

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University. Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: Stuart M. Riley Date: 12/10/2018

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University. Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: _____

Date: 12/12/18

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University.

Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: Ann Abraham Date: 12/10/18

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University.

Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: James Bailey Date: 12/10/2018

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University.

Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed:  Date: 12/10/18

Todd Drunkin

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University.

Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "Doug Delahanty", written over a horizontal line.

Date: 12/10/18

Doug Delahanty

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University.

Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. ^{perceived} _{as} [I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: Tamela L. Sumner Date: 12/10/2018

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University. Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: _____

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Ma C. Gold".

Date: _____

12-10-18

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University.

Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: Mark Kretovics Date: 12/10/18

Mark Kretovics

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University. Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: Amy Reynolds Date: 12/10/18

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University. Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: Mark De Bell II Date: 12/10/18

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University.

Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed:  Date: 12/10/18

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University. Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed:  Date: 12-10-18

Dave Roller

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University. Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: _____

Eugene Shecter

Date: _____

12.10.18

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University. Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: _____

Scott Williams

Date: _____

12/13/2018

Search Committee Code of Conduct

As members of the Presidential Search Committee, we pledge to keep as our primary focus the need to attract the best possible candidate for the presidency of Kent State University. Accordingly, each of us pledges to adhere to these principles:

1. I acknowledge that only the Search Chair is authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the committee.
2. I certify that I am personally not now, and do not intend to become, a candidate for the position.
3. I will avoid any appearance of real or perceived conflict of interest in the relationship between me and a prospect or candidate and upon its occurrence, I will disclose it promptly to the Search Chair.
4. I recognize that attendance at scheduled meetings is required for my appointment and continued service.
5. I acknowledge that the committee will base its recommendations upon the established leadership criteria as well as upon university policies, state and federal laws with respect to equal opportunity and affirmative action.
6. I will follow the principles below for the management of information about the work of the committee. This work includes what is developed and received about prospects, candidates, and their employing institutions. I understand this effort is necessary to attract excellent candidates, to avoid putting their current positions in jeopardy, and to maintain my institution's professional image. Specifically, I will adhere to the following code of responsibility, accuracy, and integrity:
 - I pledge to respect the absolute confidentiality of all prospects and candidates. I will not reveal the name of or any information about any prospects or candidates before or after the committee completes its work.
 - I will adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.
 - I will be fair, accurate, honest, and responsible in my management of information.
 - I will avoid practices that would conflict with my ability to be fair and unbiased.

Agreed: Kala Zimati Date: 12/10/18