Name of candidate(s) protest is filed against: United Voices for ASU (Diane Solorio, Bridget Saidu, Yamilet Nunez Ibanez, Alexia Isais, Sebastian Miscenich, Daniel Lopez, and Nayelli (Luz) Granados Jarquin)

Elections code violation: N/A

ABOR Code of Conduct Violation: 17. Off-campus conduct that a reasonable person would believe may present a risk or danger to the health, safety or security of the board or university community or to the safety or security of the board or university property.

Date of violation: April 5, 2020

Decision on violation: April 7, 2020

Decision:

In the case of Waxelbaum v. United Voices for ASU (Senatorial Ticket comprising of Diane Solorio, Bridget Saidu, Yamilet Nunez Ibanez, Alexia Isais, Sebastian Miscenich, Daniel Lopez, and Nayelli (Luz) Granados Jarquin). The Elections Department has decided to sanction an infraction of three (3) points to the seven (7) candidates that comprise of the United Voices for ASU Ticket, as the defendant was deemed in violation of Arizona Board of Regents statute. Section 8-1 of the USG Elections Code states: “8-1-A. Complaints shall only allege violations of non-compliance of this Elections Code, including its references to the Student Code of Conduct and other related governing documents..”

The Elections Department has reasonable evidence to believe that the United Voices for ASU Senatorial Ticket has raised reasonable concern for the risk or danger of the university community due to their tweets related to ASU President Michael Crow. As the ABOR Code of Conduct is considered a “related governing document” to the Student Code of Conduct, all USG candidates are expected to be in compliance of the governing documents of the Arizona Board of Regents.

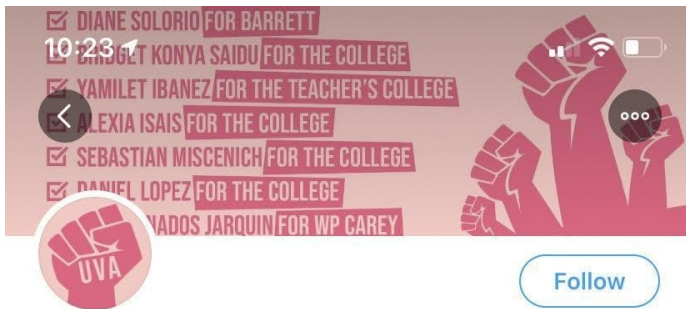

While we understand that all USG candidates retain their First Amendment rights to free speech and political expression as outlined in the United States Constitution, we do believe that there any expression specifically threatening the University President to be inappropriate and raise concern given the office they are seeking. While we value the opinions and passion of the United Voices for ASU, Undergraduate Student Government remains a nonpartisan organization as a governing body for undergraduate students.

Given this ruling, The Elections Commission will rule in favor of Judah Waxelbaum for a Level One (1) infraction of three (3) elections points to Diane Solorio, Bridget Saidu, Yamilet Nunez Ibanez, Alexia Isais, Sebastian Miscenich, Daniel Lopez, and Nayelli (Luz) Granados Jarquin.

Biden is consistently polling on average under 20 percent with voters ages 18-29 and I don't know if anyone truly understands what that might mean for the future of the Democratic Party

This is a non sequitur, what does name calling have to do with representing the student body?

 IMPORTANT UPDATES REGARDING OUR 4 POINT PROGRAM

1. Demand Refunds from ASU for in-person tuition and housing
 - The University is apparently working on that right now, we can expect reimbursement policies by the end of this week. We are ready to speak against this long overdue announcement if they do not meet student needs.
2. Curve Grading (Universal Pass)
 - An optional pass-fail policy is currently in place and is being handled at a case-by-case basis between a student, their professors, and respective Deans. We feel as if this option is an inadequate response- it is unclear, vague, and confusing. We demand more from the University. However, we encourage you to reach out to your deans and instructors if you need it!
3. Free Internet to all students who may not have access to it.
 - The University's Provost Office is renting out Hotspots and Laptops to students who need access to them with free shipping, the link will be in our bio.
4. Reasonable transparency from the University over the status of infections on campus.
 - We have not heard of any updates on this.

a $1500 NONREFUNDABLE credit ...

- A tweet from April 2, 2020 liked by the United Voices for ASU twitter saying “fuck ASU”

Conclusion: These social media posts pose a direct threat to several student organizations, memberships, along with the University President Michael Crow. Students cannot feel safe knowing that this has been said by those seeking to represent them. I have included all candidates under the United Voices for ASU slate in this complaint as they are advertising that they are a team of candidates.
