Dear Mr. Credico:

The Senate Select Committee on Intelligence is conducting a bipartisan inquiry into Russian interference in the 2016 U.S. elections. As part of our efforts, the Committee requests that you produce and preserve certain documents and records and that you make yourself available for a closed interview with bipartisan Committee staff at an agreeable time.

Specifically, the Committee requests that you provide the below documents and records to the Committee by the close of business on September 21, 2018. The documents and records requested include all documents and records, including hard copies or electronically stored information (including, but not limited to, emails, text messages, direct messages, calendar appointments, memoranda, notes, phone logs, contact information, or other recorded information) related to:

1. Any communications with or about DCLeaks (including any of its affiliated online personas), Guccifer 2.0 (including any of its affiliated online personas), WikiLeaks (including any of its employees, online personas, or representatives), Roger Stone, Peter W. Smith, Charles Johnson, Julian Assange, Henry Greenberg (including all other names used or potentially used by him to include "Henry Oknyansky"), or any intermediaries thereof, which took place between June 16, 2015, and present;
2. Any communications regarding any attempts to search for electronic information that may have been, or was purported to have been, stolen or compromised by cyber activity and that was related in any way to the 2016 U.S. election;
3. Any communications that in any way relate to derogatory information about Hillary Clinton, including, but not limited to, emails of Secretary Hillary Clinton, the Hillary Clinton for President or Hillary for America U.S. presidential campaigns, the Democratic National Committee, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, and/or Mr. John Podesta; and,

4. Any communications related to Russian attempts to influence the 2016 U.S. Presidential election, Russian-backed efforts to spread and disseminate misinformation on social media, or compromising material on any candidate or campaign.

In addition to the above requests, please provide any documents or records previously obtained by, or produced to, the Special Counsel's Office or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

In order to maintain a full and complete record of responsive documents, the Committee also requests that you preserve:

1. All documents produced in response to the Committee's request as described above; including responsive documents received or created after your initial production of documents to the Committee;
2. If it is the routine practice to destroy or otherwise alter such documents, either:
 - a. Put an immediate halt to such practices; or,
 - b. Arrange for the preservation of complete and accurate duplicates or copies of such documents, suitable for production if requested; and,
3. All documents relating to or produced in response to:
 - a. Any notice of administrative, civil, or criminal legal action;
 - b. Any subpoena, search warrant, seizure warrant, summons, or other legal writ, notice, or order or request for information, property, or material;
 - c. Any request for information made to or by a third party (including but not limited to any government agency or private party); related to
 - d. Russian actions targeting the 2016 U.S. elections as described above.

To the extent that any of these documents may be privileged, please provide a detailed privilege log prior to the deadline.

For the purposes of this request, "preserve" means taking reasonable steps to prevent the partial or full destruction, alteration, testing, deletion, shredding, incineration, wiping, relocation, migration, theft, or mutation of hard copy or electronically stored information, as well as negligent or intentional handling that would make such records incomplete or inaccessible. If you have any questions regarding your preservation obligations, contact the Committee for guidance prior to any action or inaction that could result in the destruction of responsive documents.
