Relator,	:	JUDGE ROBERT RUEHLMAN
v.s	:	AGREED JUDGMENT ENTRY
ALEXANDER PAUL GEORGE SITTENFELD, et al.	:	FINAL ENTRY

Respondents.

By and through counsel, the parties agree and the Court having been sufficiently advised, now therefore:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADJUDGED AS FOLLOWS:

1. State of Ohio ex rel. Mark W. Miller (“Relator”) has filed the within action against Respondents City of Cincinnati, Ohio (“City of Cincinnati”), as well as five of its Councilmembers Alexander Paul George Sittenfeld, Christopher Seelbach, Wendell Young, Tamaya Dennard, and Greg Landsman (the “Councilmember Respondents”) (the City of Cincinnati and the Councilmember Respondents are referred to collectively as the “Respondents”).

2. At all relevant times, Article II § 5 of the City Charter of the City of Cincinnati declared that “[t]he proceedings of the council shall be public,” and that “[t]he council shall keep a journal of its proceedings which shall be a public record.” Likewise, R.C. § 121.22(C) requires that “[a]ll meetings of any public body are declared to be public meetings open to the public at all times,” and further declares that “[t]he minutes of a regular or special meeting of any public body shall be promptly prepared, filed, and maintained and shall be open to public inspection.”

3. In White v. King, 147 Ohio St. 3d. 74, 2016-Ohio-2770, 60 N.E.3d 1234, the Ohio Supreme Court enunciated that “R.C. 121.22 prohibits any private prearranged discussion of public business by a majority of the members of a public body regardless of whether the discussion occurs face to face, telephonically, by video conference, or electronically by e-mail, text, tweet, or other form of communication.” Id., at ¶ 15.

4. Between January 1 through October 23, 2018, the Councilmember Respondents sent group text messages among each other, some of which constituted a private prearranged discussion of public business.

5. In October and November of 2018, Respondents used the services of Binary Intelligence to collect and process text messages from Councilmember Respondents’ cell phones, including taking steps to recover, if necessary, any and all text messages sent or received by Councilmember Respondents from January 1 through October 23, 2018.

6. Prior to the engagement of Binary Intelligence, Councilmember Respondent Young deleted text messages that were responsive to the Relator’s discovery requests and which, but for their deletion, would have been recovered by Binary Intelligence.

7. The Councilmember Respondents are hereby ENJOINED from conducting any private prearranged discussion of public business by a majority of the members of the Cincinnati City Council via a group text message, email chain, or telephone call.

8. With respect to the private prearranged discussions of public business by a majority of the members of the Cincinnati City Council by the Councilmember Respondents that occurred between January 1, 2018 and ended no later than October 23, 2018 (i.e. meetings), Respondents are hereby ENJOINED to create and maintain minutes of said meetings and make them available to the public. These minutes are attached as Exhibit A to this Agreed Entry.

9. Further, Respondents are ENJOINED to provide copies of the actual e-mails otherwise recorded communications (e.g. audio or video recordings), and text messages or other electronic communications which were recovered and/or collected by Binary Intelligence and that made up the meetings to the Relator within ten days of the date of this entry.

10. Further, Respondents are ENJOINED to provide copies of (1) all emails from the Councilmember Respondents' City or personal email accounts sent between the Councilmember Respondents or any combination of the Councilmember Respondents from January 1, 2018 – October 23, 2018 within 20 days of the date of this entry; and (2) all text messages between the Councilmember Respondents or any combination of the Councilmember Respondents from January 1, 2018 – October 23, 2018 which were recovered and/or collected by Binary Intelligence to Relator within ten days of the date of this entry. The production of these emails and text messages does not constitute an admission that they are all records under R.C. 149.011(G).

11. It is further ORDERED AND DECREED that, pursuant to the Open Meetings Act and R.C. 149.351, the City of Cincinnati shall pay to Relator Mark W. Miller, the sum of $1,000 as a statutory forfeiture pursuant to R.C. 121.22; the sum of $10,000 as a statutory forfeiture for Respondent Wendell Young having deleting his text messages, pursuant to R.C. 149.351; and attorney fees in the sum of $90,000, pursuant to R.C. 121.22 and 149.351.

12. It is further ORDERED AND DECREED that, pursuant to the Open Meetings Act, the City of Cincinnati shall pay all costs associated with this matter.

13. Relator agrees to release Respondents from any and all claims pursuant to Ohio's public records law and open meetings law arising out of the released communications.

14. The parties acknowledge service of process and waive any needed amendments or defects herein.

15. The parties represent they were each afforded opportunity to consult with independent legal counsel prior to entering into this Agreed Entry.

16. This Agreed Entry resolves and disposes of any and all claims of Relator held in any capacity against Respondents relating to all public records and open meetings matters which may have occurred prior to the date of this Entry and shall operate as res judicata and collateral estoppel against comparable claims being raised against Respondents.

17. Accordingly, the parties agree that any claims not specifically addressed by this Entry are dismissed with prejudice.

Hey Wendell, Greg, Tamaya & Chris. Please keep t o yourself for now, but Cranley asked me this morn ing about my feeling on the possible appointment o f a guy named Rayshon Mack to the vacant SORT
A board seat.

Me

Dates:1/19/2018 12:08:27 PM

He has retweeted stuff saying that "Democrats are dangerous to the general public" as well as retweet ed stuff from the Hamilton County Republican Part y as well as retweeted stuff from a known racist.

Me

Dates:1/19/2018 12:08:34 PM

We need to talk about these appointments. We nee d to vet these people.

Wendell Young

Dates:1/19/2018 12:08:44 PM

He has tweeted things himself that are overly anti-labor.

Me

Dates:1/19/2018 12:09:00 PM

He has tweeted things accusing me of "corruption"

Me

Dates:1/19/2018 12:09:21 PM

And he's tweeted things calling people like Bobby Hilton, Eric Kearney, and Dwight Tillery "Traitors" and "Snakes"

Me

Dates:1/19/2018 12:09:39 PM

And all of that is just from the last several days!!

Me

Dates:1/19/2018 12:09:40 PM

If he is who I think he is, he's a nut!

Wendell Young

Dates:1/19/2018 12:09:59 PM

You can guess where I would be on his nomination
- but wanted to see if any of you are inclined to co me to his defense in any way?

Me

Dates:1/19/2018 12:10:10 PM

(p.s. - Wendell, completely agree on increased vetting in general)

Me

Dates:1/19/2018 12:10:11 PM

Not me.

Wendell Young

Dates:1/19/2018 12:10:15 PM

Why not Eric Kearney? He's a avid rider.

Greg Landsman

Dates:1/19/2018 12:10:23 PM

Love that idea!

Me

Dates:1/19/2018 12:10:45 PM

But first seeing if there's something I'm missing w/Rayshon?

Me

Dates:1/19/2018 12:11:48 PM

I don't think you are :).

Greg Landsman

Dates:1/19/2018 12:13:37 PM

Encourage John to ask Kearney, I will too. He'd be a good fit. And I think he rides the bus everyday?

Michelle Dillingham reached out this morning about Rayshon Mack. In addition to everything that's been reported, she wanted to make sure we knew he continued to call her "Dopehead Dillingham" and a "junky" during the entire campaign. She's been clean and sober for at least 20 years.

John is appointing to the health board?

I don't know them and I am perfectly fine with holdi

vet appointees prior to a full council vote on confir

My issues with him. Especially responsible bidder. That I've worked on it for almost 6 years, I've made compromise after compromise when the other side wouldn't given an inch. Had 1,000 meetings. And then he goes last week and testifies for hours about it will basically bankrupt the city and prevent all AA people from getting work....without even talking to me. And also his lack of any kind of leadership on fixing the streetcar.

Wendell Young

Dates:3/12/2018 4:22:06 PM

Wendell, also, I agree with the sentiment that rather than some trial style format where people are called up one by one to smear Harry, any grievances from John should be submitted as a written document, and Council can then proceed to handle on its own timeline and as it sees fit. But no more of this crap where due process is thrown out the window.

Me

Dates:3/12/2018 4:22:52 PM

Absolutely!

Wendell Young

Dates:3/12/2018 4:24:06 PM

Chris Seelbach

But how can we control that if he does this through a committee one of you don't chair?

Dates:3/12/2018 4:24:45 PM

all of us won't be there in that case

Me

Dates:3/12/2018 4:25:21 PM

so I think it'll seem slanted. I'm talking about not using Full Council as a forum for some Soviet style trial

Dates:3/12/2018 4:26:54 PM

Wendell Young

A written document isn't a motion. We handle as we see fit. I agree we don't want to hold Kangaroo Court. I think we attend that committee meeting and organize dissent that shows what is going on.

Dates:3/12/2018 4:28:05 PM

Wendell Young

Meant to say if Cranley's document comes in the form of a motion we attend the committee meeting

Dates:3/12/2018 4:28:49 PM

Wendell Young

We could also move for immediate consideration at council and vote it down.

Dates:3/12/2018 4:33:38 PM

If it is Newport, I think we should be ready to help t he West End pursue serious, balanced (inclusive) development. A coalition there is emerging to do gr eat work. We should move quickly to help them. No t entirely sure what it looks like, but I think we shoul d be prepared to announce and/or begin to work o n efforts that will prioritize new (responsible) revitali zation efforts in the West End WITH the West End.
We should also consider what we would need to e nsure we don't lose businesses on the Banks, and that people who go to FC games in Newport come and spend money in Downtown/OTR. Maybe some coalition of business and transportation folks? Both seem like good efforts, and will help to address the inevitable rhetoric that we are denying the West En d hundreds of millions in new investments and that we could undermine an already fragile Banks busin ess district.

Greg, just keeping you posted: Chris, Wendell, T, and I do NOT support buyout for Harry.

Me

Harry 100% does not want the buyout. But needs assurance that he has 5 votes not only against firing him. But also against voting for buyout.

Me

Dates:3/16/2018 2:42:45 PM

T, you are too?

Me

Dates:3/16/2018 2:45:18 PM

Absolutely

Tamaya Denard

Dates:3/16/2018 2:54:28 PM

Team, I knew there was one thing I meant to bring up that I forgot to on the call. 4 of us at a time need to have a conversation with Harry about things he needs to do to improve. I've overtly told him I believe he needs to seek some sort of counseling. But he needs to hear it collectively from us, and to frankly understand that his job depends on correcting certain things.

Me

Dates:3/16/2018 2:54:44 PM

should we schedule a meeting with him for next week - with all of us minus Chris, who will be OOT?

Me

Dates:3/16/2018 2:56:37 PM

Not now please. I think he would view this as a softening of support. May I suggest we reserve that conversation for after we get through this process?

Wendell Young

Dates:3/16/2018 2:57:51 PM

Wendell, I'm okay waiting if the others agree. HOW EVER, it's a conversation that must be had - sooner rather than later. Harry struggles with some things and needs to know we support him, but also bring certain expectations. I'll defer to the group on timing.

Me

Dates:3/16/2018 3:00:15 PM

Wendell Young

I too will abide by what the group decides. For me there here is the recognition that Harry is under an enormous amount of pressure. I worry that he would view the conversation as us piling on. The timing isn't good.

Dates:3/16/2018 3:46:14 PM

Separate FYI: the #2 at the Sentinels just called me and asked that I pass this along: she and Lou Arnold just had a meeting with John, where she said John tried to divide and conquer the Sentinels from the other African-American groups, and also intentionally misrepresented the Manager's position. Not for public consumption, but she asked that you all be notified.

Me

Dates:3/16/2018 3:47:45 PM

Divide and conquer is his thing. He tried to do that to me twice this week

Tamaya Denard

Dates:3/16/2018 3:55:17 PM

Wendell Young

You saw that on a larger scale during the Responsible Bidder wrangling. He tried to pit the Urban League, Ministers Alliance, CAA, and others against the NAACP, The Black Agenda, and more. Typical Cranley tactic. Don't forget that he will lie in a heartbeat.

Wendell Young

Dates:3/17/2018 4:44:13 PM

Supposedly Harry has accepted an 18 month buyout and may force a vote of Council. Just so everyone know, I am 100% a no against any buyout.

Dates:3/17/2018 4:45:31 PM

I am also a firm No. I'm not looting the taxpayers because John is threatening a smear campaign. That's holding both Harry and the taxpayers hostage.

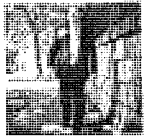

Me

This whole thing disgusts me at many levels.

Greg Landsman

Dates:3/18/2018 9:51:38 AM

We should probably release some kind of statement in response to yesterday's news, reaffirming the majority of Council does not support a buyout. Everyone agree? PG could you draft something?

Dates:3/18/2018 9:56:32 AM

If the group wants that, I could draft something later today. Just me know.

mic

Dates:3/18/2018 11:33:43 AM

Ok with me.

Wendell Young

Dates:3/18/2018 1:20:54 PM

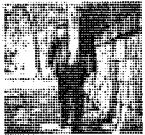

Chris Seelbach

Is everyone good with this? Or have changes? "If the Manager wishes to move on from his current role, we respect that decision. But the Council Majority remains firm that we are not signing off on paying someone extra to not do their job. That is neither fair nor responsible to the taxpayers. Moreover, it is our understanding that, in fact, the Manager does enjoy his job; he simply doesn't like the idea of serving under the looming threat of a smear campaign. That, too, is understandable. But asking the taxpayers to provide significant resources in order to avoid the impact of such a smear campaign would set a dangerous precedent and enable behavior which we do not approve of. We reiterate our call for a ceasefire, and we remain committed to the thoughtful, fair, transparent next steps we have previously laid out. We believe in the City Charter, we believe in honesty, and we believe in collaboration. All are welcome to join us in upholding these pillars."

Greg Landsman

Sorry. I am just finishing up. I don't think we need a statement. And I don't like commenting on what Harry might or might not think or want. Also think some of it is unnecessary inflammatory. We are trying to bring some maturity to this ridiculous situation. To deescalate. If we do something, I would suggest something short and simple. But again, I don't think we need a statement. Here is what I have personally sent to people and reporters: "My position hasn't changed and I believe that's true for the majority. I don't support a big buyout. We need all the facts, and that's the point of the independent counsel. As I've said from the beginning, the issues need to be addressed in the next couple of weeks."

Dates:3/18/2018 2:21:35 PM

Greg, I do think there's value in the 5 of us putting something out

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:22:27 PM

Here's another crack at it, even though this feels watered down to me and doesn't speak to why a buyout is really so offensive.

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:23:18 PM

"Our position has not changed. We do not support an increased buyout or believe that's responsible to the taxpayers. We reiterate our call for a ceasefire, and we remain committed to the thoughtful, fair, transparent next steps we have previously laid out. Let's collect the needed facts quickly and calmly. We believe in the City Charter, we believe in honesty, and we believe in collaboration. All are welcome to join us in upholding these pillars."

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:24:08 PM

Could ppl live with that? Again not my first choice, but I think a collective statement is important

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:24:55 PM

I fine with the first two paragraphs.

Greg Landsman

Dates:3/18/2018 2:25:24 PM

Ok, why not 3rd?

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:26:12 PM

I think first two paragraphs better than nothing.... (even though again feels too watered down)

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:28:03 PM

Wendell Young

I'm ok with this but it is really watered down. If this is what it takes to gain consensus then ok. I think the third paragraph is important in that it offers a rationale for our statement. Greg I hope you will reconsider your thoughts on the third paragraph.

Dates:3/18/2018 2:28:39 PM

3rd paragraph feels like mom and apple pie - who could disagree?!

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:29:23 PM

Is there version of 3rd graf you can make work, Greg?

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:36:30 PM

Greg Landsman

"We believe in a collaborative process, and look forward to working through this with everyone." The current language feels like petty, "tit for tat" stuff. Again, short and simple seems right, and the first two paragraphs feel sufficient. If people want to add more flavor, they can do that individually. Lol.

Dates:3/18/2018 2:38:21 PM

Alright, I'll sacrifice my own feelings for consensus. Everyone okay for Harmon to email statement out with first 2 grafs + Greg's 3rd ?

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:39:33 PM

So final would be:

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:41:14 PM

"Our position has not changed. We do not support an increased buyout or believe that's responsible to the taxpayers. We reiterate our call for a ceasefire, and we remain committed to the thoughtful, fair, transparent next steps we have previously laid out. Let's collect the needed facts quickly and calmly. W e believe in a collaborative process, and look forward to working through this with all stakeholders."

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:41:39 PM

Then ppl can individually put their own mustard on it

Me

Dates:3/18/2018 2:41:47 PM

Ok?

Two things: 1) Kevin Aldridge wants to talk to a few members of the Majority tomorrow at 11am for our insights on this situation - Wendell or T, would you want to? Me

Dates:3/19/2018 6:10:59 PM

2) Steve Megerle from Pastor's office came to my office at 4pm today and said, what if 8 months of Harry's salary came from the public (per the contract), and then another 10 months worth of severance came from a private source (if that were even legal or ethical). My response to him was: Me

Dates:3/19/2018 6:11:26 PM

1) I don't know 2) I'd have to confer with the majority 3) it would be contingent on very direct input on who the incoming manager would be 4) Harry would obviously have to want to go that route too Me

Dates:3/19/2018 6:12:03 PM

but Megerle/Pastor seem to already be trying to spread some horseshit rumor that I might flip - so just don't want any of you believing it. Same crap they tried to pull w/ Tamaya and Wendell, etc.

Me

Dates:3/20/2018 10:19:55 AM

Cranley has called Iris, my Pastor Lynch, Jr and Lynch III to try to flip me.

Dates:3/20/2018 10:23:35 AM

Tamaya Denard

Dates:3/20/2018 10:24:11 AM

by the way, if it were 8 months of public severance and another 10 months from a private source, would any of you support that? that's what they're trying to cook up now

Me

Dates:3/20/2018 10:25:38 AM

I think I would be fine with that.

Tamaya Denard

Dates:3/20/2018 10:26:37 AM

financially, it's hard to object to. though I think a lot of the community would be weirded out by a private source stepping in, and wondering what was trying to be covered up

Me

Dates:3/20/2018 10:27:32 AM

That's super weird and the optics are bad. There's Something Cranley doesn't want us to know

Tamaya Denard

Dates:3/20/2018 10:39:12 AM

Harry has something on Cranley. That non disparagement and confidentiality clause is probably every thing

Tamaya Denard

Dates:3/20/2018 11:12:18 AM

If Harry gets enough outside money to make leaving palatable, we can't make him stay. I think it's bad precedent and it fixes nothing. The issues that gave rise to this situation remain in place. I agree there is something Cranley doesn't want to deal with. Cranley is feeling the heat. Let's hold together. Stay strong!

Wendell Young

Dates:3/20/2018 11:13:50 AM

so if I'm hearing you right, if Black got 8 months public severance and 10 months private, it would be hard for you to say No? But if it was 12 months public severance (meaning 4 months above what his contract states) and another 6 months private severance, you would say No to that? is that correct?

Me

Dates:3/20/2018 12:39:12 PM

No, I'm not okay with a buyout in any form. I'm saying it isn't likely Harry will pass up the money and we can't make him stay.

Has this ever happened in the entire country? That private money pays a public employee to quit? That's what Jason Williams should be writing about. So someone is so scared of what Harry Black might say, they private money is going to pay him hundreds of thousands of dollars to leave.

Dear Mayor Cranley, City Manager Black, Members of the Public, and Members of the Media:

We have watched this unfortunate saga unfold in recent days, and feel strongly that it is now on us - the Council Majority - to bring order and a fair process to this situation.

To be clear, anyone who wishes to bring forward concerns or report misconduct must feel safe and comfortable doing so. We actively want your voice to be heard.

We also believe strongly in due process. No one's name or reputation should be tarnished without there being clear evidence (beyond just "he said, she said") as well as a fair opportunity for that individual to respond.

We share the serious concern of organizations like the Urban League, Community Action Agency, NAACP, the Black Agenda, NAN, the Black United Front and others that present behavior is rolling back the clock on race relations in Cincinnati; we will not abet the intentional denigration of another black leader in our community.

We also do not support forcing the taxpayers to pay out of their own pockets for what is currently a broken relationship. We believe there are much better immediate next steps.

First, this situation clearly must be de-politicized and taken out of the hands of those most directly in the fog of war: Therefore, we are calling for the appointment of an outside Special Counsel (appointed by a majority of City Council), to collect and investigate the concerns raised by the Mayor, any and all counter-factuals from the City Manager, and testimony from city employees or any other directly involved stakeholders. This Special Counsel will then write a report to be submitted to City Council for our review.

At the same time, we are calling for a ceasefire between the Mayor and City Manager, during which they both agree to say nothing more on the subject and to focus on the City's work. During this ceasefire, Council will bring in a pro bono mediator to privately help the Mayor and Manager navigate their relationship and return to getting things done for the citizens of Cincinnati. Lastly, during this ceasefire, we call for no personnel changes.

Council will control this process as it unfolds, and if the need and desire for what the Mayor has called a "public trial" remains, then Council will control the time, date, and location of such a special meeting. Because of the significant interest from concerned members of the community, such a specially-called meeting would occur in the evening, be held out in the community, and be posted with at least two weeks notice to the public.

We look forward to cool heads prevailing, these issues being properly addressed, and everyone getting back to work for the city we love.

Sincerely,

Tamaya Dennard
