Stephen, I couldn't have been more proud of you as I watched you dress down the CNN reporter and school him on immigration law and the origin and meaning behind the Statue of Liberty. I have to believe President Trump must be equally as proud you stood squarely in the face of yet another attempt, undermine the President's agenda to protect the interests of all Americans and our legal residents. Congratulations on your continued good work for the President and our nation. Many are singing your praises here on local radio and around the water coolers. Still working to counter the SJC ruling that encroached into the singular authority of the Federal Government to create laws and regulate Immigration matters. We will persevere!
