Re: UC Affiliation with Entities that Impose Religious Restrictions on Health Care

Dear Chancellor Hawgood and Chair Majumdar:

Over the past year, our organizations publicly expressed our very serious concerns about UCSF entering into an extensive affiliation with Dignity Health, which was to be a model for affiliations throughout the University of California system.¹ Dignity Health imposes significant religious restrictions that prohibit the provision of evidence-based, comprehensive reproductive health care and gender-affirming care in its Catholic hospitals, resulting in harmful and discriminatory treatment of patients.

During a debate over the proposed affiliation that took place during this period, UC representatives repeatedly asserted that the religious health care directives followed by Dignity Health would not prevent UC providers placed in Dignity Health hospitals from treating patients in accordance with UC's mission and its legal obligations to provide care that is free of bias and religious influence. Documents provided by UC, however, in response to a Public Records Act request, reveal that even at the time of these assertions, UCSF and all other UC campuses with medical centers already had entered into contracts with Dignity Health that explicitly tie the hands of UC providers and require them to comply with Dignity Health’s religious doctrine.

We are writing now to express our alarm about these contracts and statements by UCSF regarding a future affiliation with Dignity Health; to reiterate our position that this type of affiliation violates UCSF’s legal obligations; and to request that UCSF terminate these contracts and refrain from entering into any new arrangements that would subject UCSF faculty, staff, trainees, students, or patients to religious restrictions on care.

Background

Catholic hospitals, like those in the Dignity Health network, must follow the Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services, established by the US Conference of Catholic Bishops.² These directives prohibit hospitals from providing a range of reproductive health services and go so far as to characterize them as “inherently evil.”³ In addition, the Conference of Catholic Bishops has been very clear that as a religious matter it does not recognize transgender people or the propriety of gender-affirming care.⁴ These principles are borne out in the practices of Dignity Health and other Catholic hospitals, resulting in discriminatory denials of care to transgender patients.

In 2018, UCSF proposed to the UC Board of Regents an extensive partnership with Dignity Health that would have channeled UCSF patients into Dignity Health hospitals in the Bay Area and would also have placed UCSF faculty, trainees, and students in those hospitals. This deal was proposed as a model that would extend to other UC campuses in the future. Following extensive protest from within the UC community and from other stakeholders, UCSF abandoned its proposal on May 28, 2019.

Our organizations jointly wrote to you, Chancellor Hawgood, on March 12, 2019, describing in detail the nature of the Catholic directives and their harmful impact on patients and providers, and raising serious concerns about the legality of the affiliation proposed by UCSF. That letter is included here as an attachment. In March, the ACLU of Northern California also submitted a Public Records Act request to UC in order to determine the nature of any existing affiliations between UC campuses and entities that restrict health care based on religious doctrine.

Existing Contracts Require UC Providers to Comply with Religious Restrictions on Care

In promoting the affiliation with Dignity Health, UC leaders repeatedly asserted that its providers placed at Dignity Health facilities would not be “under a gag rule” and could provide appropriate care to patients. For example, in an email to UCSF colleagues on April 26, 2019, UCSF Health

President Mark Laret and UCSF School of Medicine Dean Talmadge King wrote “[J]ust as they do at our facilities, UCSF health care providers will have full latitude to discuss and arrange all appropriate medical services when caring for patients at any Dignity Health facility.”⁵ And Dana Gossett, Vice Chair of Strategy for UCSF Health, stated at the December 11, 2018 meeting of the California Board of Regents Health Services Committee that, “there’s no restriction on counselling on all the contraceptive options that exist currently, or on providing a prescription.”⁶

It turns out, however, that even as these assertions were being made, every single UC campus with a medical center had an active or former agreement with a religious health care entity that specifically limited the practice of UC providers at these facilities because of religious doctrine.

Signed in September 2018, a current training agreement between Dignity Health and the UCSF schools of Medicine, Nursing, and Pharmacy contains in its “Compliance with Standards” section a sub-section entitled “Prohibited Procedures,” which begins: “School shall not perform and shall cause each Student and Instructor not to perform the following procedures in connection with the Field Experience at [Dignity Health] Training Site.” (emphasis added) This text is followed by a list of banned procedures that follows the mandates of the religious directives.⁷

Under the list of “prohibited procedures,” students and faculty are barred from providing abortion “even in the case of extrauterine pregnancy,” as well as other forms of reproductive health care and compassionate end-of-life services. Not only are they prohibited from providing contraception, they are forbidden even from the “promotion of contraceptive practices.” They are also not allowed to perform treatment for victims of sexual assault if the purpose or result is the “removal, destruction or interference with implantation of a fertilized ovum.” To ensure compliance, participating students must sign a “Declaration of Responsibilities” stating that they agree to conform to the policies and procedures of the training site.

Another UCSF agreement expressly states that UCSF physicians practicing at Dignity Health facilities shall perform their obligations under the agreement in a manner consistent with the religious directives.⁸

UC Davis, UC Irvine, UCLA, UC Riverside, and UC San Diego have similar contracts that impose religious restrictions on care and, in some instances, require students and faculty to sign agreements stating that they will comply with the policies of the religious institution.⁹

UC May Not Legally Subject its Providers and Patients to Religiously Restricted and Discriminatory Care

As we have previously expressed, any affiliation between UC and Dignity Health that subjects UC providers and patients to Dignity Health’s religious restrictions on care violates a range of state and federal laws. Given California’s—and UC’s—historic leadership in ensuring access to comprehensive reproductive health care and gender-affirming care, however, it is particularly disappointing that UC would put itself in a position so contrary to the values embodied in California law.

As a public university system open to all, a foundational value of the University of California is freedom from religious influence. Indeed, the California Constitution includes language to ensure that UC will not entangle itself in the type of religious restriction on its activities that is manifest in the contracts between the UC campuses and Catholic health care entities. The Constitution states: “[t]he university [of California] shall be entirely independent of all political or sectarian influence and kept free therefrom in the appointment of its regents and in the administration of its affairs”¹⁰

California also has a long history of passing and interpreting laws that protect individuals’ rights to access reproductive health care. Since the early 1980s, our courts have recognized that abortion is a pregnancy outcome that must be treated by public entities as equal to childbirth in the eyes of the law¹¹, and California’s Reproductive Privacy Act, passed in 2002, declares that it is the public policy of the state that every individual has the fundamental right to choose or refuse birth control and further states: “[t]he state shall not deny or interfere with a woman’s fundamental right to choose to bear a child or to choose to obtain an abortion”¹²

Similarly, California was one of the first states to make clear that our anti-discrimination laws prohibit discrimination based on transgender status. And just last month, a California appellate court found that Evan Minton, an ACLU plaintiff who was denied a gender-affirming hysterectomy at a Catholic Dignity Health hospital, was discriminated against when he was refused this care.¹³

Indeed, the fact that UC campuses entered into the contracts described above puts UC at odds with the legal positions taken by the State of California, which has been a leader in resisting the Trump administration’s attempt to increase the ability of health care providers to invoke religion as a basis to discriminate. As the California Attorney General wrote in that case, the rule proposed by the Trump Administration violated the Establishment Clause of the federal constitution because: it elevates the religious beliefs of objectors over the rights, beliefs, and interests of providers and patients; and it coerces religious exercise by requiring providers and patients to act in accordance with the objecting employees’ religious beliefs.¹⁴ Under this analysis, the contracts that UC campuses already have with Dignity Health and St. Joseph Health, another Catholic entity, also violate the Establishment Clause.

Patients of Color Are Negatively Affected by Catholic Health Care Restrictions

Proponents of UC affiliation with Dignity Health have asserted that this type of partnership would increase access health care access to and be beneficial for underserved patients. This argument is perplexing, since patients of color, low-income patients, and others who experience systemic barriers to health care access are most in need of quality, comprehensive care, including reproductive health care and bias-free care for LGBTQ people.

Research shows that pregnant women of color are already more likely than white women to give birth at Catholic facilities, meaning they are more likely to receive care that is dictated by religious doctrine rather than evidence-based medicine, which exacerbates existing health disparities.¹⁵ To properly serve these communities, UC should be working to ensure that patients are free from religious restrictions on care, not sending UC patients and providers to Catholic facilities where they cannot obtain or provide comprehensive, patient-centered care.

Care Prohibited Under the Catholic Religious Directives Is Basic Health Care and Cannot Be Isolated from Other Care

Affiliation proponents have also suggested that concerns about the negative impact of the religious directives on UC providers and patients could be eliminated as long as the relationship between UC and Dignity Health does not involve the practice of obstetrics and gynecology. Additionally, UCSF's announcement that it would no longer pursue its previously envisioned affiliation with Dignity Health stated that UCSF was still seeking to find "a viable path forward to help meet patient needs and increase access to crucial health services, including in the areas of adolescent and adult psychiatry, surgical services, primary care and cancer care."¹⁶

Arguments along these lines fail to consider the extent to which reproductive health care is basic health care, as is gender-affirming care for transgender patients. Cardiology, cancer treatment, pediatrics, primary care, emergency care, and mental health are among the many areas of care that can intersect with the religious directives—as evidenced by a UCSF contract with Dignity Health for cardiology services that includes a paragraph on compliance with the religious directives.¹⁷ Examples of religiously imposed barriers to care include:

- A cardiologist at a Catholic hospital in Colorado was reprimanded for discussing abortion as an option with a pregnant patient who exhibited signs of a disorder that can be highly life-threatening for pregnant people.¹⁸

- A patient in the first trimester of pregnancy received a diagnosis of brain cancer in a Catholic hospital. She needed chemotherapy that would have been harmful to the fetus, but the hospital refused to allow her to receive an abortion there, disrupting her care.¹⁹
- A patient with excessive vaginal bleeding due to polycystic ovarian syndrome went to the emergency room of a Catholic hospital. The standard of care is to provide a high dose of contraception in this circumstance, but the physician’s assistant in the emergency room would not provide it or a prescription for it or for another drug that was in the same class as contraception. As a result, the patient bled all weekend, waiting to see her ob-gyn in the office.²⁰
- Transgender patients experience significant discrimination and denials of care that are not limited to obstetrics and gynecology. When transgender people experience religiously based refusals of care, or anticipate that they will, this experience can lead them to delay or avoid accessing needed care, including routine preventative care.²¹

The Religious Directives Apply to the Entire Facility and All Employees

It has similarly been argued by affiliation proponents that, if UC could forge an agreement in which the religious directives did not apply to UC faculty practicing at Dignity Health or other religiously restrictive facilities, concerns about the affiliation would be moot. The idea that such an agreement could be made is belied by the religious directives themselves, which specifically state that, under any affiliation, Catholic facilities may not be made available for “immoral procedures” regardless of who provides them.

But, beyond that, this argument neglects to consider all the other points at which a UC patient sent to a Dignity Health hospital could experience religious restrictions on care. For example, even if a UC student or instructor at a Dignity Health or other Catholic hospital were allowed to “promote contraceptives,” other staff at the hospital would not be permitted to note that in the patient’s medical record, provide referral information, or otherwise fully participate in the care of that patient. Religious directive 73 states in full: “Before affiliating with a health care entity that permits immoral procedures, a Catholic institution must ensure that neither its administrators nor its employees will manage, carry out, assist in carrying out, make its facilities available for, make referrals for, or benefit from the revenue generated by immoral procedures.”

In summary, religious directives apply throughout Catholic hospitals, and it is not possible to position either UC providers or UC patients in these hospitals without the risk that they will be subject to religious restrictions on care that are counter to UC’s mission and values, as well as violative of the law governing UC as a public institution.

To live up to its values and meet its legal obligations, UCSF must terminate the existing contracts discussed above and refrain from entering into any new arrangements that would subject UCSF faculty, staff, trainees, students, or patients to religious restrictions on care.

Re: UCSF partnership with Dignity Health

Dear Mr. Laret and Chancellor Hawgood:

We are writing on behalf of the ACLU of Northern California, the National Center for Lesbian Rights, and the National Health Law Program to express our very serious concerns about UCSF partnering with Dignity Health. In 2017, UCSF Health announced a formal affiliation with several Dignity Health hospitals in the Bay Area, and we understand from information presented by UCSF at the University of California Regents Health Services Committee (the “Committee”) meeting on December 11, 2018, that plans are underway to expand this partnership beyond the Bay Area, perhaps throughout the University of California system.

UCSF has publicized this partnership as a strategic alliance of two distinguished and long-serving Bay Area providers recognized for clinical excellence and missions to provide affordable care to all.¹ However, Dignity Health, along with other Catholic health care entities, imposes significant religious restrictions on the care it permits in its facilities. These restrictions lead to discriminatory treatment of transgender patients and women and to denials of care that have put patients' health and lives at risk. We are seriously concerned that, by partnering with an inherently discriminatory institution, UCSF is failing to meet both its legal obligations as a public entity in California and its professed values of evidence-based, inclusive, and comprehensive patient-centered care.

I. Catholic Health Care Restrictions and their Impact on Patients and Providers

All Catholic health care, including Dignity Health's Catholic hospitals, must adhere to policy proscriptions issued by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (the "Conference of Catholic Bishops"), some of which are spelled out in the Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services (the "ERDs").² Catholic health care entities are explicitly prohibited from providing a range of reproductive health services, including contraception, sterilization, and abortion; the ERDs go so far as to characterize these procedures as "intrinsically evil."³ Further, the Conference of Catholic Bishops mandates that religion take precedence over patient decision-making and autonomy by expressly stating in the ERDs that "the free and informed health care decision of the person . . . is to be followed so long as it does not contradict Catholic principles."⁴ Thus, the ultimate authority over Catholic health care is not medical, but religious.

Gender-Affirming Care for Transgender Patients Is Prohibited in Catholic Hospitals

The Conference of Catholic Bishops has been very clear that as a religious matter it does not recognize transgender people or the propriety of gender-affirming care. In comments submitted to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services in 2015, the Conference of Catholic Bishops explained as follows:

[W]e believe . . . that medical and surgical interventions that attempt to alter one's sex are, in fact, detrimental to patients. Such interventions are not properly viewed as health care because they do not cure or prevent disease or illness. Rather they reject a person's nature at birth as male or female.⁵

In the same set of comments, the Conference of Catholic Bishops also stated the following:

"Sex change" is biologically impossible. People who undergo sex reassignment surgery do not change from men to women or vice versa. . . . Claiming that this is a civil-rights matter and encouraging surgical intervention is in reality to collaborate with and promote a mental disorder.⁶

Similar anti-transgender material is posted on the Conference of Catholic Bishops website,⁷ as well as collected on the website for the National Catholic Bioethics Center.⁸

These principles are borne out in the practices of Catholic hospitals—including Dignity Health hospitals—which deny transgender people gender-affirming care. The ACLU’s representation of Evan Minton,⁹ a transgender man, illustrates this problem. Mr. Minton sought a hysterectomy to increase alignment between his body and male gender identity at Dignity Health’s Mercy San Juan Medical Center (“Mercy San Juan”). Though Mr. Minton’s physician and other Mercy San Juan physicians regularly perform hysterectomies for cisgender female patients, Mr. Minton’s procedure was abruptly canceled the day before the procedure was set to take place once the hospital learned the procedure was part of his gender-affirming care.¹⁰

Patients Are Denied Proper Miscarriage Management at Catholic Hospitals

Catholic health care has an absolute prohibition on abortion, even when a pregnant person’s health is jeopardized by the pregnancy.¹¹ Additionally, the ERDs’ broad definition of abortion¹² leads Catholic hospitals to ban the safest method for terminating an ectopic pregnancy and to consider the evacuation of a uterus during a miscarriage to be an abortion if there is still a fetal heartbeat. Emergency situations are ostensibly addressed by ERD 47, which states that medical treatments that terminate a pregnancy are permitted when their direct purpose is the “cure of a proportionately serious pathological condition of a pregnant woman” and when the treatments “cannot be safely postponed until the unborn child is viable.”¹³ However, beyond the inescapable core issue that, at a moment of emotional and physical trauma for the pregnant person, decisions about medical care are being made based on religious principles rather than by the patient in consultation with a medical provider, there are two serious problems with this supposed safeguard.

First, patients must be exhibiting a “proportionately serious” medical condition in order to demonstrate that the completion of a miscarriage is justified under the ERDs. In other words, for a Catholic hospital to allow a physician to provide care that will end the pregnancy, a patient must already be experiencing medical problems such as infection that put their life at risk, even if it is clear that the pregnancy is non-viable and that earlier action could prevent the infection from occurring in the first place. A qualitative study of obstetricians and gynecologists practicing at Catholic hospitals quotes Dr. R, who explained that he and colleagues “often tell patients that we can’t do anything in the hospital but watch you get infected.” He goes on to say, “it’s just very difficult for them, they’re already in a hard place . . . we actually have the patients discharge themselves . . . drive themselves and then admit themselves to the next institution.”¹⁴ A policy dictating that patients experiencing miscarriage must first get infected and then be treated, rather than treating them before infection sets in, runs counter to appropriate medical practice and patient-centered care.

Second, the interpretation of ERD 47 varies widely among hospitals and leads to confusion among health care providers as to when it is theologically justified to provide emergency care that terminates a pregnancy.¹⁵ The Catholic policy’s lack of clarity, as well as its requirement that providers deviate from the standard practice of medicine, can lead to horrible patient outcomes. For example, Tamesha Means,¹⁶ a Michigan woman, was denied medically appropriate care by a Catholic hospital after her water broke when she was 18 weeks pregnant, pre-viability. Despite increasing signs of infection, the hospital did not inform Ms. Means that there was almost no chance that she could give birth to a healthy baby and did not present her with the option of ending the pregnancy, even though that would have been the safest course of action. Instead, the hospital twice sent her home with Tylenol and would have done so a third time if Ms. Means had not gone into labor while at the hospital. The baby died within hours of delivery.

Contraception and Assisted Reproductive Technologies Are Prohibited in Catholic Health Care Facilities

Policies established by the Conference of Catholic Bishops explicitly prohibit Catholic health care entities from providing contraception to patients.¹⁷ This negatively affects patients who are unable to obtain a postpartum tubal ligation after giving birth at a Catholic hospital. Tubal ligations are the family planning method of choice for 30.2% of U.S. married women of reproductive age,¹⁸ and the American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) has said: “Given the consequences of a missed procedure and the limited time frame in which it may be performed, postpartum sterilization should be considered an urgent surgical procedure.”¹⁹

Patients who give birth in Dignity Health’s Catholic hospitals, such as ACLU client Rebecca Chamorro,²⁰ are denied access to tubal ligation. Ms. Chamorro sought and was denied a tubal ligation immediately following her C-section delivery at Dignity Health’s Mercy Medical Center Redding (MMCR), the only hospital within a 70-mile radius that has a labor and delivery ward. While Dignity Health’s Catholic hospitals do provide postpartum tubal ligations to some patients, the ultimate decision of whether to approve a doctor’s application to perform a tubal ligation on a patient is made by a staff member charged with enforcement of the ERDs, rather than by a medical professional.

Catholic healthcare's ban on contraception also harms patients who might need emergency contraception due to a missed or failed method, since Catholic health care permits emergency contraception only in cases of rape and, even then, only under certain circumstances.²¹ The ban additionally disrupts the contraceptive method of inpatients at a Catholic hospital who are not able to access contraception during that period.

At the December 2018 Committee meeting, UCSF representatives offered Committee members reassurance that lack of access to contraception would not be a problem in the Dignity Health hospitals partnering with UCSF. Dr. Dana Gossett, division director of obstetrics and gynecology at UCSF and Vice Chair of UCSF Health Regional Women's Health Strategy, mentioned a "work-around" in which many patients at St. Mary's have "menstrual disorders," for which Catholic health care permits contraception to be prescribed.²² This begs the question of why UCSF, a leading medical institution, would sanction this type of misdiagnosis. Beyond that, pharmacies in Catholic hospitals do not typically stock contraception,²³ causing us to wonder whether access to contraception at St. Mary's would actually be possible in the way described by Dr. Gossett.

If St. Mary's or other Catholic Dignity Health hospitals did knowingly provide birth control to patients for contraceptive purposes, this would violate the Conference of Catholic Bishop's policies governing Catholic health care. Dignity Health has stated clearly that it intends to adhere to these directives. According to Dignity Health's counsel, "a Catholic hospital risks the Bishop's revocation of its Catholic status under Canon Law if it does not comply with the ERDs."²⁴

Finally, Catholic health care prohibits in vitro fertilization and other assisted reproductive technologies (ART). The ERDs state that "[r]eproductive technologies that substitute for the marriage act are not consistent with human dignity."²⁵ This position, while harmful for all couples experiencing infertility, has an especially problematic impact on same-sex couples who, as a group, rely on ART to conceive.

"Transparency" Does Not Mitigate Harm to Patients

At the Committee meeting, UCSF representatives acknowledged that patients would be denied care at Dignity Health hospitals. They asserted that the "transparency" of telling patients about these denials is of primary importance, suggesting that this would alleviate the problem of referring UCSF patients to Dignity Health hospitals. However, patients like Evan Minton have a right to care that is free of discrimination. By informing these patients that they will be denied care at Dignity Health hospitals, UCSF does not reduce the discrimination the patients are facing. Instead, UCSF supports the continuation of a discriminatory practice and the demeaning treatment of patients who are seeking care, resulting in a “stigma inconsistent with the history and dynamics of civil rights laws that ensure equal access to goods, services, and public accommodations.” Masterpiece Cakeshop, Ltd. v. Colo. Civil Rights Comm’n, 138 S. Ct. 1719, 1727 (2018). Indeed, UCSF’s position is akin to saying that it is acceptable for a Dignity Health hospital to discriminate as long as it has a sign out front saying, “No transgender people allowed.”

Similarly, the transfer or referral of denied patients to a different hospital creates a work-around that allows discrimination to flourish. Indeed, during a hearing in Mr. Minton’s case, the judge compared the fact that Dignity Health ultimately allowed Mr. Minton to receive care in one of its secular hospitals to Plessy v. Ferguson, stating, “It has a smell of ‘separate but equal,’ which as we know was abandoned in 1954.”²⁶

Providers at Catholic Hospital Experience Ethical Conflicts

Though the ERDs bar the promotion of contraceptive practices and warn about the “danger of scandal” in mere association with abortion providers, UCSF representatives expressed at the Committee meeting that there is “no gag rule” that would prohibit or limit UCSF or Dignity Health providers from discussing abortion or other barred services.²⁷ Yet in 2013, Michael A. Demos, a cardiologist practicing at a Catholic hospital in Colorado, was reprimanded for discussing abortion as an option with a pregnant patient who exhibited signs of a disorder that can be highly life-threatening for pregnant people. The hospital’s chief medical officer told Dr. Demos that, pursuant to the ERDs, he was not allowed to recommend or discuss the possibility of pregnancy termination with patients, regardless of the circumstances.²⁸

Dr. Demos is not the only medical provider whose professional obligations toward patients have been disrupted by Catholic health care’s proscriptions on care. Indeed, research has shown that providers at Catholic facilities are torn between the religious ethics of their employers and the patient centered-obligation of their profession.²⁹ In a national survey of obstetricians and gynecologists (OB-GYNs) in the U.S., 52% of those working in Catholic institutions reported a conflict with the institution over religiously-based policies.³⁰

In California, the California Medical Association (CMA) has expressed concern that Dignity Health is imposing non-medical criteria that countermand physicians’ medical judgment and prevent them from providing the standard of care for their patients.³¹ Citing the American Medical Association’s Code of Medical Ethics Opinion regarding the patient-physician relationship, CMA has also expressed that enforcement of the ERDs can impede physicians' ethical obligations to place patients' welfare above their own and other groups' interests.³²

Dignity Health Follows the Proscriptions of Catholic Health Care

As was discussed at the Committee meeting, Dignity Health currently comprises Catholic hospitals that adhere to the ERDs and other hospitals that adhere to the Statement of Common Values³³; hospitals in the latter group prohibit abortion but permit contraception. Of those that are part of the existing UCSF partnership, the Catholic hospitals are St. Mary's and Dominican, while the Statement of Common Values hospitals are St. Francis and Sequoia. During the meeting, Dr. Gossett emphasized the lesser restrictions at the non-Catholic hospitals, stating that St. Francis has no restrictions on tubal ligations and has a transgender health center.

However, in 2018, the Conference of Catholic Bishops issued an update to the ERDs that changes the landscape of Catholic health care systems. The new ERDs state that hospitals coming under a Catholic institution through acquisition, governance or management "must be operated in full accord with the moral teaching of the Catholic Church, including these Directives."³⁴ In its approval of the recent merger between Dignity Health and Catholic Health Initiatives, the California Attorney General set a condition that existing reproductive health services must be maintained throughout the merged entity in California for five years; we are concerned, however, that after that time, Dignity Health will bring all of its hospitals under the ERDs, as prescribed by the Conference of Catholic Bishops, thus abolishing the lower level of restriction touted by UCSF administrators at the Committee meeting.

The new ERDs similarly address partnerships with secular hospitals:

Before affiliating with a health care entity that permits immoral procedures, a Catholic institution must ensure that neither its administrators nor its employees will manage, carry out, assist in carrying out, make its facilities available for, make referrals for, or benefit from the revenue generated by immoral procedures.³⁵

This statement stands in contrast to comments made at the Committee meeting that, due to the partnership with UCSF, patients at Dignity Health hospitals would not be denied reproductive health information or referrals.

II. The UCSF/Dignity Health Partnership Raises Serious Legal Concerns under Federal and State Law

The exact scope of the proposed UCSF/Dignity Health partnership has not been made clear to the public. Nonetheless, any partnership where UCSF patients are being provided care in a Dignity Health facility that imposes religious restrictions on that care raises serious legal questions.

UCSF is a public entity. As such, it has legal obligations that go far beyond those of a private entity such as Dignity Health. It is the position of the undersigned—as evidenced by the several lawsuits the ACLU has filed against Dignity Health for its discriminatory denials of care—that even private entities cannot invoke religious belief as a justification for discrimination in businesses open to the general public. But it is certainly the case that California’s public university system cannot invoke Dignity Health’s religious beliefs as a basis for denying care to its patients.

Indeed, on its face, the UCSF/Dignity Health partnership raises a host of questions about how the government can legally partner with an entity that explicitly restricts patient care on the basis of its religious beliefs. Yet at the Committee meeting, the only legal analysis UCSF provided on this front pertained to religious iconography in Dignity Health facilities. While it is troubling that UCSF patients would be subjected to religious iconography in accessing care at Dignity Health facilities, this is plainly a lesser issue than those same patients being subjected to religiously restricted care. Among other laws, the UCSF/Dignity Health partnership raises concerns under the following:

Establishment Clause: Both the U.S. and California Constitutions prohibit “sponsorship, financial support, and active involvement of the [state] in religious activity.” Lemon v. Kurtzman, 403 U.S. 602, 612 (1971). Even where the purpose of the government action is secular, the Establishment Clauses may still be violated where the principal or primary effect of the action advances religion or where the action fosters an excessive entanglement with religion. Id. at 612-13. The Supreme Court has also long held that the government unconstitutionally advances religion where it favors religion to the point of forcing unwilling third parties to bear the burden, or suffer harm, as a result of this favoritism. See, e.g., Estate of Thornton v. Caldor, Inc., 472 U.S. 703 (1985). Here, UCSF’s decision to partner with Dignity Health facilities would impose on its patients the burden of Dignity Health’s religious restrictions on care.

Equal Protection: Denying transgender people gender-affirming care constitutes sex discrimination in violation of constitutional equal protection. In the recent case of Norsworthy v. Beard, a federal district court held that the refusal of the California Department of Corrections (“CDCR”) to provide a transgender inmate with gender-affirming care violated the federal equal protection clause. 87 F. Supp. 3d 1104 (N.D. Cal. 2015). As with Catholic health care entities, the CDCR allowed the contested procedure—vaginoplasty—for cisgender women, yet it denied the procedure for transgender women, deeming the procedure for them “medically unnecessary.” The court concluded that such discrimination was discrimination on the basis of transgender status and did not hold up to intermediate scrutiny. Id. at 1121. Yet UCSF patients receiving care in Dignity Health facilities would similarly be denied gender-affirming care.

There is also clear case law that under the equal protection and privacy guarantees of the California Constitution, governmental entities must treat all pregnancy options neutrally. In Committee to Defend Reproductive Rights v. Myers, 29 Cal. 3d 252, 285 (1981), the California Supreme Court found state restrictions on Medi-Cal funding of abortion to be unconstitutional, ruling that while the government need not provide public funding for any pregnancy-related care, it could not exclude abortion coverage if it provided support for prenatal care and delivery to indigent pregnant women. Thus, patients seeking care from UCSF cannot only be offered obstetric and gynecologic care—they also must be offered abortion care.

California’s Constitutional No-Aid Clause: Article XVI, Section 5 of the California Constitution provides that no California state entity “shall ever make an appropriation, or pay from any public fund whatever, or grant anything to or in aid of any religious sect, church, creed, or sectarian purpose, or help support or sustain any school, college, university, hospital or other institution controlled by any religious creed, church or sectarian denomination whatever” California courts have recognized that this clause is broader than either the federal or state establishment clauses, in that it prohibits government action that has “the direct, immediate, and substantial effect of advancing religion.” Paulson v. Abdelnour, 145 Cal. App. 4th 400, 435 (2007). Even for a secular purpose, “a government entity may not enter into an exclusive contract with a religious organization which will result in the organization receiving a financial benefit from the government.” Id.

California Non-Discrimination Law: In addition to the constitutional provisions, California statutory law is clear that government entities in California may not discriminate on the basis of sex, including gender identity, gender expression, and sexual orientation. Cal. Gov’t Code § 11135. Nor may government entities contract with entities that discriminate on these bases. Cal. Gov’t Code § 12990.

Even more generally, California’s Unruh Civil Rights Act promises that all those within the jurisdiction of the state are “free and equal” and “entitled to the full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishments of every kind whatsoever.” Cal. Civ. Code § 51(b). Thus, the Unruh Act prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex, including gender identity, gender expression, and sexual orientation in all business establishments. Id. § 51(e)(5).

Indeed, California prohibits the University of California from requiring any of its employees to travel to states that have recently enacted laws that authorize discrimination based on sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression, and the state further prohibits UC from approving requests for travel to those states. Cal. Gov’t Code § 11139.8(b). This law was enacted specifically in response to other states enacting broad religious exemptions to their non-discrimination laws, and the preamble to the law states: “[t]he exercise of religious freedom should not be a justification for discrimination.” Id. at § 11139.8(a)(4).

III. UCSF’s Leadership in Evidence-Based, Inclusive, and Comprehensive Health Care

In addition to its legal obligations, UCSF also has a stated commitment to providing comprehensive reproductive health care as well as patient-centered, non-discriminatory care. As an institution, UCSF prides itself on providing care to patients with an individualized approach, recognizing that the when it comes to patient-centered care, the “whole is often greater than the sum of its parts.”³⁶ UCSF’s Bixby Center for Global Reproductive Health is self-characterized as one of the few research institutions to “unflinchingly address abortion” by expanding and improving access, training providers, and supporting efficacy and safety through clinical trials and research.³⁷ Focusing on “evidence, empowerment and impact,” the leadership of the Bixby Center has informed reproductive and sexual health policies, treatment, and care guidelines throughout the country and the world, helping to ensure access to the full scope of reproductive health care for all.³⁸

UCSF has also been recognized as a leader in LGBTQ-inclusive care, achieving a perfect score on the LGBT Healthcare Equality Index, which evaluates providers on metrics of LGBTQ patient-centered care, several years in a row.³⁹ The innovative capacity-building, community research, and clinical programs of the Center of Excellence for Transgender Health are making strides towards achieving UCSF’s mission to increase access to comprehensive, effective, and affirming health care services for transgender and gender non-conforming people at UCSF and throughout the field.⁴⁰ In addition, UCSF’s Child and Adolescent Gender Center Clinic, with which National Center for Lesbian Rights and other community organizations have a longstanding relationship, provides comprehensive medical and psychological care, as well as advocacy and legal support, to gender non-conforming and transgender youth and adolescents.⁴¹

Thus, it is particularly troubling that UCSF would choose to partner with Dignity Health, when UCSF has long presented itself as committed to the very kind of care that Dignity Health refuses to provide—comprehensive reproductive health care and LGBTQ-inclusive care. Dignity Health’s practices blatantly contradict UCSF’s own professed Professionalism, Respect, Integrity, Diversity and Excellence (PRIDE) Values, community principles articulated in solidarity with the “integral cultural concept” within the LGBTQ community, representing solidarity, collectivity, and identity as well as resistance to discrimination and violence.⁴²

In contrast, as mentioned above, the ERDs state that “Catholic health care institutions need to be concerned about the danger of scandal in any association with abortion providers,”⁴³ and the Conference of Catholic Bishops has said:

Gender ideology harms individuals and societies by sowing confusion and self-doubt. The state itself has a compelling interest, therefore, in maintaining policies that uphold the scientific fact of human biology and supporting the social institutions and norms that surround it. ... The movement today to enforce the false idea—that a man can be or become a woman or vice versa—is deeply troubling.⁴⁴

At the Committee meeting, Dignity Health was referred to as a partner with closer shared values to UCSF than many other health systems because of its commitment to population health and serving the community. However, marginalized patients, including women of color who are more likely to receive reproductive health care at a Catholic-affiliated facility, most need access to complete and accurate care of the highest professional standards.⁴⁵ Failure to provide access to this care will only exacerbate existing health disparities.

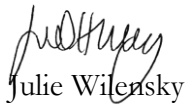

As threats to reproductive health care access continue to escalate at the national level, and more barriers are erected against LGBTQ individuals seeking care, UCSF must remain firmly committed to its history and bedrock principles of inclusive, unbiased care. A partnership with Dignity Health stands in direct contradiction to those values. We therefore strongly urge UCSF to reconsider its affiliation with Dignity Health. Should UCSF choose to proceed with this partnership, we will consider a variety of potential next steps, including litigation.

Part I
EDUCATIONAL TRAINING AGREEMENT
DIGNITY HEALTH TERMS AND CONDITIONS

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

1.1 Program Covered under this Agreement. School provides and conducts various educational and/or academic programs ("Program(s)") for its students (at times referred to herein individually as a "Student" or, collectively, as "Students"). and such Program(s) require clinical and/or non-clinical experience so that the Student(s) can fulfill an academic requirement (collectively, the "Field Experience").

1.2 Program under Jurisdiction of School. Any Program that is covered under this Agreement is an education Program of the School and not of the Training Site. Accordingly, any Student participating in the Program shall at all times be under the exclusive jurisdiction of the School as set forth herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the time, place and subject matter of all educational activities hereunder, including any plans for such activities, shall be subject to the approval of the Training Site. School assumes responsibility for assuring that each Student does nothing detrimental to the Training Site patients, and that each Student observes and complies with the rules and regulations of the Training Site as more specifically set forth herein.

1.3 Primary Contacts. Each Party shall designate a primary contact and an alternate (collectively "Primary Contact") respectively, who shall coordinate with each other in the planning, development, implementation and coordination of the Program(s) to be provided to the Students. There will be ongoing communications and periodic evaluation between the Parties relating to changes or issues involving staff, curriculum, policies and/or procedures.

1.4 Application of Agreement to Program(s). The School's Primary Contact shall determine in advance with the Training Site's Primary Contact from time to time during the term of this Agreement as to which Program(s) provided by the School are included under this Agreement. Such information shall be separately documented by both the School and the Training Site.

1.5 Preliminary Information. Once it is determined among the Parties as to which Program shall be conducted at Training Site, the School and the Training Site shall agree before the beginning of that particular Field Experience upon the following: the location(s) and/or the clinical care unit(s) where the training will occur; the number and identity of the Student(s) participating in the training for the particular Program; and the period of time for each Student's training, including without limitation date of arrival and date of completion. Such information shall be separately documented by both the School and the Training Site.

1.6 Supervision. School shall maintain responsibility for Student activities and conduct while at Training Site, and shall maintain supervision over the Program(s) (including all grading); however, Training Site shall provide appropriate Field Experience.

1.7 Cooperation and Coordination with Training Site.

(a) In order to assure the effectiveness of each Program, School and Training Site will work together in planning and implementing the Program, and in this connection shall advise one another of the philosophy, objectives, policies and regulations of their respective institutions and establish such matters as the time and place of education and the number of Students to participate in the Program at any one time.

(b) School and Training Site shall also consult with each other with respect to a Student evaluation process pertaining to the Field Experience.

(c) School and Training Site shall in addition cooperate to ensure a positive learning environment for all Students, monitor the learning environment and engage each other in addressing negative influences when detected. Further, School and Training Site shall cooperate so that each Student assumes progressively an increase in Field Experience according to that Student's level of education, ability and experience, with School determining the appropriate level of Field Experience.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Party shall be responsible for specific elements of the Program as set forth herein.

1.8 Instructors/Clinical Preceptors.

(a) If applicable, School is responsible for obtaining instructor(s) and/or preceptor(s) authorized by the Training Site to supervise all instruction and Student activities for the Program at Training Site, except for any particular course(s) that use clinical preceptors (instructors and preceptors obtained by School shall be at times referred to herein individually as an "Instructor" or, collectively, as "Instructors"). In the case of any Student undertaking an education and/or academic program to become a physician assistant, nurse practitioner, nurse midwife, certified registered nurse anesthetist or other mid-level licensed independent practitioner in training (collectively "Mid-Level Student"): (i) said Instructor shall be a member of the Medical Staff of the Training Site; (ii) said Instructor shall not serve as a preceptor for more than one (1) Mid-Level Student at any given time; and (iii) School shall submit to Training Site verification of the School's agreement with said Instructor and of the Instructor's agreement to comply with all applicable statutes and regulations governing preceptors.

(b) With respect to Mid-Level Students, School shall comply, and shall require each Mid-Level Student to comply, with the Training Site Rules and the Medical Staff Rules (as defined in Section 4.1 below), as well as the standards of The Joint Commission, as applicable. In addition, School shall advise the Mid-Level Student that the Mid-Level Student has no rights pursuant to the Medical Staff Rules, including, but not limited to, any hearing rights.

(c) Training Site shall provide an adequate number of qualified personnel to supervise any particular course(s) requiring clinical preceptor(s). Each clinical preceptor shall assume responsibility for care provided to patient(s) while the Student participates in the Field Experience, and shall ensure that all appropriate patient consents are obtained; except that in the case of Mid-Level Students, the Instructor shall remain responsible for patient care and shall ensure that all appropriate patient consents are obtained.

(d) If this Agreement is intended to facilitate School assigning or placing nursing or Mid-Level Students at Training Site, School shall ensure that the Instructor is at all times present at the Training Site any time its Students are present in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, including both "prep time" and "clinical time." At no time will School direct its nursing or Mid-Level Students into Training Site unaccompanied or unsupervised without the Training Site's consent.

II. SCHOOL'S RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1 Accreditation. School shall maintain accreditation(s) appropriate for its location and the program(s) it offers, including without limitation:

(a) Regional or National Institutional accreditation by a U.S. accrediting body recognized by the United States Department of Education and authorized to grant institutional accreditation.

(b) Programmatic accreditation, when such exists, by a U.S. accrediting body appropriate to the profession and/or health care specialty for each Program.

(i) If requested by Training Site, School shall deliver each year to the Training Site Primary Contact an electronic copy of School's annual report as filed with its programmatic accreditor, and shall do so no later than forty-five (45) days after School's due date for filing said annual report.

(ii) School shall further deliver to the Training Site Primary Contact electronic copies of any written communication by and between School and its programmatic accreditor that pertains to changes in approval status, citations, sanctions, directives to suspend, limit or cease future enrollments, directives to improve or the assignment of progress reports within forty-five (45) days of School's sending or receipt of same.

(c) Appropriate State licensing and credentials of its entities and employees, as applicable, and shall, upon Training Site's request, furnish additional evidence of such accreditation, licensing and/or credentials.

2.2 Student/Instructor Contact Information. School shall complete and send to the Training Site Primary Contact a profile for each Student enrolled in the Program(s) (and, if applicable, each Instructor employed by the School), which shall include the Student's/Instructor's name, address and telephone number prior to the beginning of the planned Field Experience. Training Site shall regard this information as confidential. Training Site also reserves the right to develop, implement and require an online registration system, which School and/or Student(s) may use to enter the above and additional information including without limitation email address, job experience, credentials and attestation. School may incur a charge, payable to Training Site or the online registration vendor, for Student and/or Instructor access to the online registration system.

2.3 Schedule of Assignments. School shall notify the Training Site Primary Contact of its requested schedule of Student assignments and/or any changes in Student assignments, including the name of the Student, level of academic preparation, date of arrival, and length and dates of the Field Experience not less than thirty (30) days prior to the planned Field Experience. This schedule shall be subject to Training Site's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

2.4 Approval and Qualification. Only Students who have satisfactorily completed the pre-Field Experience didactic portion of the Program, which is prerequisite to the Field Experience, shall participate in the Field Experience. The number of Students to participate in the Field Experience at any one time is subject to Training Site's prior written approval.

2.5 Planning and Educational Objectives. School shall plan the educational Program, and shall provide to the Training Site Primary Contact a copy of the Program and/or unit-specific learning and/or performance objectives and skills checklist as appropriate for the training, plus a copy of the appropriate clinical program handbook. School shall also provide assurance that the Student assigned is academically prepared to meet such objectives.

2.6 Records. School shall maintain all attendance and academic records and reports of the Student(s) participating in the Program(s), and, if applicable, personnel records for its Instructor(s), in accordance with all legal requirements, for a period of not less than five (5) years.

2.7 Rules and Regulations. School shall enforce rules and regulations governing the Student(s) as mutually agreed upon by School and Training Site. School shall also use all reasonable efforts to assure each Student's compliance with the Training Site's policies and procedures, rules and regulations, including without limitation preservation of confidentiality with respect to all patient related information accessed and/or acquired in the course of the Field Experience.

2.8 Health Policy. School shall provide to Training Site Primary Contact, no less than thirty (30) days prior to a Student's/Instructor's arrival at the Training Site, proof that such Student/Instructor meets the health screening requirements set forth in Section D of Part II. School shall notify Training Site prior to a Student's/Instructor's arrival at the Training Site if the Student/Instructor does not meet the health screening requirements and/or is a known carrier of an infectious or communicable disease. If such information reasonably suggests that patients of the Training Site may be placed at risk by the presence of a particular Student/Instructor, Training Site reserves the right to refuse to allow such Student/Instructor to participate in Field Experience at the Training Site. Training Site is not financially responsible for providing health screening services/tests for Students/Instructors.

2.9 Bloodborne Pathogen Training. School shall assure that each Student assigned to Training Site, prior to any observation period or participation in any Field Experience, has received training in blood and body fluid standard precautions consistent with the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Guidelines. Documentation of such training will be provided to Training Site upon request.

2.11 Background Checks.

(a) For each Student eighteen years (18) years of age or older, and for each Instructor, Training Site requires School to provide proof of a lawful background check for each Student and Instructor before the planned Field Experience. The background check shall meet, and shall be conducted in accordance with, the requirements set forth in Part II. The results of the background check shall be scored based on the Dignity Health Background Screening Scoring Guidelines (the "Guidelines"), as the same are set forth in Part II. School shall notify Training Site prior to a Student's/Instructor's arrival at the Training Site in the event that, based on the Guidelines, such Student/Instructor scores other than a "Pass" on the background check. If any information obtained through the background check may indicate that patients of Training Site may be placed at risk by the presence of a particular Student and/or Instructor, Training Site reserves the right to refuse to allow such Student and/or Instructor to participate in the Program(s) at Training Site. Training Site is not financially responsible for the background check.

(b) For each Student less than eighteen (18) years of age, School represents and warrants that, prior to Student's participation in the Field Experience, School has obtained, and shall maintain in Student's file, a recommendation from a reliable, non-related source (e.g., teacher, counselor, or pastor). These Student files shall be available for Training Site to audit at any time.

2.12 Required Documentation.

(a) School shall assure that each Student maintains medical insurance, and that each Student has complied with such other requirements upon request of Training Site, and has submitted documentation of such compliance. Such documentation shall include without limitation that each Student has signed the Confidentiality Statement attached hereto as Part IV and the Student Declaration of Responsibilities attached hereto as Part V outlining his/her responsibilities prior to the commencement of Student's Field Experience at the Training Site (NOTE: should Student also be an existing employee of Training Site and the Student performs the Field Experience at the same time as performing work for Training Site, Student shall not be required to sign Part V; instead, such Student shall sign Part VI, and such Student's relationship with Training Site shall be governed by Student's employment relationship with Training Site).

(b) School shall provide to the Training Site Primary Contact, no less than thirty (30) days prior to a Student's/Instructor's arrival at the Training Site, a letter in the form attached as Part III, or in another form as requested by Training Site, attesting that the Student/Instructor has successfully completed the background check, drug screen, health screening, and orientation requirements as outlined in this Agreement.

(c) NOTE: notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in the case of Instructors for Mid-Level Students, the Instructor shall not be required to sign Part III. School shall not have the obligations set forth in Section 2.8 (Health Policy) or Section 2.11 (Background Checks) with respect to such Instructor, and the School shall not be required to submit to Training Site a letter of attestation for such Instructor; rather such Instructor's relationship with Training Site shall be governed in all respects by the Instructor's status as a member of the Medical Staff of Training Site.

III. TRAINING SITE'S RESPONSIBILITIES

3.1 Access to Training Site. Training Site shall permit only authorized Instructors and only the mutually agreed upon Students enrolled in the Program(s) access to the Training Site as appropriate and necessary for the Program(s), including classroom and conference room space when available, provided that the Instructor(s) or Student(s) shall not interfere with the Training Site's regular activities.

3.2 Education Opportunities. Training Site shall provide opportunities to each Student to enable him/her to acquire clinical and/or non-clinical experience as required by Program but only to the extent that the existing facilities and varying patient census of Training Site permit. Training Site shall also permit designated Training Site personnel to participate with the Instructors in the training of the Students at Training Site, provided such participation does not interfere with the service commitments of Training Site personnel.

3.3 Accreditation. Training Site shall conform to the requirements of the appropriate accreditation agency overseeing the Program(s). Upon request, Training Site shall permit the appropriate accreditation agency to make site visits to the Training Site to verify the instructional and clinical/non-clinical experience of the School's Students.

3.4 Emergency Health Care/First Aid. Training Site shall, on any day when Student/Instructor is participating in training at Training Site, provide to Student/Instructor necessary emergency health care or first aid for accidents or conditions arising out of or in the course of said Student's or Instructor's participation in the Program at Training Site. Except as provided regarding such emergencies, Training Site shall have no obligation to furnish medical or surgical care to any Student or Instructor. Students and Instructors will be financially responsible for all such care rendered in the same manner as any other patient.

IV. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND STANDARDS

4.1 General Compliance. The Parties shall comply with the following to the extent applicable to the Program(s): (a) Dignity Health's Standards of Conduct; (b) all federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations; (c) the bylaws, rules, regulations, guidelines and policies and procedures of Training Site ("Training Site Rules"); and (d) the bylaws, rules and regulations of the Medical Staff of Training Site ("Medical Staff Rules").

4.2 Acknowledgment of Corporate Integrity Program. School acknowledges that Training Site operates under the Corporate Integrity Program of Dignity Health. School further acknowledges that, notwithstanding anything contained herein, neither Party shall engage in any conduct that may violate any policies, procedures, or directives of the Corporate Integrity Program. School further represents that the School, the Instructors and the Students have not been, nor currently are, excluded from participation in government funded healthcare programs, including without limitation Medicare, Medicaid, CHAMPUS and FEHP.

4.3 Compliance with Standards. Notwithstanding Sections 4.1 and 4.2 above, it is understood and agreed that the Field Experience shall not include, and School shall not perform and shall cause each Student and Instructor not to perform or to cause any other person to perform, while participating in the Field Experience, those procedures listed on Section A of Part VII attached hereto, or such other procedures as Dignity Health may identify to School from time to time in writing; and (b) in the process of participating in the Field Experience at a Training Site, School shall not impede, impair or interfere with, and shall cause each Student and Instructor not to impede, impair or interfere with or cause any other person to impede, impair or interfere with, those processes and practices listed on Section B of Part VII attached hereto, or such other similar processes and practices as Dignity Health may identify to School from time to time in writing. School shall, or shall direct or cause a Student or Instructor to, consult with Training Site with respect to any questions about or interpretations of the procedures, processes and practices listed in Sections A and B of Part VII, or the application of any such procedures, processes and practices to any circumstance or service performed at Training Site pursuant to this Agreement.

4.4 Non-Discrimination.

(a) The Parties agree that Student(s) participating in the Program at Training Site pursuant to this Agreement shall be selected without unlawful discrimination on account of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, disability, marital status, age, gender, sexual orientation, veteran status, medical condition (cancer related or genetic characteristic), citizenship, or any other protected status.

(b) The Parties further agree that Training Site, School or each Student participating in the Program shall not unlawfully discriminate against any patient or any other person on account of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, disability, marital status, age, gender, sexual orientation, veteran status, medical condition (cancer related or genetic characteristic), citizenship, or any other protected status.

V. STATUS OF STUDENTS AND FACULTY

5.1 Non-employment Status. It is expressly agreed and understood by School and Training Site that Students and Instructors under this Program(s) are in attendance for educational purposes, and such Students and Instructors are not considered employees of Training Site for any purpose, including without limitation compensation for services, employee welfare and pension benefits, or workers' compensation insurance. Accordingly, School will ensure all Students understand that they are trainees, and thus that they shall not be used to treat patients in lieu of trained professionals employed or contracted with Training Site. Further, all Students shall perform patient services only when under appropriate supervision of a qualified professional, which supervision shall be coordinated by Training Site and School.

5.2 No Compensation. The Program(s) under this Agreement shall be conducted without payment of any monetary consideration by School or Training Site to the other, or by or to any Student participating in the Program(s), and School shall ensure that all Students understand that Students will not be compensated in their trainee roles.

5.3 Training Site-Employee Students.

(a) Notwithstanding Section 5.1 above, should a Student also be a current employee of Training Site ("Student-Employee"), any Field Experience of that Student-Employee shall be separate and apart from all paid working hours as an employee of Training Site, and such Student-Employee shall sign Part IV and Part VI. If possible, any Field Experience of that Student-Employee shall occur at a facility other than the Training Site where the Student-Employee is an employee. In this case, the Student-Employee shall not be considered an employee of the facility where the Student-Employee participates in the Field Experience and shall receive no compensation as set forth in Sections 5.1 and 5.2 above.

(b) In the event that the Student-Employee performs the Field Experience at Training Site where Student-Employee is employed, and at the same time as performing work for Training Site, Training Site's relationship with Student shall be that of employer-employee for employment purposes, including without limitation compensation, benefits, provision of patient services and compliance with Training Site policies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such a Student-Employee shall receive no compensation while purely participating in the Field Experience, and shall merely be able to obtain education credit while performing work for Training Site when such work is purely as part of the Field Experience.

(c) Student-Employees must also comply with the special requirements set forth in Part II.

School shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Training Site and its affiliates, parents, subsidiaries, directors, trustees, officers, agents, employees and volunteers from any and all liability, loss, expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees) or claims for injury or damages arising out of the performance of this Agreement but only in proportion to and to the extent such liability, loss, expense, attorneys' fees, or claims for injury or damages are caused

(a) General and professional liability insurance or self-insurance covering School, Students and Instructors, each insurance with limits of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence and $3,000,000 annual aggregate. However, if School is a public entity entitled to governmental immunity protections under applicable state law, then School shall provide occurrence-based liability coverage in accordance with any limitations associated with the applicable law; but School shall provide such insurance with limits of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence and $3,000,000 annual aggregate in the event governmental immunity protections are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to not apply. If such insurance or self-insurance is on a claims-made basis, School shall maintain continuous coverage for the term of this Agreement and a period of three (3) years after termination or expiration of this Agreement.

(b) School further warrants and represents that it provides workers' compensation insurance for its own employees (including Instructors employed by School) as required by applicable state law, and student accident insurance of at least $10,000 for any Student not covered by School's workers' compensation insurance.

7.2 Training Site Insurance. Training Site shall maintain insurance or self-insurance through the Dignity Health Self-Insurance Program for general and professional liability and workers' compensation coverage. However, in no event shall Training Site's professional and general liability insurance limits be less than $1,000,000 per occurrence and $3,000,000 annual aggregate. If such insurance or self-insurance is on a claims-made basis, Training Site shall maintain continuous coverage for the term of this Agreement and a period of three (3) years after termination or expiration of this Agreement.

7.3 Certificates of Insurance/Evidence of Protection. The Parties shall provide to each other upon request certificates of insurance or evidence of protection evidencing the required insurance coverage. Such insurance shall contain a provision that the coverage cannot be cancelled, terminated or materially changed without thirty (30) days written notice to the other Party.

7.4 Survival. The terms of this Article VII shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

VIII. TERM AND TERMINATION

8.1 Termination Without Cause. Each Party may terminate this Agreement without cause, expense, or penalty effective upon expiration of the number of days' prior written notice set forth in Section F of the Key Informational Terms above.

8.2 Termination Upon Breach. Each Party may terminate this Agreement upon any breach by the other Party if such breach is not cured to the satisfaction of the non-breaching Party within ten (10) days after written notice of such breach is given by the non-breaching Party.

8.3 Effect of Termination or Expiration. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights and obligations of the Parties shall cease except those rights and obligations that have accrued and remain unsatisfied prior to the date of termination or expiration, and those rights and obligations that expressly survive termination or expiration of this Agreement. Such termination or expiration shall not take effect, however, with regard to any Student already assigned to participate in the Program at Training Site until that Student has completed training for which the Student is assigned, unless such completion would cause an undue financial or operational hardship on the Training Site or the unit in which Student is assigned ceases to operate.

8.4 Termination of Individual Student/Instructor. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Training Site may request School to withdraw from the Program(s) any Student or Instructor at Training Site whom Training Site determines is not performing satisfactorily, or who refuses to follow Training Site Rules, or violates federal or State laws. In addition, Training Site may suspend immediately from participation in the Program at Training Site any Student or Instructor who, in the sole judgment and discretion of Training Site, engages in conduct or attitude that threatens the health, safety or welfare of any person, or the confidentiality of any information relating to a patient; School shall comply with any such request immediately, unless the Training Site agrees to a longer period of time. The procedures referred to in this Section are separate from any procedures of School relating to the Student's/Instructor's continued participation in Program at School.

8.5 Termination of Student-Employees. Notwithstanding Section 8.4 above or any other contrary provision in this Agreement, Training Site's relationship with a Student-Employee for employment purposes shall be that of employer-employee, including without limitation termination.

8.6 Destruction of Training Site. In the event that Training Site is partially damaged or destroyed by fire, earthquake, or other catastrophe, and such damage is sufficient to render the Training Site untenable but not entirely or substantially destroyed, this Agreement shall be suspended until such time as Training Site determines that the premises or the facilities shall again be tenable.

IX. CONFIDENTIALITY

9.1 General Confidentiality. All Parties shall protect the confidentiality of each other's records and information, and shall not disclose confidential information without the prior written consent of the other Party.

9.2 Patient Health Information. Students and Instructors may receive or acquire from Training Site "protected health information" ("PHI") as that term is defined under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and implementing regulations, including 45 CFR Section 160 and 164 (collectively "HIPAA"). School agrees that all PHI acquired as a result of Students' training at Training Site is confidential, and that School, Students, and Instructors are prohibited from using and/or disclosing that information to any person or persons not involved in the care or treatment of the patients, in the instruction of Students, or in the performance of administrative responsibilities at Training Site. School shall protect the confidentiality of PHI as required by law at all times both during and after Students' training at Training Site. All PHI obtained, generated or encountered relating to the training shall at all times be and remain the property of Training Site.

9.3 Confidentiality Training/Workforce. School shall warrant to Training Site that each Student and Instructor has received appropriate training in the Student's/Instructor's duty to maintain the confidentiality of PHI and Training Site proprietary information at all times, and to comply with all federal and State laws relating to the privacy of individually identifiable health information. Such laws include, without limitation, HIPAA and applicable State law. Training Site reserves the right to provide appropriate confidentiality training to the Students and Instructors, and to designate the Students and Instructors as members of the Training Site's workforce, as defined by HIPAA.

9.4 Patient Authorization. No Training Site PHI may be disclosed to or shared with School (or School's employees or agents not participating as on-site Instructors) during the course of the Program(s) unless Training Site has received express written patient authorization. Training Site shall reasonably assist School in obtaining such authorization in appropriate circumstances. In the absence of such authorization, Students and Instructors shall use only de-identified information (as defined by HIPAA) in any discussion with School (or School's employees or agents not participating as on-site Instructors).

9.5 Cameras. Students and Instructors shall not be permitted to use any cameras or camera cell phones at Training Site.

9.6 Effect of Termination of Agreement on PHI. Upon the termination of this Agreement for any reason, School shall use its best efforts to return to Training Site or to destroy all written and electronic PHI received or acquired from Training Site. For example, such efforts may include destruction by shredding of Students' essays or papers containing PHI and destruction by shredding of any Faculty notes containing PHI.

9.7 Notice of Breach of Confidentiality. If School becomes aware of the unauthorized use or disclosure of PHI, School shall promptly and fully notify Training Site of all facts known to it concerning such unauthorized use or disclosure within twenty-four (24) hours of learning of such unauthorized use or disclosure.

9.8 Remedies of Breach. School agrees that, if it breaches this Article IX on Confidentiality, Training Site may immediately terminate this Agreement upon written notice of intent to terminate. In addition to damages, Training Site shall be entitled to equitable remedies, including injunctive relief, in the event of breach of this Article IX by School.

9.9 FERPA. To the extent Training Site generates or maintains educational records related to Student, Training Site agrees to comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA"), to the same extent as such laws and regulations apply to School, and shall limit access to only those Training Site employees or agents with a need to know. For the purposes of this Agreement, pursuant to FERPA, School hereby designates Training Site as a school official with a legitimate educational interest in the educational records of the participating student(s) to the extent that access to the School's records is required by Training Site to carry out the Program.

9.10 Survival. The terms of this Article IX shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

X. GENERAL PROVISIONS

10.9 Severability. In the event any portion of this Agreement is declared invalid or void by a court or arbitrator, such portion shall be severed from this Agreement, and the remaining provisions shall remain in effect, unless the effect of such severance would be to alter substantially the agreement or the obligations of the Parties, in which case this Agreement may be immediately terminated.

10.10 Third Party Beneficiaries. Unless otherwise set forth herein, nothing contained herein is intended nor shall be construed to create rights running to the benefit of third parties.

10.11 Waiver. No delay or failure to require performance of any provision of this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of such provision or any other provision. Any waiver granted by a Party must be in writing and shall apply solely to the specific instance expressly stated.

EDUCATIONAL TRAINING AGREEMENT

Student-Employee Unpaid Educational Training Agreement

This Student-Employee Unpaid Educational Training Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into on the last date signed below by and between _____ ("Training Site") and _____ ("Student"). Student and Training Site understand and agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. Student is an employee of Training Site, and is enrolled in an educational program (the "Program") to obtain _____ [license/degree/certificate] in _____. In order to provide academic and professional education for Student, Student desires access to facilities in which Student may gain experience and knowledge in Student's program of study (the "Field Experience").
2. Training Site operates a business in Student's subject area of study and, as a public service, is willing to provide Student with a Field Experience from _____ to _____ by providing a supervised working environment allowing Student to gain practical application of Student's area of study. "Practical application" of the educational program will consist of activities designed to develop professional skills beyond administrative clerical tasks, and can include, but is not limited to, [LIST – e.g., assisting in research, client communications, development of business or financial plans, strategic planning, analysis, actual operation or appropriate operations].
3. The Program is viewed by Training Site as an educational opportunity for Student rather than part-time employment. Accordingly, the Field Experience will include training and orientation and will focus primarily on learning and developing new skills in Student's area of study.
4. Student agrees that Student will not perform employment duties while functioning as a Student, and will not perform Student duties while functioning as an employee.
5. Training Site is willing to provide Student with the minimum of _____ hours of practical and actual application of Student's area of study while under close observation and supervision of Training Site's existing staff. Student's participation in the Field Experience is similar to that which would be given in a vocational setting and will not displace Training Site's existing staff.
6. Student acknowledges and agrees that Student will not receive compensation or wages in any form for participation in the Field Experience, and shall merely be able to obtain education credit while performing work for Training Site when such work is purely as part of the Field Experience. Training Site is not obligated to provide compensation or wages to Student for the Field Experience on its premises through the duration of this Field Experience.
7. Student acknowledges and agrees that workers' compensation is not provided to employees functioning in a Student role. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Student shall still be entitled to maintain Student's existing benefit plans and health insurance coverage during the Field Experience provided that Student meets the eligibility requirements in Student's capacity as an employee to receive such health and welfare benefits.
8. Student agrees to sign a separate Student Confidentiality Statement.
9. Student acknowledges and agrees that, by participating in this Field Experience, Student will not expect, nor be entitled to, employment with Training Site at the conclusion of the Field Experience or at any other time.
10. Student acknowledges and agrees that the training and supervision provided to Student is solely for Student's benefit, and Training Site does not derive an immediate advantage from the Student's activities; in fact, on occasion, Training Site's operations may be impeded. However, Training Site desires to provide a public service by assisting in education and training of students, and may expend resources to support Student's Field Experience.

11. Student agrees to perform diligently the work-based training experiences. Work-based training experiences will be assigned by Training Site and performed according to the same Training Site policies and regulations applicable to regular employees. Student agrees to abide by Training Site's policies, procedures and regulations.

12. Student agrees that Student is acting under this Agreement as a Student, and shall not be entitled to any collective bargaining rights under this Agreement as afforded to employees. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement is intended to interfere with the obligations of either Training Site or Student under the applicable terms of an applicable collective bargaining agreement, if any, with a labor organization. Either Training Site or Student, or both of them, may deem it necessary to notify immediately the appropriate labor organization of this Agreement.

13. Student agrees to change clothing and wear appropriate identification badges to signify that Student is a student when participating in the Field Experience, and to signify that Student is an employee when working at Training Site during times not constituting Field Experience.

14. Either Training Site or Student may terminate this Agreement at any time, and each agrees to give the other reasonable notice of no less than five (5) working days prior to termination date.

15. Training Site and Student agree that, if any portion of this Agreement is found to be void and unenforceable, the remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect.

(b) This Agreement is not being entered into on the basis of, or in reliance on, any promise or representation, expressed or implied, other than such as are set forth expressly in this Agreement; and

(c) Party has been represented by legal counsel of Party's own choice or has elected not to be represented by legal counsel in this matter.

9.19 Severability: If any provision of this Agreement, or the application of any provision, is determined by any court or arbitrator to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable by reason of the provision extending for too great a period of time, over too great a geographic area, or otherwise, such provision shall be interpreted to extend only for the longest period of time, over the greatest geographic area, or to otherwise have the broadest application as shall be legal, valid, and enforceable. The illegality, invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect any other provisions of this Agreement, which shall continue in full force and effect; provided, however, the illegality, invalidity or unenforceability of the provision or the provision's application is not subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 6.5.

9.20 Waiver: No delay or failure to require performance of any provision of this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of the performance of such provision or any other instance. Any waiver granted by a Party must be in writing, and shall apply solely to the specific instance expressly stated.

9.21 Master List: The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement, together with any other contracts between Hospital and UCSF, will be included on the master list of physician contracts maintained by Dignity Health.
