On or about Sept. 15,1975 one Richard Pierce, USCG Mesquite reported that his wife, Carol Pierce had taken off from their residence at Sunrise Shore's Trailer Ct. on Sept. 8,1975. He also stated that she had taken $1000.00 in cash that they had saved to move back to Michigan with after his discharge. No suspicion of foul-play according to Mr. Pierce. He seemed more angry over money than the fact that she had walked out on him.

Correspondence from the missing persons mother Mrs. Pauline Fillion shows concern in that the daughter has not been heard from to date.

The area of the trailer Ct. was checked for any clews to the fact that C. Pier may have had an accident and fallen off the ledge, no evidence of Mrs. Pierce was found.

Mrs. Fillion also stated that Mr. Pierce had moved back to Michigan but has had no word of his wife.

A number of people who knew Carol Pierce were contacted including Judy Baudhui owner of the Sunrise Shores Ct., Bonnie Donovan, who stated that Carol Pierce was a loner and didn't think she wanted to move back to Michigan. Berry Stangl who lived next door, He stated that Carol had told him that she would stop by and say good-by before she left. She never stated to him that she did not want to return to Michigan. Several other people were interviewed that felt that Carol Pierce just took off.One stated that she was a trouble-maker around the ship.
