

COURT OF APPEALS

June 25, 2019

The Honorable Kate Brown
Governor, State of Oregon
900 Court Street
Salem, OR 97310-4047

Dear Governor Brown:

Please accept this letter as notice of my upcoming resignation as a judge of the Oregon Court of Appeals. October 31, 2019, will be my last day of regular judicial service on the Court of Appeals. I intend to begin my "Plan B" service as an inactive judge on November 1, 2019.

I have been extraordinarily fortunate to have spent nearly a quarter century in public service, beginning in 1995 when I was hired as an Assistant Attorney General at the Oregon Department of Justice. Throughout my career, I have been privileged to work with judges, other elected officials, and public employees who -- often over-burdened and under-recognized -- serve the people of Oregon with integrity, intelligence, compassion, and tenacity. It has been the honor and joy of my professional life to complete my years of public service in a judicial capacity, working in collaboration with the wonderful staff, lawyers, and judges of the Oregon Court of Appeals.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Erika L. Hadlock".

Erika L. Hadlock
Judge, Oregon Court of Appeals
