Our agenda is finding the truth

The Editorial

Thursday, March 6, 2003

Dear Reader,

Let us first be clear, yet.

Table

Facts, as far as our two countries are concerned, are the pillar of our relationship with the United States. And we are being kind here—a misrepresentation of the situation is the pretension of what amounts to—and we're being kind here—a misrepresentation of the facts. It seems to us that we might be able to agree on honest and efficient debate on a public policy issue—not on Jayhawkers' views. More to the point, is our goal in examining the Texas Backwater Pump Project at least as applicable to Sherry and

Is the agenda of the Brazos backwater Pump Project clear or not a clear—

Despite some rather abrupt shifts from the initial stance of the agenda, our agenda is neither to benefit nor obstruct the advancement of that project. Not that we have any illusions that it would make any difference to those of a certain mindset, but Because at least in Sherry and Issaquena counties, that simply isn't so. And we know it.

Yours,

[Signature]