

East Cowes 2019

Bicentennial Celebrations

Thursday 23rd

Unveiling of the Bicentennial V&A bench by HRH The Duke of Kent

11:00 – 12:00 (HRH will be attending late morning) @ Jubilee Recreation Ground

Friday 24th

Opening of The Queen Victoria Trail by the Mayors of Coburg & East Cowes

16:00 – 16:30 @ Osborne House carpark entrance

Saturday 25th

Grand Exhibition

09:30-17:30 @ East Cowes Town Hall

Churches Together

10:00 – 11:00 @ Jubilee Recreation Ground

Victorian Day

10:00 – 15:00 @ Kings Square (by Waitrose)

Town Show - Victorian Time Machine

19:30 @ East Cowes Town Hall – Tickets £5 per person on the door

Sunday 26th

Grand Exhibition

09:30-17:30 @ East Cowes Town Hall

Grand Procession

11:00 - The grand procession will start at the Sovereign's Gate Osborne House. It will then go down York Avenue, through the town and end at the Esplanade

RNLI Open Day

10:00 onwards @ RNLI East Cowes

Esplanade Festival

12:00 – 21:00 @ East Cowes Esplanade

Live music on two stages. 40+ stalls.

Entertainment. £2.50 per person on the gate (under 5 free). Dress as a Victorian and get in free!

Bank Holiday Monday 27th

Grand Exhibition

09:30-15:30 @ East Cowes Town Hall

East Cowes Beach Clean

10:00 – 11:30 @ East Cowes Esplanade

A Talk on Marie Of Edinburgh By Dr Susan House-Wade

18:30 – 21:30 @ St Mildred's Church

A Talk on Queen Victoria's granddaughter the last queen of Romania. The harpist Theresa Ellis will welcome you to nibbles and a glass of bubbly. Tickets are £7.50 on the door.

Quay Crafts group exhibition - 'Beyond The Red Rope'

Thursday – Sunday 11:00 – 16:00 running until 2nd June @ Space5, Clarence Road

