NARRATIVE		203 On 06/12/2015 @ approximately 0010 I (K9 Handler Chesser) heard Officer R. Miller call over the radio that he was trying to turn around on a vehicle travelling at a high rate of speed on Sloan toward Westgate. I was on Tuskegee St, headed Northbound, when I heard a vehicle screech to a stop. Up ahead of me I noticed a vehicle turning hard onto Tuskegee, in my direction. It had one headlight and Officer Garrett was calling that he had a vehicle with one headlight elude him moments prior.
		As the vehicle approached me, at a high rate of speed, I activated my emergency lights and pulled into the intersection at Tuskegee and Hobson. The vehicle slid to another stop and a subject bailed out of the passenger side. I bailed out of my vehicle and also bailed out Andor (K9) and gave pursuit to the subject now on foot. The vehicle began backing up Tuskegee, and for a moment I thought the on-foot subject was going to get back in the car, but instead they continued running, and the vehicle turned onto Ola, toward Booker.

I continued chasing the subject, yelling for them to stop and that I was sending my police dog, but the subject did not comply. At first Andor did not see the subject, and he was making large criss crosses in front of me. But as we reached Ola I observed the subject running across a back yard, from the corner of Ola and Tuskegee, toward Sloan. Andor saw the subject and gave pursuit. The subject had a large head start and was able to make it over an approximately 6 foot tall hog wire and barbed wire fence. I picked up Andor and tossed him over the fence and told him to search. I went down the fenceline about 20 feet and found a low enough area where I could cross. About the time I reached the crossing spot I began to hear a female screaming "get your dog! I'm a girl! Please get your dog!". I worked my way through the thick brush and located Ashley White.

Andor was biting her on the buttocks area and I immediately ordered her to place her hands behind her back, and to not fight my dog, which she was doing until I arrived. I handcuffed her and due to the darkness, fumbling with my flashlight, trying to get my leash on Andor's collar and getting it under his neck properly, it took me several moments to get him to release.

I held him back and told her to stand up. As she did, she fell back on me and Andor and he bit her on the hand. I got him to release and about this time Officers Garrett and Miller were arriving.

They took control of Ms. White and I walked Andor back to our patrol vehicle. I had already requested Paramedics to check on Ms. White's wounds. They arrived and subsequently transported her to Citizen's ER. At the ER Dr. Patel revealed her injuries (pictures attached) and decided that she needed surgery to repair the injuries to her buttocks. He said they were going to keep her overnight and a surgeon would repair her injuries in the morning. Due to this Sgt. Tomlin and Capt Thomas decided to release her for medical reasons.

A copy of the release form, with court date, was provided to her mother, which was on-scene at the ER.
