Plaintiff Alfonso Ribeiro, ("Plaintiff" or "Ribeiro"), by and through his undersigned counsel, asserts the following claims against Defendant Epic Games, Inc. ("Epic") and Does 1 through 50 (collectively referred to as "Defendants"), and alleges as follows:

I. OVERVIEW

- 1. Through its unauthorized use of Ribeiro's highly popular signature dance ("The Dance" or "Dance") in its smash-hit, violent video game, Fortnite Battle Royale ("Fortnite"), Epic has unfairly profited from exploiting Ribeiro's protected creative expression and likeness and celebrity without his consent or authorization.
- 2. Ribeiro is an internationally famous Hollywood star, known for his starring role as Carlton Banks from the hit television series The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air and as host of America's Funniest Home Videos. Ribeiro created his highly recognizable "Dance," that has also been referred to by the public as "The Carlton Dance," which exploded in popularity and became highly recognizable as Ribeiro's signature dance internationally. The Dance is now inextricably linked to Ribeiro and has continued to be a part of his celebrity persona.
- 3. Defendants capitalized on Alfonso Ribeiro's celebrity and popularity by selling The Dance as an in-game purchase in Fortnite under the name "Fresh," which players can buy to customize their avatars for use in the game. Although misleadingly labeled in Fortnite, the emote, as they are called, was immediately recognized by players and media worldwide as Ribeiro's The Dance. Epic did not seek, much less obtain, Ribeiro's consent to use, display, reproduce, sell, or creative a derivate work based upon The Dance or Ribiero's likeness. Epic did not seek, much less obtain, Ribeiro's consent to use, display, reproduce,

- sell, or creative a derivate work based upon The Dance or Ribeiro's likeness.
- 4. Since being released in or around September 2017, Fortnite has become among the most popular video games ever with sales far in excess of $1 billion. Indeed, Fortnite made approximately $318 million in May 2018 alone, the "biggest month ever for a video game." As a free-to-play game, Fortnite derives its sales through in-game purchases. Epic cannot profit from Ribeiro's hard-earned fame by its intentional misappropriation of Ribeiro's original content and likeness. Epic cannot increase the value of its main product by faking endorsements by celebrities. Ribeiro seeks injunctive relief and damages, including, but not limited to, Epic's profits attributed to its misappropriation of The Dance and Ribeiro's likeness.

II. THE PARTIES

- 5. Ribeiro resides in Los Angeles, California.
- 6. Epic is a North Carolina business corporation with its principal place of business at 620 Crossroads Boulevard, Cary, NC 27518. Epic is the creator and developer of the Fortnite video game franchise, which was first released in July of 2017.
- 7. The true names and identities of the defendants herein sued as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are unknown to Ferguson, who therefore sues those defendants by such fictitious names. When the true names of those defendants have been ascertained, Ferguson will amend this complaint accordingly. Each of the defendants aided and abetted and is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and Ferguson's injuries were proximately caused thereby.

8. At all times herein mentioned, each of the defendants was acting as an agent, servant, employee or representative of defendants, and, in doing the things alleged in this Complaint, was acting within the course and scope of that agency, service, employment, or joint venture.

III. SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 9. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question), 28 U.S.C. § 1332 (diversity), and 28 U.S.C. § 1367 (supplemental jurisdiction).
- 10. Venue is proper in this District under A) 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) (federal question jurisdiction), because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in this District; and B) 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(1) and (c) (personal jurisdiction), because all defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this State and at least one in this District.

IV. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Ribeiro and the Creation of The Dance

- 11. Raised in the New York City borough of the Bronx, Ribeiro has been acting since the age of eight, gaining notoriety and prominence in particular for his dancing. Ribeiro starred in the Broadway musical The Tap Dance Kid in 1983, released a single called Alfonso Ribeiro Dance Baby in 1984, appeared as a dancer in a Pepsi commercial with Michael Jackson in 1984, and authored a dance instruction book in 1985 called Alfonso's Breakin' & Poppin' Book.
- 12. In 1991, Ribeiro created The Dance and first performed it on The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air during the episode Will's Christmas Show.

- 1 Twenty-seven years later, The Dance remains distinctive, immediately
- 2 recognizable, and inextricably linked to Ribeiro's identity, celebrity, and
- 3 likeness.
- 4 13. Since its conception in 1991, The Dance has maintained its
- 5 popularity. Ribeiro continues to perform The Dance, even inserting it
- 6 during his famous performance in 2014 as part of his victorious run on
- 7 the hit television show Dancing with the Stars. Ribeiro is constantly
- 8 inundated with requests to perform The Dance; he has performed it on
- 9 numerous occasions at the behest of both the public and celebrities.
- 10 Indeed, in 2016, the recording artist Justin Timberlake and NBA
- superstar Stephen Curry, performed The Dance, alongside Ribeiro, at
- 12 the popular American Century Celebrity Golf Tournament.²
- 13 14. A 2013 video by the BBC including Will Smith and his son
- 14 Jaden Smith, Jeffrey Allen Townes (DJ Jazzy Jeff), and Ribeiro
- performing The Dance has garnered over sixty-nine million views on
- 16 YouTube.³
- 17 15. The Dance has become synonymous with Ribeiro, who is
- unanimously credited with creating The Dance. Ribeiro has also been
- interviewed several times about the creation of The Dance and how to
- 20 properly perform it. Accordingly, The Dance is a part of Ribeiro's
- 21 identity and The Dance's unique movements readily evoke a connection
- to Ribeiro.

B. Fortnite: The Most Popular Video Game Ever

- 16. Prior to releasing Fortnite, which has become among the most popular and successful video games ever, Epic developed two popular video game franchises: Unreal and Gears of War. Since releasing the first Gears of War game in 2006 Epic released several subsequent Gears of War video games, and the franchise has made over $1 billion in total sales.
- 17. In or around 2011, following the release of the third Gears of War installment, Fortnite began from an Epic internal video game "hackathon," a gathering of Epic developers to brainstorm ideas and create games in a short period. Although the Fortnite game was not developed during the hackathon, the idea to merge building games (i.e., Minecraft) and shooter games (i.e., Gears of War or Call of Duty) emerged during the hackathon.
- 18. In or around July 2017, Epic released the initial version of Fortnite as a paid early-access video game in the "Battle Royale" genre. However, by September 2017, after PlayerUnknown's Battlegrounds—a game which occupied the same genre as Fortnite—became a worldwide success, Epic released Fortnite Battle Royale, a free-to-play third-person shooting game on the Windows, macOS, PlayStation 4, and Xbox One platforms. Epic subsequently released Fortnite on the iOS, Nintendo, and Android platforms on April 2, 2018, June 12, 2018, and August 9, 2018, respectively.
- 19. Similar to PlayerUnknown's Battlegrounds, Fortnite utilizes the battle royale genre where a large number of players, alone, in pairs, or groups, compete to be the last player or group alive. Indeed, similar to Battlegrounds and Gears of War, Fortnite features the use of weapons and violence, that players use to eliminate the competition by attacking and shooting them.

- 20. As a free-to-play video game, Epic allows players to download and play Fortnite for free. Epic's revenue from Fortnite comes from in-game transactions where players can purchase virtual currency, called "Vinderbucks" or "V-Bucks." The players in turn use V-Bucks via the "Item Shop" to purchase customizations for their ingame avatars, including new characters, pickaxe modifications, glider skins, clothing, and emotes (dances or movements). Fortnite also sells "Battle Passes" or additional levels that allow you to unlock skins, gliders, and emotes unique to that Pass. Fortnite offers four pricing levels for purchasing V-Bucks (in U.S. Dollars):
- 1) 1,000 V-Bucks for $9.99;

- 2) 2,500 (+300 Bonus) V-Bucks for $24.99;
- 3) 6,000 (+1,500 Bonus) V-Bucks for $59.99; or
- 16 4) 10,000 (+3,500 Bonus) V-Bucks for $99.99.
 - 21. There are four types of emotes: common emotes, uncommon emotes, rare emotes, and epic emotes. The rarer the emote, the more expensive or harder it is to obtain. Uncommon emotes cost 200 V-Bucks. Rare emotes cost 500 V-Bucks. And Epic emotes cost 800 V-Bucks.
 - 22. To start, Fortnite provides each player with the "Dance Moves" emote, a common emote, for no compensation. Players can then obtain other emotes by purchasing and playing additional levels in Battle Passes (950 V-Bucks each) that come with emotes unique to that Pass, or by purchasing certain emotes directly with V-Bucks. On some occasions, Fortnite sells Battle Pass emotes directly, without requiring the player to purchase the Battle Pass.

- Emotes are incredibly popular and are fundamental to 23. Fortnite's success. Players purchase emotes, alongside clothing and skins, to personalize their Fortnite experience. Emotes have also become popular outside Fortnite. Professional athletes in soccer and other sports have based their celebrations on Fortnite emotes. Young adults, teenagers, and kids also post videos of themselves on YouTube and social media performing emotes under various hashtags, including #fortnitedance or #fortnitevideos. Upon information and belief, Epic intentionally induces others to perform these dances and mark them with those hashtags, which give attribution to and endorse Fortnite the game.
- Upon information and belief, Epic creates emotes by copying 24.and coding dances and movements directly from popular videos, movies. and television shows without consent. Epic does so by coding still frames of the source material.
- Epic has consistently sought to exploit African-American talent, in particular in Fortnite, by copying their dances and movements and sell them through emotes. Epic has copied the dances and movements of numerous African-American performers, including, among others, the dance from the 2004 Snoop Dogg music video, "Drop It Like It's Hot" (named the "Tidy" emote), 2 Milly's "Milly Rock" dance (named the "Swipe It" emote), the dance performed by Will Smith on television show The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air (named the "Rambunctious" emote), the dance in Marlon Webb's popular "Band of the Bold" video (named the "Best Mates" emote), Donald Faison's signature dance seen on the NBC television show Scrubs (named the "Dance Moves" emote), and, most pertinent here, Alfonso Ribeiro's The Dance. Upon information and belief, Epic did not seek consent or authorization to use any of these movements or dances.

- 26. Soon after its release, Fortnite became an international phenomenon. The game eclipsed 10 million players merely two weeks after its release; 125 million players by July 2018. In November 2018, Bloomberg announced that Fortnite had 200 million player accounts across all platforms.
- 27. Fortnite's popularity has translated into record in-game sales for Epic. Analysts have estimated that since its release, Fortnite has generated between $1 billion to $2 billion in revenue through ingame purchases such as emotes. In May 2018, Fortnite broke its own record by generating approximately $318 million in revenue, the biggest month ever for a video game. In fact, nearly 80 million people played Fortnite in August 2018. Because of Fortnite's success, Epic's estimated valuation rose from about $825 million to about $5 billion. Bloomberg estimates that Epic's valuation could grow to $8.5 billion by 2018's end.
- 28. Upon information and belief, Epic will likely continue adding popular emotes to Fortnite without the artists' or creators' consent or approval to attract more players and add to its quickly-growing revenue.

C. Fortnite's Unauthorized Use of The Dance

- 29. On January 2, 2018, Fortnite released the Fresh emote into its Item Shop. Players could purchase the Fresh emote for 800 V-Bucks.
- 30. The Fresh emote is identical to Ribeiro's The Dance. If obtained or purchased, the Fortnite player's avatar can perform The Dance during Fortnite gameplay. The reaction from many players worldwide was immediate recognition of the emote as embodying The Dance and, in turn, Ribeiro. Indeed, by naming the emote "Fresh," Epic

- 1 intentionally induced a direct connection between the in-game purchase
- and the show where The Dance started, The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air.
- 3 That connection implied an endorsement of that in-game purchase by
- 4 Ribeiro.
- 5 31. Epic developed the Fresh emote to intentionally mimic
- 6 Ribeiro performing The Dance.
- 7 32. Epic did not seek to obtain Ribeiro's authorization or consent
- 8 for its use of his likeness and The Dance for the Fresh emote.
- 9 33. Moreover, Ribeiro did not give Epic express or implied
- 10 consent for its use of his likeness and The Dance for the Fresh emote.
- 11 Epic also did not compensate Ribeiro for its use of his likeness and The
- 12 Dance for the Fresh emote.
- 13 34. Upon information and belief, Epic added the Fresh emote to
- intentionally exploit the popularity of Ribeiro and The Dance without
- providing Ribeiro any form of compensation.
- 16 35. Epic profited from its improper misappropriation of The - Dance and Ribeiro's likeness by, inter alia: 1) selling the infringing
- 18 Fresh emote directly to players; 2) advertising the Fresh emote to
- 19 attract additional players, including Ribeiro's fans or those persons
- familiar with The Dance to play Fortnite and make in-game purchases;
- 21 3) using Ribeiro's fame to stay relevant to its current players to
- 22 incentivize those players to continue playing Fortnite; 4) impliedly
- 23 representing that Ribeiro consented to Epic's use of his likeness; 5)
- 24 intentionally causing the erroneous public association between the
- 25 Fresh and The Dance; 6) creating the false impression that Ribeiro
- endorsed Fortnite; and 7) inducing and/or contributing to the
- 27 performance and misattribution of The Dance by others.

- 36. Upon information and belief, Epic uses The Dance, and other dances, to create the false impression that Epic started these dances and crazes or that the performer who created them is endorsing the Indeed, Epic induces others and/or contributes to their game. performance and false attribution of The Dance. Fortnite Players have posted thousands of videos of themselves performing the "Fresh" emote with the hashtag, #fortnitedance, without referencing The Dance or crediting Ribeiro as The Dance's creator and owner. Accordingly, upon information and belief, Epic actively and knowingly directs, causes, induces, and encourages others, including, but not limited to, its players, designers, suppliers, distributors, resellers. software developers, and repair providers, to misappropriate Ribeiro's likeness and The Dance.
- 37. Prominent artists, including Chancelor Johnathan Bennett, known as Chance the Rapper, and Terrence Ferguson, known as 2 Milly, have also publicly disapproved of Epic's practices, and advocated for Epic sharing profits with the artists that created these dances.
- 38. Epic has made a fortune from unlawfully and unfairly misappropriating Ribeiro's and other artists' creative expression, likeness, and endorsement without crediting or compensating these artists. Ribeiro thus brings this lawsuit to prevent Fortnite from further using his likeness and The Dance, and to recover the revenue rightfully owed to him.

- 1 40. In 1991, Ribeiro created The Dance and first performed it on
- 2 The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air during the episode Will's Christmas Show.
- 3 On or around August 15, 2006, the segment of The Fresh Prince of Bel-
- 4 Air during which Ribeiro performs The Dance was published to
- 5 YouTube where it can be accessed by millions of people. The video
- 6 shows Ribeiro, as Carlton Banks, performing The Dance to the tune of
- 7 Tom Jones "It's Not Unusual."
- 8 41. Ribeiro is the undisputed creator of the wildly popular and
- 9 immediately recognizable Dance. YouTube videos depicting Ribeiro's
- 10 performance in The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air are the original depictions
- of The Dance.
- 12 42. Ribeiro is in the process of registering The Dance with the
- 13 United States Copyright Office. On December 15, 2018, Ribeiro
- submitted an application for copyright registration of three variations
- of The Dance and assigned Copyright Office case numbers 1-
- 16 7226013364, 1-7226013290, and 1-7225814191.
- 17 43. Defendants have infringed and continue to infringe Ribeiro's
- 18 copyrights in The Dance by selling The Dance emote as an in-game
- 19 purchase, under the name "Fresh" that, if purchased, a player can use
- 20 to make his or her avatar perform during Fortnite gameplay;
- 21 substantially copying The Dance in digital form to the Fortnite game;
- 22 advertising The Dance in its promotional materials; and creating the
- 23 Fresh emote as a derivative work of The Dance.
- 24 44. Defendants did not seek to obtain Ribeiro's permission for
- 25 its use of The Dance for the Fresh emote. Nor have Defendants
- compensated or credited Ribeiro for their use of The Dance.
- 27 45. Moreover, Defendants actively and knowingly directed,
- caused, induced, and encouraged others, including, but not limited to,

- 1 its players, designers, suppliers, distributors, resellers, software
- developers, and repair providers, to misappropriate Ribeiro's likeness
- 3 and The Dance.
- 4 46. Defendants' acts of infringement have been willful,
- 5 intentional, and purposeful, in disregard of and with indifference to
- 6 Plaintiff's rights.
- 7 47. Defendants' willful and continued unauthorized use of The
- 8 Dance has caused and will continue to cause confusion and mistake by
- 9 leading the public to erroneously associate the Fresh emote offered by
- 10 Epic with The Dance in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.
- 11 48. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Ribeiro has been
- damaged by being precluded from receiving his rightful share of the
- profits earned by Epic for its improper and unlicensed use of Ribeiro's
- exclusive copyrights in The Dance in Fortnite.
- 15 49. Ribeiro is entitled to permanent injunctive relief preventing
- Defendants, and their officers, agents, and employees, and all related
- 17 persons from further using The Dance and engaging in other acts in
- 18 violation of Copyright law.
- 19 50. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants'
- 20 infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights and exclusive rights under
- 21 copyright, Ribeiro is also entitled to recover damages, including
- 22 attorneys' fees, and any profits obtained by Defendants as a result of
- 23 the infringements alleged above, in an amount according to proof to be
- 24 determined at the time of trial.

- 25 51. In doing the acts herein alleged, Defendants acted
- 26 fraudulently, willfully, and with malice, and Ribeiro is therefore
- entitled to punitive damages according to proof at the time of trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION (For Contributory Infringement of Copyright Against All

3 Defendants)

- 52. Ribeiro hereby repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 51 above, as though fully set forth herein.
- 53. Ribeiro is in the process of registering The Dance with the United States Copyright Office. On December 15, 2018, Ribeiro submitted applications for copyright registrations and assigned Copyright Office case numbers 1-7226013364, 1-7226013290, and 1-7225814191.
- 54. Defendants have infringed and continue to infringe Ribeiro's copyrights in The Dance by selling The Dance emote as an in-game purchase, under the name "Fresh" that, if purchased, a player can use to make his or her avatar perform during Fortnite gameplay; substantially copying The Dance in digital form to the Fortnite game; advertising The Dance in its promotional materials; and creating the Fresh emote as a derivative work of The Dance.
- 55. By providing the Fresh emote necessary for its players to commit direct copyright infringement, Defendants have and continue to materially contribute to the unauthorized reproductions and distributions by its players of The Dance.
- 56. Defendants did not seek to obtain Ribeiro's permission for its use of The Dance for the Fresh emote. Nor have Defendants compensated or credited Ribeiro for their use of The Dance.
- 57. Moreover, Defendants actively and knowingly directed, caused, induced, and encouraged others, including, but not limited to, its players, designers, suppliers, distributors, resellers, software

- developers, and repair providers, to misappropriate Ribeiro's likeness
- and The Dance.
- 3 58. Defendants' acts of infringement have been willful,
- 4 intentional, and purposeful, in disregard of and with indifference to
- 5 Plaintiff's rights.
- 6 59. Defendants' willful and continued unauthorized use of The
- 7 Dance has caused and will continue to cause confusion and mistake by
- 8 leading the public to erroneously associate the Fresh emote offered by
- 9 Epic with The Dance in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.
- 10 60. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Ribeiro has been
- damaged by being precluded from receiving his rightful share of the
- 12 profits earned by Epic for its improper and unlicensed use of Ribeiro's
- 13 exclusive copyrights in The Dance in Fortnite.
- 14 61. Defendants' conduct is causing and, unless enjoined and
- 15 restrained by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiff great and
- irreparable injury that cannot be compensated or measured in money.
- 17 Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502,
- 18 Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief, prohibiting further contributory
- infringements of Plaintiff's copyrights.
- 20 62. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants'
- 21 infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights and exclusive rights under
- 22 copyright, Ribeiro is also entitled to recover damages, including
- 23 attorneys' fees, and any profits obtained by Defendants as a result of
- 24 the infringements alleged above, in an amount according to proof to be
- 25 determined at the time of trial.
- 26 63. In doing the acts herein alleged, Defendants acted
- 27 fraudulently, willfully, and with malice, and Ribeiro is therefore
- 28 entitled to punitive damages according to proof at the time of trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION 1 2 (For Violation of the Right of Publicity Under California 3 Common Law Against All Defendants) 4 64. Ribeiro hereby repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 63, above, as though fully set forth 5 herein. 6 7 65. Through their use of The Dance as an in-game dance emote that can be purchased as the Fresh, Defendants misappropriated 8 Ribeiro's identity. The Fresh emote depicts Ribeiro performing The 9 10 Dance. 11 Upon information and belief, Defendants created the Fresh 66. 12 emote by capturing and digitally copying Ribeiro performing The Dance. 13 Defendants then utilized the digital copy to create code that, if 14 purchased, allows player avatars to perform The Dance. 15 Defendants did not seek or obtain Ribeiro's authorization or consent for its use of his likeness or The Dance for the Fresh emote. Nor 16 have Defendants compensated or credited Ribeiro for their use of his 17 likeness or The Dance. 18 19 Defendants used Ribeiro's likeness and The Dance to 20 generate significant wealth by: 1) selling the infringing Fresh emote 21 directly to players: 2) advertising the Fresh emote to attract additional 22 players, including Ribeiro's fans or those persons familiar with The 23 Dance to play Fortnite and make in-game purchases; 3) using Ribeiro's 24 fame to stay relevant to its current players to incentivize those players to continue playing Fortnite; 4) impliedly representing that Ribeiro 25 26 consented to Epic's use of his likeness; 5) intentionally causing the 27 erroneous public association between the Fresh and The Dance; 6) creating the false impression that Ribeiro endorsed Fortnite; and 7)

- inducing and/or contributing to the performance and misattribution of
 The Dance by others.
- 69. As a performance artist, Ribeiro exploits his identity by performing in shows, events, and with the media. Ribeiro was damaged by Defendants' conduct as he was prevented from reaping the profits of licensing his likeness or The Dance to Defendants.
 - 70. Defendants' conduct caused and will continue to cause confusion and mistake by leading the public to erroneously believe that Ribeiro consented to the use of his likeness or The Dance in the Fortnite game.
 - 71. Ribeiro is entitled to permanent injunctive relief preventing Defendants, and their officers, agents, and employees, and all related persons from further using his likeness or The Dance.
 - 72. Ribeiro is also entitled to recover damages, including any profits obtained by Defendants as a result of the infringements alleged above, in an amount according to proof to be determined at the time of trial.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(For Violation of the Right of Publicity Under Cal. Civ. Code § 3344 Against All Defendants)

- 73. Ribeiro hereby repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 72, above, as though fully set forth herein.
- 74. Through their use of The Dance as an in-game dance emote that can be purchased as the Fresh, Defendants misappropriated Ribeiro's identity. The Fresh emote depicts Ribeiro performing The Dance.

- Defendants' conduct caused and will continue to cause confusion and mistake by leading the public to erroneously believe that Ribeiro consented to the use of his likeness or The Dance in the Fortnite game.

80. Ribeiro is entitled to permanent injunctive relief preventing Defendants, and their officers, agents, and employees, and all related persons from further using his likeness or The Dance.

81. Ribeiro is also entitled to recover damages, including any profits obtained by Defendants as a result of the infringements alleged above, in an amount according to proof to be determined at the time of trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Unfair Competition Under Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200)

- 82. Ribeiro hereby repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 81, above, as though fully set forth herein.
- 83. By misappropriating Ribeiro's likeness through the improper use of The Dance, Defendants have engaged in business acts or practices that constitute unfair competition in violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code. § 17200.
- 84. As a result of Defendants' violations, Defendants have unjustly enriched themselves by: 1) selling the infringing Fresh emote directly to players; 2) advertising the Fresh emote to attract additional players, including Ribeiro's fans or those persons familiar with The Dance to play Fortnite and make in-game purchases; 3) using Ribeiro's fame to stay relevant to its current players to incentivize those players to continue playing Fortnite; 4) impliedly representing that Ribeiro consented to Epic's use of his likeness; 5) intentionally causing the erroneous public association between the Fresh and The Dance; 6) creating the false impression that Ribeiro endorsed Fortnite; and 7) inducing and/or contributing to the performance and misattribution of The Dance by others.

- 85. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Ribeiro has been damaged by Defendants' conduct as he was prevented from reaping the profits of licensing his likeness or The Dance to Defendants.
- 86. Ribeiro is entitled to permanent injunctive relief preventing Defendants, and their officers, agents, and employees, and all related persons from further using his likeness or The Dance.
- 87. Ribeiro is also entitled to recover damages, including any profits obtained by Defendants as a result of the misappropriation alleged above, in an amount according to proof to be determined at the time of trial.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Unfair Competition Under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

- 88. Ribeiro hereby repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 87 above, as though fully set forth herein.
- 89. Since debuting The Dance, The Dance has exploded in popularity. The Dance has become synonymous with Ribeiro, who is unanimously credited with creating the dance that bears his famous first role of Carlton Banks from The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air. Ribeiro has also been interviewed several times about the creation of The Dance and how to properly perform it. Accordingly, The Dance is a part of Ribeiro's identity and the dance's unique movements readily evoke imagery of Ribeiro's famous performances of The Dance.
- 90. Defendant's copying and relabeling of Ribeiro's The Dance has caused confusion, deception, and mistake by the creation of the false and misleading impression that Defendants were the creators of The Dance or that Ribeiro was somehow affiliated, connected, or associated with Defendants or provided sponsorship or approval to Defendants.

- 91. Defendants have further misrepresented the nature, characteristics, qualities and origin of The Dance. Defendants have diluted Ribeiro's signature Dance by inducing others to flood the Internet with videos with performances of The Dance without any attribution. Defendants have tarnished Riberio's signature Dance by incorporating it, without permission, into a violent video game.
- 92. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Ribeiro is damaged by Defendants' exploitation of his likeness through 1) selling the infringing Fresh emote directly to players; 2) advertising the Fresh emote to attract additional players, including Ribeiro's fans or those persons familiar with The Dance to play Fortnite and make in-game purchases; 3) using Ribeiro's fame to stay relevant to its current players to incentivize those players to continue playing Fortnite; 4) impliedly representing that Ribeiro consented to Epic's use of his likeness; 5) intentionally causing the erroneous public association between the Fresh and The Dance; 6) creating the false impression that Ribeiro endorsed Fortnite; and 7) inducing and/or contributing to the performance and misattribution of The Dance by others.
- 93. Ribeiro is entitled to permanent injunctive relief preventing Defendants, and their officers, agents, and employees, and all related persons from further using The Dance.
- 94. Ribeiro is also entitled to recover damages, including attorney's fees, as a result of the infringements alleged above, in an amount according to proof to be determined at the time of trial.
