A hybrid, I asked them to peel your group off to have discussion either before or after. Breanna is trying to coord. Otherwise meeting will be dominated by this topic. There are many other topics to hear about.

I will be there tomorrow for the DHS meeting, do you know where things stand as far as the meeting with ICE that you were trying to set for next Friday? I'm assuming that is a no go at this point or are we waiting for the outcome of the DHS meeting tomorrow?

That is awesome, we accept....one proviso my schedule is whacked but this important enough to try to solve sked issues.

The important player is not me but folks copied herein. These are sheriffs and lawyers that know this stuff cold.

Copied Breanna and Marcia to help figure out moving parts to study next step. Breanna was with me today at DHS and has their perspective of late.

Eager to keep this going.

The senior staff and I, including Dale at the Immigration Reform Law Institute spent most of the last few days turning over your detainer/ACLU issues. One person you haven't spoken to is probably our best on this issue, Matt O'Brien – our Research Director – and a former official at DHS/USCIS.

We've developed an unofficial "task force" here specifically to lend support and advice to you. I'd like to suggest/offer that our team come over to the NSA next week and meet with you. By that point, more info will be evident from the field work you and the sheriffs are doing this week.

If interested in a full pro-bono consultation, tell me what day.
