

October 6, 2018

To the Parents of Students at the Oakwood Baptist Day School:

The members of the church were made aware that a pastor of Oakwood Baptist Church experienced an issue involving a child which was resolved around 1999 prior to his coming to the church. Unfortunately, it does not permit him to obtain the necessary child clearances required of church staff and the Day School employees. Since he joined Oakwood Baptist Church, this leader has not had any other legal issues which would impact his ability to obtain child clearances. He was employed by Oakwood Baptist Church but at times did have responsibilities at the Oakwood Baptist Day School. He resigned from his position in May 2018 as well as stopped attending church. According to Detective Robert Higgins there are no pending charges against this man.

We are contacting you in the abundance of caution in order to determine whether there were any concerns you had or your child/children experienced while enrolled in the Oakwood Baptist Day School. The safety of the students enrolled at Oakwood Baptist Day School is the most important aspect of this inquiry. If, during the time your child or children were enrolled at the Oakwood Baptist Day School, you had any concerns, please contact Detective Robert Higgins at the Hampden Township Police Department by calling him at [REDACTED]. You may also email him at [REDACTED]. We would like you to respond within 30 days of the date of this letter, if you have any concerns.

Thank you for your cooperation and may our Lord Jesus Christ bless you and your family.

In Christ,

Oakwood Baptist Church

Day School Supervisors

Chairman of Deacons

Naveen Allu

4315 Chestnut Street
Camp Hill, Pennsylvania 17011-4105
(717) 737-7308
www.OakwoodBaptistCampHill.org