Description:
Hi Tasha, I wanted to see if the following three individuals would be available for a meeting: Jason Larrabee, Assistant Secretary (Acting), Fish and Wildlife and Parks Greg Sheehan Deputy Director, United States Fish and Wildlife Service Dan Jorjani, Solicitor (Acting), United States Department of the Interior Those who would attend the meeting include: Luke Johnson, Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, Bill McGrath, Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, and Alan Mintz Van Ness Feldman. They would like to discuss critical habitat issues and Rosemont Copper. Ideally, they would like to meet next Tuesday, January 23, 2018. If possible, 5:00 pm would be ideal. If that does not work, we can make any other time work on Tuesday. Please let me know if this might be possible. Thank you so much for your help.
Best, Aileen M. Monahan

Description:
Hi all, Please join us to discuss "The Train to Crystal City: FDR's Secret Prisoner Exchange Program and America's Only Family Internment Camp During World War II" by Jan Jarboe Russell. Please join us in the newly renovated Library for this discussion, and let us know if you need help borrowing a copy of this book via interlibrary loan. As always, all are welcome and you don't need to finish the book to join us. About The Train to Crystal City: By now, most Americans past high school have learned something about the internment of Japanese-Americans after the bombing of Pearl Harbor in 1940; until recently a not much-discussed piece of history—the internment of citizens mostly born on our soil—was, to many, a blight on the human rights record of the Roosevelt administration. But what The Train to Crystal City makes clear is that Executive Order 9066, which paved the way for internment of Japanese Americans, was just one of the questionable human rights decisions the wartime administration made.

Accoding to this dramatic, copiously detailed but still very readable account, a camp in Crystal City, Texas housed American-born children of German and Italian descent as well as Japanese, and many of those children were traded for "more ostensibly important Americans—diplomats, businessmen, soldiers, and missionaries" who were stuck behind enemy lines. (The program was dubbed the "quiet passage.") How did such a thing happen? To find out, author Jan Jarboe Russell looked into government files (surprise: Eleanor Roosevelt did not agree with her husband the president and publicly abhorred internment of "Oriental-looking people," suggesting that it was un-American) and interviewed now-adult survivors who had been in the camp as children, most notably a Japanese-American girl named Sumi and a German American one named Ingrid. Though the two never met, their stories, taken together, celebrate the pluck and resilience on the part of many survivors. They also paint a vivid picture, all too applicable today, of a country beset by wartime fear, bigotry and governmental misguidance.

Description:
General Counsels, I am hopeful that we will not have to implement lapse plans for the foreseeable future, but I think it would be useful to have a call with agency GCs and Deputy GCs to ensure we have done a robust review of lapse plans to make any future shutdown as minimally disruptive as possible for federal employees and the American people. I would like to have a call at 10 am tomorrow to discuss lapse plans. Please make every effort to have you or your deputy participate in the call. Participant Dial-in: (b) (9)

Description:
Hi all, Please join us on Tuesday March 6 to discuss the New York Times bestseller, Killers of the Flower Moon: The Osage Murders and the Birth of the FBI by David Grann. We will meet in the renovated DOI Library, accessible from the C Street Lobby of the Main Interior Building. Everyone is welcome and you don't need to finish the book to join us. Tell your friends! Book info: The Amazon Editors' Pick for the Best Book of 2017: In the 1920s, the Osage found themselves in a unique position among Native American tribes. As other tribal lands were parcelled out in an effort by the government to encourage dissolution and assimilation of both lands and culture, the Osage negotiated to maintain the mineral rights of their corner of Oklahoma, creating a kind of "underground reservation." It proved a savvy move; soon countless oil rigs punctured the dusty landscape, making the Osage very rich. And that's when they started dying. You'd think the Osage Indian Reservation murders would have been an abigger story, one as familiar as the Lindbergh kidnapping or Bonnie and Clyde. It has everything, but at scale: Execution-style shootings, poisonings, and exploding houses drove the body count to over twodozen, while private eyes and undercover operatives scoured the territory for clues. Even as legendary and infamous oil barons vied for the most lucrative leases, J. Edgar Hoover's investigation - which he would leverage to enhance both the prestige and power of his fledgling FBI - began to overtake even the town's most respected leaders. Exhuming the massive amount of detail is no mean feat, and it's even harder to make it entertaining. But journalist David Grann knows what he's doing. With the same obsessive attention to fact - in service to storytelling - as The Lost City of Z, Killers of the Flower Moon reads like narrative nonfiction as written by James M. Cain (there are, after all, insurance policies involved): smart, taut, and pacey. Most sobering, though, is how the tale is at once unsurprising and unbelievable, full of the arrogance, audacity, and inhumanity that continues to reverberate through today's headlines. — Jon Foro, TheAmazon Book Review

Where:
Calendar: leopold.matt@epa.gov
Created by: Daniel Jorjani
Who: Kyle Scherer, Mariagrazia Caminiti, Fotouhi, David, Daniel Jorjani
Description:
Re: issues related to treaty rights and water quality Please enter through the William Jefferson Clinton North building. If you are coming by taxi/vehicle, you want to be dropped off on 12th Street NW, between Pennsylvania and Constitution Avenue. The entrance is almost exactly halfway between the two avenues next to the Federal Triangle Metro sign and with the Trump Hotel across the street. From 12th Street, facing the building with the EPA and American flags, walk toward the building (under the flags) and take the glass door on your right hand side with the escalators going down to the metro on your right. This is the North Lobby entrance to the William Jefferson Clinton building. If you are coming by Metro, exit at the Federal Triangle Metro station, go up the escalators and the North Lobby entrance will be on your right as you exit at the top of the escalators.

Description:
Join us in the Library to discuss A Walk in the Woods by Bill Bryson. If you don't finish it - come anyway. A Walk in the Woods: Rediscovering America on the Appalachian Trail by Bill Bryson (1999). 305 pages. Back in America after twenty years in Britain, Bill Bryson decided to reacquaint himself with his native country by walking the 2,100-mile Appalachian Trail, which stretches from Georgia to Maine. The AT offers an astonishing landscape of silent forests and sparkling lakes—and to a writer with the comic genius of Bill Bryson, it also provides endless opportunities to witness the majestic silliness of his fellow human beings. For a start there's the gloriously out-of-shape Stephen Katz, a buddy from Iowa along for the walk. Despite Katz's overwhelming desire to find cozy restaurants, he and Bryson eventually settle into their stride, and while on the trail they meet a bizarre assortment of hilarious characters. But A Walk in the Woods is more than just a laugh-out-loud hike. Bryson's acute eye is a wise witness to this beautiful but fragile trail, and as he tells its fascinating history, he makes a moving plea for the conservation of America's last great wilderness. An adventure, a comedy, and a celebration, A Walk in the Woods has become a modern classic of travel literature.

Description:
All, As previously promised here's your official "invite" to next year's National Level Emergency Management Exercise. Please accept it in order for it to appear as a reminder next May on your calendar. Attached are the slides with additional details provided by OEM on 7/20. The Table Top National Level Exercise will be a hurricane/tropical storm scenario. May 7 - COGCON 2 - EM Coordinator & Senior leadership at Site C May 8 - COGCON 1 - EM Coordinator & Senior leadership at Site C The major objectives of the exercise will be: - Employee Accountability - Communications - Engage Political Leadership - Test IT Connectivity I also intend to schedule a SOL management meeting 2 weeks prior (if not before) to this so that we may discuss internally who's participating/going to Site C & on what day, as well as other details of the exercise that may require advance planning on our part. Thanks for your assistance, David The reminder is set to alert you the day before in case you need to be at Site C on Day 1.

Description:
Our next book will be Arctic Dreams by Barry López (1986) 496 pagesBased on Barry Lopez’s years spent traveling the Arctic regions in the company of Eskimo hunting parties and scientific expeditions alike, Arctic Dreams investigates the unique terrain of the human mind, thrown into relief against the vastness of the tundra and the frozen ocean. Eye-opening and profoundly moving, it is a magnificent appreciation of how wilderness challenges and inspires us. “The nation’s premier nature writer” travels to a landscape at once barren and beautiful, perilous and alluring, austere yet teeming with vibrant life, and shot through with human history (San Francisco Chronicle). The Arctic has for centuries been a destination for the most ambitious explorers—a place of dreams, fears, and awe-inspiring spectacle. This “dazzling” account by the author of Of Wolves and Men takes readers on a breathtaking journey into the heart of one of the world’s last frontiers (The New York Times).

Description:
Hi all, The votes are in and for our next book, we will read The Feather Thief: Beauty, Obsession, and the Natural History Heist of the Century by Kirk Wallace Johnson. It just edged out Simon Winchester's Pacific: Silicon Chips and Surfboards, Coral Reefs and Atom Bombs, Brutal Dictators, Fading Empires, and the Coming Collision of the World's Superpowers so we will read that for our Sept/October meeting. We'll meet in the Library and no RSVP is necessary. You can also come if you don't finish the book—many of us often don't. Spread the word! And you can contact the Reference Desk with any questions - (202)208-5815 or library@ios.doi.gov Happy reading! Shannon
