrs. HELEN W. KING was said to have taken a trip to Japan at the expense of the Japanese government in the summer of 1936 and to be pro-Japanese. The records of this office contained no information concerning this person.

Department of State indicated that as Mrs. SARA GABOR BELGE she had formerly resided at 9949 Durante Drive, Beverly Hills, California, and that she later gave her address as 2055 Grace Avenue, Hollywood, California. As of June 24, 1942, her immigration visa application was under consideration by the State Department. The State Department further advised that its files reflected that subject's husband, CONRAD N. HILTON planned to open a hotel in Chihuahua, Mexico on May 23, 1942, to be known as the Hilton Hotel. It will be noted that the two addresses mentioned in this paragraph were not listed by subject among the addresses furnished by her to the Immigration authorities and stated by her to be her only addresses in the United States. (S) (U)

By letter dated January 5, 1943, the Bureau furnished this office with copies of a censorship submission of a letter dated November 7, 1942, from Mrs. C. N. HILTON and EVA GABOR, the Gotham, 5th Avenue and 55th Street, New York City to JOAQUIM SERRA MOURA, Avenida de Liberdade 16, Lisbon, Portugal. This communication was released by the censorship authorities and was described as containing two letters, four photos and a newspaper illustration from the senders to their mother and relations. The communication also included an enclosure to the mother of SARI HILTON, which enclosure congratulated the mother on her daughters' success and was written in German and signed "SONJA LOEW", 436 Brush Hill Road, Milton, Massachusetts. According to censorship authorities, EVA GABOR and SARI HILTON were anxious to get their mother to the States and inquired if it would be of any use to send an American visa to Lisbon. A note appended by the censorship authorities to this submission states that the letter, which is addressed to JOAQUIM SERRA-MOURA, may be going on to Hungary. The contents of the letters appear quite harmless and only describe the glamour of writers' lives in New York.

By letter dated December 30, 1942, the Bureau advised that it had been learned through cable censorship that the following cable was filed at El Paso, Texas on December 27, 1942: "DA 657 28 CABLE EL PASO TEX 27 NLT SERRA MOURA AVENIDA DE LIBERDADE 16 LISBON (PORTUGAL) DARLINGS WE VERY HAPPY MISSING YOU TERRIBLY VERY HAPPY NEW YEAR GOT LETTER LOVE YOU MILLION KISSES. GOGO EVE HILTON".

By the same letter the Bureau advised concerning CARMENCITA GUTIRREZ, Hotel La Reforma, Merici D.C. Cuba, which name and address was placed on the censorship watch list, as previously indicated in this report, that the Bureau had been advised that there was no such address and that it had also been suggested that the name might be GUTIERREZ. The mail cover placed upon SARI HILTON produced the following results:

He was then employed as a mechanic by Hillcrest Motors, 220 North Canon Drive at a salary of slightly above $40 per week. Concerning PAUL KLEINBERGER, it will be recalled that according to information received from Confidential Informant F he was associated in a partnership with OSKAR SZLZER. The files of [ ] failed to reflect any information concerning KLEINBERGER. A Retail Merchants Credit Association report dated February 28, 1942, indicates that PAUL KLEINBERGER, 1904 Fox Hills Drive, Los Angeles, formerly 30 Boulevard, Marguerita, Paris, France, owned a novelty store at 348 La Cienega Boulevard. It stated that from July 1941 to December 1941 he was in partnership at the same address with ARTHUR L. VINGER which was allegedly dissolved because of "unethical practices" on the part of L. VINGER. According to this report, he formerly owned the Klepa Art Studios, 8760 Sunset Boulevard for a period of one year. In this connection it will be recalled that Informant F advised that OSKAR SZLZER had brought in to the Sunset-Clark branch of the Bank of America, various checks payable to the Klepa Art Studios for deposit and eventually opened an account under that name on December 6, 1942. The Credit Association report further stated that KLEINBERGER claimed to have once been employed with the Osso Film Studios, Paris, France. He is described as thirty-five years of age and single, and it is said that he claims to be born in Hungary. The Credit Association report contains notes dated October 27, 1942 to the effect that possibly KLEINBERGER no longer owns the novelty store at 348 North La Cienega.

This office received information from Confidential Informant G to the effect that PAUL KLEINBERGER had been in correspondence with VIOLET LASKER with whom ANNE MODEST resides. KLEINBERGER is supposed to have assisted MODEST and LASKER in the decoration of his home. ANNE MODEST is the sponsor of "The International House of Friendship," and is presently under investigation by this office in an effort to determine whether or not she is or has been engaged in espionage.

The files of this office indicate that KLEINBERGER was the subject of investigation conducted by this office in January and February of 1942 entitled, PAUL KLEINBERGER, with aliases, Paul Claymont and Paul Claymont, IMPERSONATION; ILLEGAL WEARING OF UNIFORM; INTERNAL SECURITY (H) L. File No. 47-2275. This investigation which did not result in prosecutive action, developed information that, according to A. L. L. VINGER, 853 Westbourne, West Hollywood, California, KLEINBERGER was a member of the California State Guard. LA VINGER stated that KLEINBERGER was a person who was not sincere and patriotic in joining the State Guard but was using his work in that organization as a guise to winning the favor of the immigration authorities. LA VINGER stated that KLEINBERGER is a alien who should be deported and who had dangerous friends, one of which was WILLIAM GYNES, an American of Hungarian birth, who operates a restaurant on Vine Street near Hollywood Boulevard and who also wears a State Guard uniform but has no sympathy for America or for American ideals. LA VINGER was unable to furnish any information concerning un-American activity on the part of KLEINBERGER or GYNES but expressed the belief that they were in sympathy with Germany. It should be noted here that this investigation indicated that LA VINGER and KLEINBERGER had had business dealings which resulted in a dislike for KLEINBERGER on the part of LA VINGER.

In the investigation of KLEINBERGER, information was obtained from the Immigration & Naturalization Service to the effect that KLEINBERGER is an alien and a native citizen of Hungary, that he last entered the United States at the port of San Ysidro on February 19, 1940, at which time he was not admitted by the immigration service; that he was thereafter granted the usual hearing to show cause why he should not be deported from the United States; that an order of deportation was issued directing his deportation to Hungary the privilege being his of departing voluntarily from the United States; and that inasmuch as he has been unable to find any country which would permit him to enter as an alien, he had not departed and the warrant of deportation is still in effect.

Subsequently on February 17, 1942, ARTHUR A. LA VINGER advised that GENE DONOVAN, head of the California State Guard, had advised that KLEINBERGER had been discharged from the National Guard on October 31, 1941. He stated that KLEINBERGER had filed a false application when he joined the Guard. The following is a description of PAUL KLEINBERGER:

Age	39
Height	5' 8" or 5' 10"
Weight	160 lbs.
Build	Solid
Eyes	Blue
Hair	Blonde (growing bald)
Citizenship	Hungarian
Speech	Broken English with Hungarian accent. Speaks German and Hungarian fluently.
Scars & Marks	Black spot on lower lip, possibly a birth mark.

JOHN A. LUND, 3205 North Washington Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia, advised that he sold the above residence a year ago to one H. LESTER FREEMAN, a government employee. He knew little of FREEMAN, and could not state in which government agency FREEMAN was employed.

The records of the Potomac Credit Bureau were checked against the name of FREEMAN with negative results.

At the personnel office of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator, United States Department of Interior, Room 6420 South Interior Building, Washington, D. C., Agent was telephonically advised by Mrs. W. G. EICKS that HOWARD LESTER FREEMAN has been employed by that agency since March 18, 1942. She stated that his application reflected that he was in Bucharest, Rumania from 1935 to 1940 with the "Society Romano-American"; and from 1941 to 1942, he was employed in this country by the Portland Pipe Line Company at Portland, Maine. Agent did not ask for any personal history on FREEMAN as the inquiry was telephonic and merely to verify FREEMAN's employment by the above government agency. A lead is being set out for the Washington Field Office to obtain detailed background information on FREEMAN by reviewing his personnel file at the above government agency. On February 19, 1943, Mr. ROBERT CLARK, 101 West 55th Street, was interviewed and he stated that he did not know the subject or her sister and had never heard of them.

On March 4, 1943, Mr. DANIEL L. ROSE, manager of 400 East 57th Street, New York City, stated upon interview, that ILONKA (spelled Donka in reference report) GARRETT had lived at this address with a Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE D. BURROWS, who moved in October 1, 1942 and left on December 21, 1942 and whose present address is Garden of Allah, Hollywood, California. Mr. ROSE advised that ILONKA GARRETT's present address was 68 W. 58th Street, Park Chambers Hotel, New York, N. Y.

Mr. ROSE further advised that Mr. BURROWS was a Second Vice President of the Guaranty Trust Company at 525 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y. and had been there over twenty years and that he seemed to be a man of good reputation. He further stated that BURROWS was paying alimony to his first wife, named ROSE, and that his present wife's name was GLADYS. Mr. ROSE stated that he did not know ILONKA GARRETT and was unable to furnish any information regarding her.

On the same date, Miss LORETTA DILLON, switchboard operator at 400 East 57th Street, New York City, was interviewed and she advised that Mrs. BURROWS was GLADYS FAYE, formerly a movie actress and that ILONKA GARRETT had also been a movie actress. She stated that GARRETT was always asking for mail from Washington, D. C., which never came. Miss DILLON further advised that GARRETT had two or three women friends who seemed to be frequent visitors, but who were unknown to her. The subject, Mrs. HILTON, was unknown to both Mr. ROSE and Miss DILLON.

On March 4, 1943, the records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York were searched and disclosed the following information regarding GEORGE D. BURROWS and his wife, GLADYS FAY (possibly FAYE), residence at 1408-1-2 Havenhurst Drive, Hollywood, California. Mr. BURROWS is treasurer and financial advisor of Monogram Studios, Sunset Drive, Hollywood, California. Mr. BURROWS is forty-five years of age, married, without dependents. His first wife's name is ROSE, who now lives at 17 Gramercy Park South. His credit record was good except for one suit for rent by the Century Apartments, Inc., 524 Fifth Avenue, regarding rental of an apartment at 25 Central Park West. Mr. LEVINE F. KRAMER, 122 E. 42nd Street, stated that this suit had been settled by payment of $383.34. Mr. BURROWS from 1920 until he resigned, December 16, 1942 was Second Vice President of the Guaranty Trust Company, New York, N. Y., located at 525 Fifth Avenue, where he was well regarded and left a good record.

On March 4, 1943, AUGUSTINE D'ARCY, manager of the Park Chambers Hotel, 68 West 58th Street, New York, N. Y. was interviewed, and he advised that ILONKA GARRETT had been living there since December 4, 1942, having come there from 400 East 57th Street, where she had lived in Apartment 7M. Mr. D'ARCY stated that Mrs. GARRETT seemed to him to be a very suspicious person and that she had constant visitors, that she spoke with a broken foreign accent which he felt was probably Hungarian, that she had very many phone calls and that all in all, he felt that she should not be contacted without first making further investigation regarding her.

On February 10, 1943, the Credit Bureau of Greater New York's records were checked as to the subject and her husband with negative results.

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA:

Inspector GEORGE W. SCALLORN of the Immigration and Naturalization Service furnished Agent with their file, No. 16540/1390, concerning PAUL KLEINBERGER. A review of the file indicated that KLEINBERGER was ordered deported as soon as it was possible for him to proceed to Germany, by reason of the fact that he had illegally entered the United States. There was no indication in the file that he might be pro-Nazi or opposed to the United States' form of government.

Frequent spot surveillances of the activities of SARI HILTON were conducted in the neighborhood of her home at 10730 Bellagio Road, Bel Air, California, and it was observed that a majority of her time was spent shopping in various expensive shops in Beverly Hills, California, and in visiting her sister, EVA GABOR. Subject emphatically denied being expelled from Turkey, of having pro-Nazi sympathies, or being engaged in any subversive activities. She professed to possess no information concerning CARMENCITA GUTIERREZ, FETHI JULYEN, FREDERIC MENDEL, IMRE ROZSA, and SOPHIE BURRAGE, or of having had any correspondence with the above-named individuals. Continuing, MRS. HILTON informed that she has two sisters and no brothers; that her younger sister, EVA GABOR, who is a motion picture actress, came to the United States in 1939; that following her arrival in this country EVA married ERIC DRIMMER, an osteopath located in Los Angeles; that later EVA divorced DRIMMER and is presently married to CHARLES ISAACS, a Los Angeles realtor, who is presently serving in the United States Coast Guard. Subject stated that her older sister, MAGDA "DUCI" BICHOFSKY, referred to as the "red sister" in family circles because of her red hair, is the wife of a Polish Army officer, who has not been heard from for many months and is believed to have been killed. MRS. HILTON stated that she received a cable from MAGDA during July, 1944, at which time the latter was residing at the Palace Hotel in Berne, Switzerland, but at the present time MAGDA is in Lisbon, Portugal, attempting to gain admittance to the United States.

With reference to her background and activities, MRS. HILTON informed that she was educated in Budapest; that later she entered a girls' academy at Lucerne, Switzerland, where she took a general academic course of study from 1932 to 1934 after which she matriculated at a music and art academy in Vienna, where she studied during 1935. Upon returning to Budapest at the termination of her year of study in Vienna, MRS. HILTON stated that her parents had arranged her marriage to BURHAN BELGE, an official of the Turkish Government, who was in charge of Turkish newspaper publicity; that at the time of her marriage which occurred in Budapest on May 17, 1936, she was 17 and her husband was 39 years of age; that following her marriage she and BELGE maintained their residence in Ankara and during their married life travelled rather extensively in Turkey, Hungary, Italy, England, France, and the Balkan Countries, but that she never visited Germany and was never in Germany except on one occasion while enroute to Paris and that on this occasion she never left the train.

Continuing, Subject stated that she and her husband separated at Ankara sometime during February, 1941 as result of the difference in their ages and the fact that so far as she was personally concerned, their marriage had merely been a case of "puppy love," she being too young at the time of her marriage to appreciate what love really was; that shortly after her separation she left Turkey for the United States, travelling to Bombay via Baghdad instead of through Nazi-occupied France, Spain and Portugal. MRS. HILTON emphatically denied that she was ever expelled or forced to leave Turkey. She further stated that as a matter of fact she lived in the Turkish Embassy at Washington, D.C. for a period of time following her arrival in this Country, which in itself would refute the claim that she was in bad standing with the Turkish Government. She emphasized the fact that she was prompted to come to America by the fact that she wanted to see her sister EVA in Hollywood and that she was anxious to live in this Country.

MRS. HILTON also advised that she was in Bombay approximately ten days prior to her departure for the United States on April 26, 1941; that she entered the United States at New York City on June 3, 1941; and that after her arrival in this Country she married CONRAD NICHOLSON HILTON at Santa Fe, New Mexico on April 10, 1942; that MR. HILTON is an American Citizen and is the owner and operator of a chain of hotels, including the Town House in Los Angeles.

With reference to her communications with her family and other individuals residing in foreign countries, Subject advised that she and her family did not know that the use of intermediaries for the purpose of transmitting mail was contrary to censorship regulations and she assured Agents that she would desist from this practice in the future.

Regarding SERRA MOURA, Avenida da Hiberdad, Lisbon, who acted as a mail drop for communications between Subject and her relatives in Budapest, MRS. HILTON advised that MOURA was an old friend of the GABOR family; that she met MOURA in Budapest years ago; that MOURA operates a tennis club in Lisbon; and that while no definite arrangement was ever made with him for the handling of mail, she and her family utilized his services as an intermediary without giving the matter much thought, assuming that such an arrangement was entirely proper. Subject assured Agents that all of her communications through MOURA related to personal and family affairs and never referred in any way to political or military matters. She stated that in December, 1941, she received one cable from Istanbul, Turkey, which advised her that her divorce from BELGE had been consummated. She also stated that on one occasion in 1942 she communicated with LUFTI BUSTAMI, a boy friend whom she met in Baghdad and who was employed as a contractor in Turkey. She readily admitted that while in Baghdad enroute to the United States, she met HOWARD FREEMAN, an American gentleman, who apparently was representing the American Government or some American concern in the East; and that FREEMAN is presently in Washington, D.C. according to reports although she has not heard from him recently. Subject volunteered no further information concerning her alleged affair with this individual.

The following individuals were called to MRS. HILTON's attention and in each instance she denied that she knew the parties or possessed any information concerning them. She also denied that she had ever communicated with them in any way or that she had acted as a mail intermediary for them:

CARMENCITA GUTIRREZ, Hotel La Reforma, Merici, D.C., Cuba
FETHI ULYEN, Wil Monsdaf, Prinzie Genten Str. 75.
FREDERIC MENDEL, c/o International Pork Packers, Sackatoon, Canada
IMRE ROZSA, 307 W. 76th Street, New York City
SOPHIE BURRAGE, 123 E. 53rd Street, New York City

With reference to Corporal L. BORGO, R.N.I.F., Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada, Subject readily admitted that she received mail from BORGO. According to her statement, BORGO was one of five Swedish boys who succeeded in getting out of Sweden in order to join the Canadian Air Force and that she met BORGO while enroute to Baghdad from Turkey. She informed that ILONKA GARRETT is a Hungarian divorcee, who formerly resided in New York City, but who was reportedly living in Hollywood at the present time. According to Subject, MRS. GARRETT was a friend of Subject's family in Budapest.

Concerning "KARGSI" who reportedly delivered eleven letters to Subject's mother in Budapest, Subject advised that "KARGSI" is the Hungarian nickname for CARLOS SAMPAYO CARRIDO, Portuguese Ambassador at Budapest who was an intimate friend of the GABOR family and who apparently transmitted mail for Subject's mother. Subject stated that the word "JOLIE" which is referred to in this connection was the name of the jewelry store which her mother operated in Budapest. She also advised that "PALI" who is also mentioned in her mother's correspondence is a Hungarian boy who was formerly engaged to Subject's sister EVA when the latter resided in Budapest.

With reference to her other acquaintances, MRS. HILTON advised that ALI IPARI and his sister, SHAZI, are Turkish Nationals whom she met casually at a breakfast party in Hollywood and that she knows nothing concerning their background or their activities; that EVAN POTTER is an American playboy around Hollywood and an excellent dancer, who is reportedly employed in one of the local defense plants; and that DIGENHARD WURMBRAND is a "crazy Austrian" who claims to be a Count and who was a friend of POTTER. Subject stated that she has not seen nor heard from WURMBRAND for over a year and she knows nothing concerning his background having made his acquaintance at a Hollywood party which she attended shortly after her arrival in California.

Continuing, MRS. HILTON stated that she is anxious to become an American Citizen and to make her home in this Country; that she has never had any interest or connection with political matters; and that she is definitely anti-Nazi in her sympathies, both personally and because of the fact that she is part Jewish. She stated that she received some unfortunate publicity in the newspapers to the effect that she had been admired by and danced with HITLER. Subject emphatically stated that such statements were false. She further advised that she has never attempted to write a book relating to her "escape from Turkey" or relative to any political matters; that while enroute to the United States and after her arrival in this Country she accumulated material for a "silly" story entitled, "Every Man For Herself," which was recently published in the LIFE STORY Magazine under the pseudonym "ZAZZA;" that VICTORIA

WOLF, a Hollywood writer, collaborated with her in the preparation of this story which was purely fiction based upon experiences which she encountered during her trip to the United States. MRS. HILTON who for the past several months has been confined to her suite in the Beverly Wilshire Hotel as result of a nervous breakdown advised that her parents who were divorced in Budapest affected a reconciliation recently and are presently in Lisbon, Portugal, attempting to secure admission to the United States.

She also stated that she and her sister EVA intended to leave Los Angeles on November 28, 1944 for Washington, D.C. in an effort to secure permission for her father and mother to enter the United States as refugees. In this connection she mentioned that Mr. HOMER CUMMINGS, former Attorney General, is handling her case with the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

RECENT ARRIVAL IN PORTUGAL URGES U.S. RESIDENT TO PROCURE U.S. VISA
FOR HER AND THEIR PARENTS POSSIBLY IN HUNGARY.

Writer informs her two sisters, Zsassikan and Evilein (Ex. see note) that she had arrived in Portugal some two weeks ago with Carlos, "Who has saved our life" after much difficulty and many horrible events which she will relate to addressee in person. She adds that she had good news of "our dear little Nyuki and papa". They are staying on at the Legation where writer took them on March 19th. Since it was impossible to come together writer states that she is alone, awaiting her American Visa which as yet has not arrived. She adds: (Quoting translation):

"Zsassikam, Evilein you are so intelligent, you must do everything in your power immediately so that I may receive my visa at once, also for the parents it would be very much better if the visa were to be here already". "You must take steps for the visa to arrive as soon as possible."

Writer states bitterly that she had spent her money like a fool telegraphing Zsassikam from Switzerland and Portugal requesting money and asks why the latter has never answered her. Only Evilein has sent $200.

Writer reveals that she is in urgent need of money and adds: (Quoting translation):

"We have lost everything." "They have taken all the stores, the apartment, from father and mother, the villas which we built with so much joy. The jewels, the furs, the clothes. We no longer have anything!"

Addressee is requested to send money and tickets for the trip for writer and her parents and to telegraph writer to the American consulate to Mr. Lancaster who will give her the message. Writer's address is "As always, Souza Moura, Companhia Tabacos Lisboa, Avenida Liberdade-16."

Writer hopes that "our dear parents will arrive here soon, I can do nothing more from here." "They wanted to kill us, Mother father and myself; "the Gestapo".

Sari Got 'Hit' by Scalpel

Sari Gabor, red-haired Hungarian beauty, now tells reporters her nasal injuries came from the scalpel of a plastic surgeon—not from a kitchen implement wielded by a jealous wife. She is suing husband Conrad Hilton, owner of the Plaza Hotel in New York, for divorce. Her earlier story was just a bit of romancing, she admitted yesterday. This was confirmed by Dr. I. Daniel Shorell, of New York, who said he did a little straightening job on Sari's nose.

Reference is made to my memorandum dated September 26, 1942, numbered 1215, and [REDACTED] concerning the Subject. (U) b7D

An investigation of Mrs. Hilton's activities has failed to reveal that she has been engaged in any activities detrimental to this country, and the following information was obtained.

Mrs. Conrad Hilton, nee Sari Gabor, was born at Budapest, Hungary, and after being married in 1935 to Burham Belge, obtained a divorce from him in 1941 at Ankara, Turkey. As a result of this marriage, Mrs. Hilton is a Turkish citizen. She married her present husband, Conrad Nicholson Hilton, in April, 1942, and according to a recent newspaper item dated April 23, 1945, she is attempting to obtain a divorce.

The Subject entered the United States at New York City on January 3, 1941, from Turkey, by way of Syria, Bombay and Capetown. She has received her first papers of United States citizenship at Los Angeles, California. Investigation disclosed that she associates principally with the movie colony in Los Angeles, and her sister is Eva Gabor, the motion picture actress.

Upon the completion of the investigation, Mrs. Hilton was interviewed and she denied that she was ever expelled or forced to leave Turkey as previously reported. She further stated that she lived in the Turkish Embassy in Washington, D. C., for a short time following her arrival in this country and the reason for her coming to the United States was that she was anxious to see her sister Eva in Hollywood and to live here. [REDACTED] b3 b7E

With reference to her communications with her family and other individuals residing in foreign countries, she said that she and her family did not know that the use of intermediaries for the purpose of transmitting mail was contrary to censorship regulations and she stated that this practice would be discontinued. Regarding Serra Moura, Avenida da Liberdade, Lisbon, who has acted as a mail drop for communications between the Subject and her relatives in Budapest, Mrs. Hilton said that Moura is an old friend of the Gabor family, that she met Moura in Budapest years ago, and that while no definite arrangement was ever made with him for the handling of mail, she and her family have utilized his services as an intermediary without knowing that it was a violation of law. Mrs. Hilton said that all of her communications through Moura were purely personal and never referred in any way to political or military matters.

Mrs. Hilton also admitted in this interview that while in Bagdad en route to the United States she met one Howard Freeman, an American, with whom she had an alleged affair. She also advised that she received correspondence from a Corporal L. Borgo, Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada, who was one of five Swedish boys who succeeded in getting out of Sweden to join the Canadian Air Force, and that she met Borgo while en route from Bagdad to Turkey. She also said that Ilonka Barrett is a Hungarian divorcee, who formerly resided in New York City and is a friend of the Subject's family in Budapest. Concerning "Kargai", who reportedly delivered eleven letters to Subject's mother in Budapest, Mrs. Hilton said that "Kargai" is the Hungarian nickname for Carlos Sampayo Carrido, Portuguese Ambassador at Budapest, who is an intimate friend of the Gabor family and who apparently transmitted mail for the Subject's mother. Mrs. Hilton stated that the word "Jolie", which is referred to in this connection was the name of the jewelry store which her mother operated in Budapest. She also advised that "Pali", who was mentioned in her mother's correspondence, is a Hungarian boy formerly engaged to Eva Gabor when the latter resided in Budapest.

With reference to her other acquaintances, Mrs. Hilton said that Ali Ipari and his sister, Shasi, are Turkish nationals whom she casually met in Hollywood and she knows nothing concerning their background or activities; that Digenhard Humbrand is a "crazy Austrian", who claims to be a Count and who was a friend of Evan Potter; that Evan Potter is an American playboy, with whom she is acquainted.

In conclusion, Mrs. Hilton said that she received some unfortunate publicity in the newspapers to the effect that she had been admired by and associated with Hitler. She emphatically denied the truth of such statements.

In view of the violations by the Subject of the censorship laws, the facts obtained in this investigation were considered for prosecution by the Criminal Division of the United States Department of Justice, which after a review of the information advised that no prosecution would be undertaken.

UNSUB; Robbery of Jewelry of
SARI GABOR HILTON - Victim
10/4/47
ITSP

Rerep of SA GEORGE W. STICKLE dated 11/28/47 at New York.

By way of summary, this case involved the robbery of SARI GABOR HILTON, then the wife of CONRAD NICHOLSON HILTON, the hotel magnate, at her New York City apartment, 8 East 83rd Street, at 10:40 a.m. She and her maid, Mrs. LULU BARTH, were held up by an unidentified armed robber, were loosely tied to a bench, and the robber took with him an estimated $113,760.00 in jewelry belonging to Mrs. HILTON. Investigation developed that Mrs. HILTON was in an unfavorable financial condition at that time. She was seen in cafe society of New York with various individuals and had returned to her apartment about 5:30 a.m. or 6:30 a.m. that day after having spent the evening at various nightclubs. Files of the Los Angeles Office indicate that this case has not been solved.

The victim is now known as Zsa Zsa GABOR and is in the process of obtaining a divorce from the movie actor, GEORGE SANDERS, having previously been divorced from CONRAD HILTON.

The above jewelry was insured by Lloyd's of London in a personal property floater policy and the estimated loss as recorded by the insurance company was $97,750.00. The loss has been paid by the insurance company, although the amount paid has not been determined.

On December 28, 1953, [redacted] in strictest confidence, furnished the following information. The confidential nature of this information must be protected.

It was determined by the insurance adjusters through a Mr. FANTWELL, legal Department, Pan-American Airways, NYC, unofficially as follows, and that if necessary the company would respond to a subpoena.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] FANTWELL advised he believed this flight connected in London with a flight going to Turkey.

The underwriters (Lloyd's) as of 5/6/52 authorized an investigation to locate the missing jewelry if there appeared to be any reasonable prospects of effecting any recovery, but first it was requested that it be determined whether the assured (GABOR) has sufficient financial worth to be able to repay the underwriters if they could prove fraud.

Toplis and Harding have attempted to obtain the services of a private investigator in Turkey and have learned that as of 10/53 it is unlikely much of this jewelry has been disposed of as the market value of diamonds is very low in Turkey, although good furs are marketable there at high prices.

Files of the LA Office reflect that SANTI GABOR HILTON resided with her husband in the LA area during a portion of World War II and investigation was conducted regarding her circumvention of censorship by corresponding with members of her family in Europe through use of a mail drop in Portugal. This investigation is reflected in the case entitled "MRS. CONRAD NICHOLSON HILTON, was., Censorship Matters; ESPIONAGE - R" (LA file [redacted] NY file [redacted] Bufile [redacted]). She was interviewed in 11/44 by Agents of the LA Office, at which time she stated that she was born at Budapest, Hungary, on 2/6/17, and that her father, VILMOS GABOR, age 63 (in 1944), was born in Budapest, where he had been engaged in the jewelry business, and that her mother, JANKA GABOR, age 45 (in 1944), is also a native of Budapest. She was first married in Budapest on 5/17/36 at the age of 17 to BURHAN BELOE, an official of the Turkish government, who was in charge of Turkish newspaper publicity. She said the marriage was arranged by her family and that her husband was 39 years of age at that time. Following her marriage, she and BELOE maintained their residence in Ankara, Turkey, and during their married life traveled rather extensively in Turkey, Hungary, Italy, England, France, and the Balkan countries. She said she and her husband separated at Ankara some time during 2/41 and shortly thereafter she left Turkey for the U. S., where she intended to visit her sister, EVA GABOR, a motion picture actress, who had come to the U. S. in 1939. Her other sister, MAGDA (DUCK) BICHOFCKY, widow of a Polish army officer believed killed during the war, resided in Europe and in 1944 was in Lisbon, Portugal, attempting to gain admittance to the U. S. Mrs. HILTON claimed that she lived in the Turkish Embassy at Washington, D. C., for a period of time following her arrival in this country. In 12/41 she claimed to have received a cable from Turkey advising her that her divorce from BELOE had been completed.

She claimed she departed for the U. S. from Bombay, India, on 4/26/41, after having remained there about ten days, and she entered the U. S. at NYC on 6/3/41. She married CONRAD NICHOLSON HILTON at Santa Fe, N. M., on 4/10/42.

LA 37-1226

The report of this interview is contained in the report of SA WALTER H. POTT dated 12/1/44 at LA in the Censorship case. The report of SA ERNEST J. VAN LEEUW dated 2/8/43 at LA in the same case reflects that a confidential informant who was in a position to know of the activities of SARI HILTON reported that she was friendly in 1943 with a Mr. TALHAZON, who had telephone HEMPSTEAD 5541 in LA. Investigation determined that telephone HEMPSTEAD 5541 was the nonpublished number for NAZIM KALKAVAN, 8417 Ridpath Drive, LA. A check of the records of the Retail Merchants Credit Association (RMCA) at LA at that time failed to locate a record on KALKAVAN. It was believed that he is identical with the individual described by the confidential informant as TALHAZON, due to the identity of the telephone number. Investigation determined that SARI HILTON frequently communicated toward the end of 1942 and the early part of 1943 with KALKAVAN.

It was also determined that the name NAZIM KALKAVAN, 1132 Cahuenga, LA, was listed by the Cable Censor at LA on 11/11/42 as a name to be checked with the FBI of LA.

On 12/31/53 records of the RMCA of LA were checked and a report dated 4/18/47 regarding NAZIM KALKAVAN, 719 North Fairing Road, LA, was found. His former addresses were given as 8417 Ridpath Drive, LA; 68 West 58th Street, NYC; and the Turkish Embassy, Washington, D. C. He was born in Turkey and his wife was CAMILLE CHAPPELL KALKAVAN. At the time of the credit report, KALKAVAN was not employed. His mother-in-law stated on 5/5/47 that KALKAVAN's family is engaged in the shipping business and foreign trade in Turkey. She gave the address of CAMILLE CHAPPELL KALKAVAN as Sarah Lawrence College, Braxwell, N. Y.

A credit report from Washington, D. C., dated 11/4/44 reported that KALKAVAN is of Turkish birth and used the Turkish Embassy at Washington, D. C., as his mailing address although he did not actually reside at the Embassy. He was personally known to ORHAN H. ERCL, Counselor of the Turkish Embassy, and other diplomats there. He came to Washington, D. C., from Hollywood, Calif., and was very highly recommended at the Turkish Embassy. On 10/26/44 KALKAVAN had claimed he was employed as Technical Director for various studios for a period of 2½ years. CAMILLE CHAPPELL had been known to the RMCA files since 1/12/46, and Mrs. Buckley's School in Beverly Hills, Calif., (handicraft school) reported she had been employed by that school since September, 1945. Her mother stated she was formerly employed as a teacher for two months at Westlake School for Girls in LA. The credit report indicated that KALKAVAN owned no real estate; had a 1946 Ford and a 1946 Mercury, both clear. 719 North Fairing Road is the home of CARL B. SQUIRRE, who is the uncle of CAMILLE CHAPPELL. KALKAVAN and Miss CHAPPELL were married in October, 1946, and in 1947 were reported living in NY. The credit record reflected a claim from Dr. FRANK J. TUSTIN, 7024 Melrose Ave., LA, for $341.00 against KALKAVAN as of 11/16/46, which had not been paid.

LA 87-1226

On 8/21/51 the LA District Office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) requested a search of the records of this Office of the name SADETTIN MEHMET PEKEROL, aka SADI PEKEROL, aka SADI M. PECK, their file [redacted] whose address in 1951 was 1630-A Loma Crest, Glendale, Calif., and whose former address was given as 7443 South Stewart Avenue, Chicago, Ill. He was born [redacted] and his occupation was given as a steel salesman. He was described as dark brown hair, dark green eyes, 150 pounds, 5' 9½", scar above left eyebrow. The request from INS indicated that a private bill had been introduced into the U. S. Congress on behalf of PEKEROL and that would indicate that he might have been under deportation. Private bills are frequently introduced to suspend deportation action. Records of the LA Office of the INS on 12/30/53 reflect that the entire file of that office on PEKEROL was sent to the INS at Detroit, Mich., on 3/7/52 and no additional information is available in LA regarding PEKEROL.

Records of the RICA at LA were checked on 12/31/53 and they reflect a memorandum dated 9/3/47 indicating one SADI PECK, [redacted] married and with one other dependent, resided at 1730 North Western Avenue in Hollywood but had moved and had left no forwarding address. He claimed employment as an automobile salesman during 1942-1943 with the California Car Company, 701 South Vermont Avenue, LA, and at Columbia Pictures Studio in the motion picture "Arch of Triumph." Columbia Pictures had reported that they were not making that picture, that it was being made by Enterprise Studios. There was no record of PECK at Columbia Studios and no record of him at Enterprise Studios. It is believed he may be identical with PEKEROL and the person who has approached the insurance company adjusters.

The investigation of the captioned jewelry robbery also determined that after Miss GABOR's family arrived in the U. S. her mother opened a jewelry store in NYC and it was also indicated that the mother operated a jewelry store in Europe before coming to this country. Her father also is reported, in the one conversation of Miss GABOR, as having operated two jewelry stores in Europe. The possibilities of these sources as outlets for jewelry from the U. S. are obvious. It is further observed that Miss GABOR was acquainted with KALKAVAN in 1942-1943 in LA and that he had connections with the Turkish Embassy in Washington, as well as did Miss GABOR in 1942. Also, PEKEROL was residing in LA, apparently, in 1942-1943 and would have had opportunity to become acquainted with KALKAVAN. Both were claiming employment, in some fashion, with the motion picture industry. It does appear that both of them took the same flight from NY to Turkey on the day that ZSA ZSA GABOR was robbed in NYC.

Additional data regarding PERKINS can be obtained from the Central Office of the INS at Washington, D. C., in the event the file has been forwarded by the Detroit Office to its headquarters, as is the general custom of that service. The nationality status of KALAVAN can also be obtained from the Immigration Service, Washington, D. C.

Attention is also directed to the report of SA ALEX O. KARIS dated 12/6/49 at Pittsburgh entitled "INSUB; Theft of Approximately $100,000.00 worth of jewelry, Greenbrier Hotel, White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, May 7, 1949; Mrs. RONALD D. BALCON - Victim; ITSP", in which one "Count" JOSE BORRIS, was., 745 Fifth Avenue, NYC, was a leading suspect. He had formerly engaged in business in France, Germany, and Rumania, where he had a criminal record. He was associated with a Rumanian citizen, FLORICA CONSTANTINESCU, who apparently was handling contraband jewelry about that time, and it is possible there may develop a pattern of activity through these individuals in the disposition of jewelry by transportation to Europe.

As the LA Office does not have full details regarding these cases of jewelry thefts, additional investigation will not be conducted in this division until requested by either the NY Office or the Bureau.

It is believed that through the confidential source complete data can be obtained regarding the insurance company inquiry.

MR. NICHOLS:

Norm Philcox of the Liaison Section has checked with Immigration and Naturalization Service with the following results:

1. Zsa Zsa Gabor is a citizen of the United States. She filed her first papers in Los Angeles presumably between 1942 and 1945. When she became a citizen is not known to INS Headquarters here, and they have sent a wire to Los Angeles asking for details of this information and the reply should be received early a.m., 5-13-54.

2. Rubirosa is a National of the Dominican Republic and is here on a temporary visa for two months on a "pleasure trip." INS Headquarters has no other information and the New York INS office has been wired for his entry date et cetera.

Philcox says this is absolutely all the information we can get today without a phone call to Los Angeles and New York of our own offices to have them check. Very careful searches were made but the INS Headquarters records are inadequate.

Data on Gabor and Rubirosa attached.

RE: MRS. CONRAD NICHOLSON HILTON,

Sari Hilton, Sari Gabor, Sara Gabor,
Mrs. Burham Belge, Sari Belge,
Sara Belge, Sara Gabor Belge,
Sari Gabor Belge, Sarah
Tilleman, Sari Gabor Hilton

FBI Agents interviewed the above-captioned in November, 1944, in connection with the case "Mrs. Conrad Nicholson Hilton, was., Censorship Matters, ESPIONAGE-H (Hungarian)." Bureau file is [redacted]. She was then known as Zsa Zsa, this latter name having apparently been acquired in Hollywood after the press agent got hold of her. She told us she was born at Budapest, Hungary, on 2-6-17. Her father, Vilmos Gabor, age 63, (in 1944) was born in Budapest where he was engaged in a jewelry business. Her mother, Janka Gabor, age 45, (in 1944) is also a Budapest native.

b7E

Zsa Zsa was first married in Budapest on 5-17-36, at the age of 17, to Burham Belge, Turkish Government official in charge of Turkish newspaper publicity. This marriage was arranged by her family; Belge was 39 years old at the time. She said she separated from Belge at Ankara, Turkey, in February, 1941, and came to the United States to visit her sister, Eva Gabor, motion picture actress who came to the United States in 1939. Zsa Zsa entered the United States at New York City on 6-3-41 and received her first papers of United States citizenship at Los Angeles. She was married to Conrad Nicholson Hilton on April 10, 1942, at Santa Fe, New Mexico, divorced him and earlier this year was in the process of obtaining a divorce from movie actor George Sanders. She has another sister, Magda (Duci) Bichofsky, widow of a Polish Army officer believed killed during World War II.

After coming to the United States Zsa Zsa claimed she lived at the Turkish Embassy. (Bureau files are [redacted]; 87-7802-33; 40-66177).

ENCLOSURE

RE: PORFIRIO RUBIROSA

Rubirosa has not been the subject of an investigation by the FBI. Rubirosa, a Dominican Republic National, first came to the Bureau's attention in 1935 in connection with the investigation of Louis De La Fuentes who was indicted by a New York County Grand Jury in February, 1936, for the murder of Sergio Bencosme, who was shot 4-28-35 in New York City. Rubirosa was then married to Flor De Oro Trujillo, daughter of Dictator Trujillo, of the Dominican Republic. He remained in New York only a few days allegedly having come expressly for the purpose of making arrangements with his cousins for the assassination of Dr. Bencosme, prominent member of the Dominican opposition who had been assassinated at his residence at 87 Hamilton Place, New York City. It is said that until recently he dared not return to the United States for fear of being indicted for the Bencosme murder. Newspaper reports indicated that Rubirosa in 1947 was honorary Charge D'Affaires of the Dominican Republic, although he was not recognized by the French because he had once been acceptable to the Vichy Regime. He has been the subject of considerable newspaper publicity having been married to French movie actress Danielle Darrieux, reportedly a German collaborationist. This marriage occurred while he served in Vichy. Rubirosa married heiress Doris Duke, 9-1-47, at which time he apparently had been appointed Dominican Ambassador to Argentina. This marriage ended in divorce and he then married Mrs. Barbara Hutton Grant from whom he is now seeking a divorce.

Both Rubirosa and Zsa Zsa Gabor have been mixed up at various times in alleged jewel smuggling, the sale of jewels, and jewel dealings abroad. Particularly Rubirosa is involved. It should be noted that Zsa Zsa's mother and father were both in the jewelry business, her father having been so engaged abroad and her mother having operated a shop in New York City. ZSA ZSA GABOR

Captioned individual, who in the early 1940's was married to Conrad Nicholsen Hilton, was the subject of a possible violation of the Espionage and Censorship Matters Statutes. She reportedly had been sending mail to her relatives in Hungary and other foreign countries through a mail intermediary in Lisbon, Portugal, in violation of Censorship regulations. When interviewed in November, 1944, she stated it was through ignorance of the Censorship regulations that she mailed correspondence to her family in Budapest which was of a purely personal nature. She stated that she would desist from this practice in the future and claimed to have no pro-Nazi sympathies or to have engaged in any subversive activities.

In October, 1947, captioned individual was the alleged victim of a jewel robbery when she and her maid were held up by an unidentified armed robber at her New York City apartment who subsequently left with an estimated $133,760 in jewelry belonging to Mrs. Hilton. Investigation subsequently developed that she was in financial difficulty at that time. The estimated loss as recorded by the insurance company was $97,750 and it was paid by the company although the exact amount upon which it was settled was not determined. It was alleged captioned individual who was then known as Sari Gabor and a male individual had collaborated and prepared the loss in that case. The jewelry was allegedly taken to Turkey by her associate.

On July 2, 1959, the home of Zsa Zsa Gabor at Los Angeles, California, was burglarized while she was in Europe. When contacted by telephone by her business manager, she indicated that her loss would be nominal as the bulk of her jewelry was with her. An individual was subsequently arrested on July 7, 1959, by the Los Angeles Police Department and admitted the burglary stating that the value of articles taken did not exceed $500. On August 20, 1959, the insurance company involved received a claim from captioned individual for $85,770 for jewelry and other articles stolen from her home. It is understood that the insurance company resisted the claim by Miss Gabor and had received an offer from the business manager for a settlement of $40,000.
