Dear Jim:

As you are aware, we are actively at work preparing for George Mason University's capital campaign. Part of that effort includes the production of various promotional materials.

We are currently working on the slide presentation about the University, including what GMU offers the community, and the campaign case statement.

It is our feeling that your thoughts about the University would be most helpful for both of these. Specifically, we would like to audiotape a brief segment (about 15 to 20 minutes), and take some still photographs. Altogether, we expect it will take about 45 minutes.

I understand from Betty that you may be available Thursday, morning, October 26 at 9:00 a.m. Would it be possible for Dan Danner and the writers who are working on this project to visit with you at that time in your office?

I will follow up with Betty Monday to get your response.

Sincerely,

Richard H. Fink

Dear Jim:

Thank you for attending our first Steering Committee meeting at the Tower Club. Your remarks were very timely and well received.

We had a very productive discussion with the participants and many ideas were exchanged. These leaders of northern Virginia gave us very positive and important input and feedback.

Thanks again for being there and starting off the dialogue.

Sincerely yours,

Richard H. Fink
