MEMORANDUM

DATE: August 23, 1995

TO: Editors and Environmental Reporters

FROM: Jane Agate, Media Representative, Global Climate Coalition

SUBJECT: Additional Correspondence to Administration Officials

Negotiators are meeting this week and next in Geneva to begin the "Berlin Mandate" process of considering "policies and measures" and a timetable for reducing greenhouse gas emissions after 2000.

Last week John Shlaes, the Executive Director of the Global Climate Coalition, forwarded to you two pieces of correspondence the Coalition had sent to Administration officials regarding the Geneva meeting and other COP issues. Since then, two additional letters were delivered, and we thought you might find them useful as you plan your coverage of the ongoing Conference Of The Parties (COP) process.

We are planning a conference call briefing from John Shlaes and other Coalition members from Geneva early next week. We will be notifying you by fax when the final schedule has been worked out.

Please call us if we can be of further assistance. I can be reached at the GCC Press Office at (202) 628-3622.
