I'm an enumerator in Texas and I'm trying to reach out to Honorable Judge Koh to inform her that the Trump administration is planning on ignoring her orders to continue the census. I've attached screenshots of a group text from my boss that show their intention of shutting things down on 9/30.

I figured if she knew of their intention of disobeying court orders before it actually happens then there could be a chance to stop them or hold them in contempt of court.

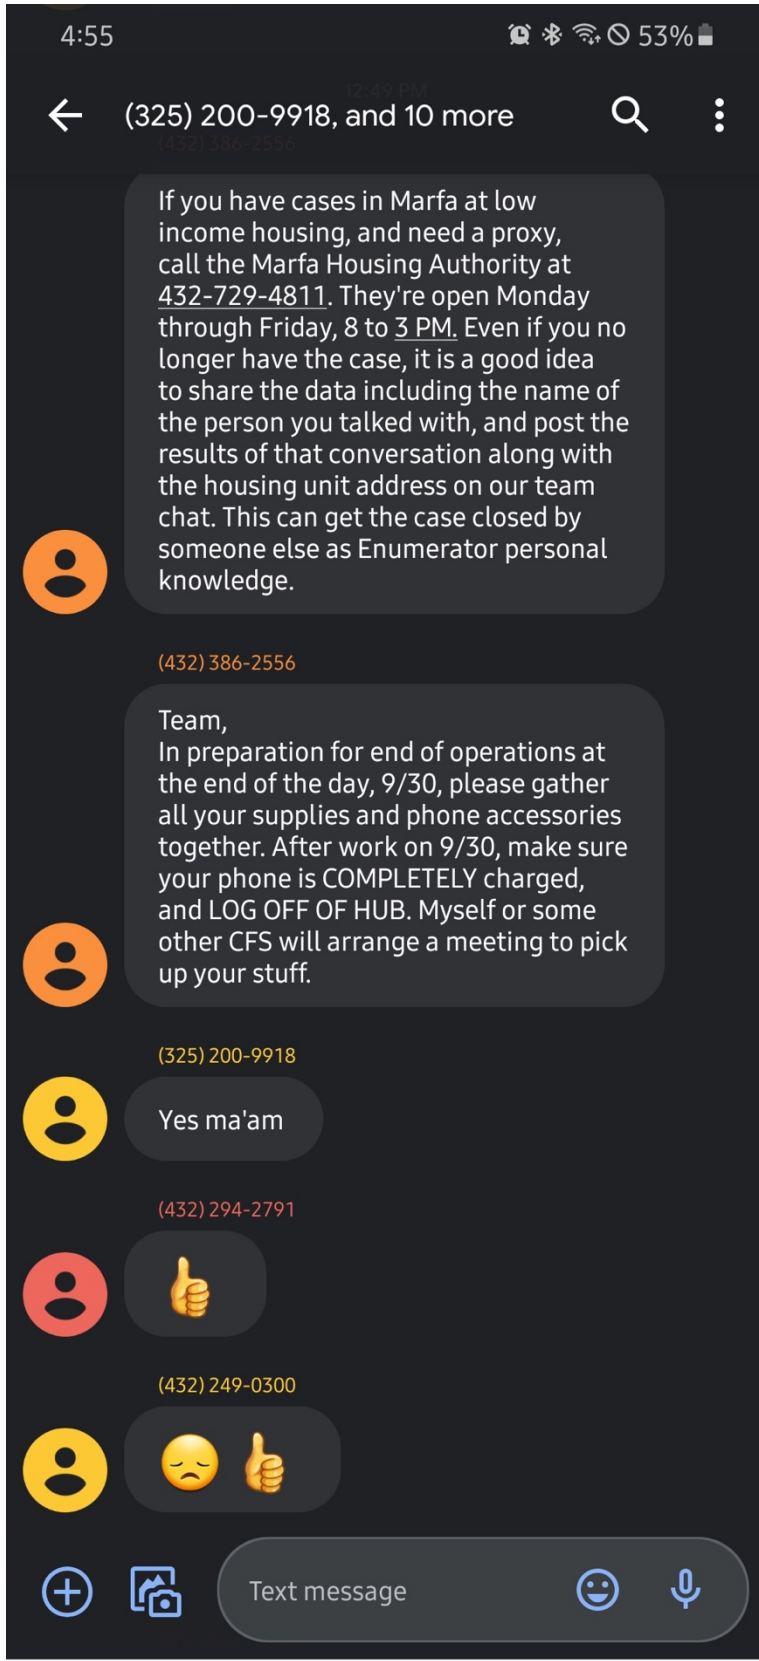

It seems to me that these texts prove they are already in contempt by planning on ignoring court orders.

Thanks
